TEN TOWNS ARE DESTROYED

Large District in Peru Devastated by Quake.

SEVERAL HUNDRED ARE DEAD

Survivors Are Living in Open Space and Are Suffering Greatly from the Cold and from Hunger.

LIMA, Peru, Nov. 12.—Ten towns were destroyed and several hundred persons killed in an earthquake, which occurred last Friday in the mountainous Peruvian province of Ayacucho. News of the disaster reached this city by courier. The number of known dead was 250 when the courier left the devastated district, but it will be believed several hundred more bodies would be recovered from the wrecked towns.

The survivors are living in the open space and are suffering great privations, owing to lack of food and shelter. The government today forwarded a large quantity of provisions and has appropriated funds for their relief.

WET GOVERNOR GOES DRY

Malcom R. Patterson of Tennessee Addresses Anti-Saloon League.

EXPLAINS HIS CHANGE OF FRONT

Former Executive Says His Experience Has Demonstrated to Him that He Was on Wrong Side of Question.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Today's session of the Anti-Saloon league national convention was to be known as governors' day, notwithstanding the governors present were not to be honored from the platform until evening. The program for that period called for addresses by Governors Hanna of North Dakota and Hodges of Kansas.

Former Governor Malcom R. Patterson of Tennessee was the principal speaker at the afternoon session. Twice elected governor of Tennessee as a "wet" Mr. Patterson came to Columbus in a special car, accompanied by Governor Ben W. Hooper, who succeeded him as Tennessee's chief executive, to give his endorsement to a nation-wide program that would have for its aim the elimination of the saloon.

Mr. Patterson's Address.

Mr. Patterson said, in part: "The Anti-Saloon league and I have not always been friends. The paths we traveled were wide apart. They seemed so far apart that it looked incredible that they should ever meet. But they have met. The path I traveled turned in its course. It ran into the other, and we now find ourselves in the same road, marching in the same direction, under the same flag, actuated by the same desire to destroy the traffic in liquor and redeem a nation from its curse.

"I am aware that to have suddenly changed the views of mature manhood which I once asserted and proclaimed from one end of Tennessee to the other has excited surprise and provoked comment. But this is a world of change. Stagnation is decay and progress is the command of the age and the hope of mortality I am neither ashamed nor abashed to stand before this great audience and acknowledge the wrong, when I once advocated policies which would have been legal a trade, which I have come to look on as having no rightful place in the scheme and economy of Christian civilization."

Regrets Former Message.

Commenting on one of his messages to the Tennessee legislature in which he opposed legislation to regulate the liquor traffic, Mr. Patterson reiterated that at that time those were his honest convictions, based on a misguided judgment. He continued: "I say to you fully conscious of the meaning and responsibility of the declaration that if this message has encouraged lawlessness or even been sought as a refuge for violators of the law, if it had to stand as my last expression on the liquor question, I would consume it in the living fires and erase it forever from the minds and memories of men.

"My life has had deep sorrows. My soul has been tossed on the waves of angry seas. My nature has been profoundly touched and stirred. I have seen the trail of liquor in the criminal courts where I have prosecuted crime. I know and have been a participant in its baneful and corroding influence in the social and public life of our national capital.

"Going through life I have seen it drag down many of the associates of my boyhood, blasting their hopes and consigning them to untimely graves. I have seen its forlorn lightning strike my first-born, the child of my young manhood, and I have borne with him the suffering and tried to help him in his brave but sometimes melancholy struggle for redemption. At last I have felt its foul and stealthy blow as it turned on me in its deadly and shaming wrath—on me, who had pleaded before the people for its very existence. Men have called me strong, and I thought myself immune.

"When logic failed and reason gave no answer, I cast aside all pride of opinion, all thought of what the world might think or say, and went to the throne of Almighty God. There, on bended knees, I asked for light and strength, and they came. I crossed a changed man.

"I favor prohibition in any form that will either reduce or destroy the liquor traffic. I favor it personal-wide, town-wide, state-wide, nation-wide and world-wide."

Evans, Creston; N. F. Hansen, Miss Hansen, Lincoln; E. Harper, Clearwater; L. M. McConnell, McCook. The board of examiners will meet at the Temple, Lincoln, Wednesday and Thursday to examine candidates for registration.

H. L. Kennedy. FAIRBURY, Neb., Nov. 12.—(Special).—Ex-County Attorney C. H. Denny received a message from Sharon Springs, Kan., this week, stating that H. L. Kennedy, formerly a popular business man of this city, had died at his home at that point, and that the funeral would take place in Omaha Thursday of this week. Deceased lived in Fairbury for a number of years and was engaged in business, coming here from McCook. He was compelled to retire and moved to Kansas. He was prominent in the Masonic lodge, as well as in the Odd Fellows.

but judging from reports, the lives and property of Japanese residents there cannot be said to be secure.

"Already some of the powers have dispatched warships to Mexican waters and one nation is negotiating with another for the purpose of entrusting its natives to its care. The Japanese in Mexico number about 3,000, mostly scattered in the interior. The Japanese legation is doing everything possible to prepare for an emergency and the government considers it expedient to prepare for the possibility of its citizens being placed in a position of danger and it has decided to dispatch the war vessel."

The impression prevails that the Japanese government first sounded the United States in connection with sending of a warship to Mexico in order to avoid the possibility of misinterpretation of its action.

The Izumo is being prepared for its voyage at the naval base of Yokosuka.

Warning to Both Factions.

Late today Secretary Bryan warned both the Huerta government and the constitutionalists not to molest extensive English and American oil properties at Tuxpan, which it was reported one or both factions were threatening to burn. Late today Secretary Bryan went into conference with several diplomatic representatives of South American nations. No announcement of the purpose of the conference was made, but it was said to be in line with the plan of keeping foreign nations advised of the policy of the United States toward Mexico. Like conferences with Central American and European diplomats have been held.

Attitude of Germany Defined.

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—The German government still awaits the promised announcement of the policy the United States purports to adopt in regard to Mexico, no exact instructions of which have been received here, although President Wilson's general motives have been brought to the German government's attention. Germany clearly understands, it is declared, that President Huerta intends to dispossess Provisional President Carranza at any cost, in order to discourage unions and for all such methods of attaining power as he utilized.

Germany, it is pointed out, is interested solely in the restoration of order in Mexico and hopes that the American solution of the problem will be announced and put into action as soon as possible. It is felt here, however, that the overthrow and retirement of General Huerta efficient administration would only make conditions worse in Mexico and would deprive the lives and property of Germans there of what little security they now enjoy.

No fears need be entertained, it is asserted, semi-officially that General Huerta will receive financial assistance from Germany. It is understood here that the American warning as to the validity of concessions granted by the present Mexican congress applies also to the existing administration in Mexico City by bankers and others abroad. The possibility, however, of a loan of other financial assistance being given by General Huerta, particularly under conditions in Mexico, is regarded here as entirely out of the question.

Cowdrey Denies Financing Huerta.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Stung by criticism of his alleged financial support of Provisional President Huerta, Lord Cowdrey issued a statement above his own signature setting forth the extent of his financial connection with the Mexican government. He says: "Statements peculiarly inaccurate and of a mischievous character having lately appeared in certain sections of the press in reference to my financial connection with the present provisional government of Mexico, I think the public is entitled to learn from me what are the facts. "In common with most of the banks and leading houses in Mexico, my firm carries no provision for expense money for the members of the commission. "I don't see why he should worry about that," says Foster. "The bill and datatory on him, stating specifically that

GOVERNOR'S DELAY NETTLES

Mr. Brain, as hundreds of the working girls make their complaints to these bodies. "Only the other day," says Mr. Brain, "while the suffrage association was holding its state convention at Lincoln a committee called on me to ask what I could do about the wages of girls employed in the state. I told them the best way I knew was for them to get the governor to appoint the commission that our bill provides for."

Also Appeal to Foster. Dr. Harry A. Foster is another state representative to whom the working girls' and women's clubs are constantly turning to air their grievances concerning the reduction of wages. Foster has written the governor asking that the commission be appointed according to the minimum wage commission law.

The governor, according to Foster, has made the plea repeatedly that the bill carries no provision for expense money for the members of the commission.

"I don't see why he should worry about that," says Foster. "The bill and datatory on him, stating specifically that

MAY HAVE TO REFUND TWO MILLIONS IN TAXES

MONTREAL, Nov. 12.—Quebec may be called on to refund $2,000,000 collected as taxes on the estates of foreigners who died in the province. This, it was said today, would be the logical outcome of a decision handed down yesterday by the privy council regarding the estate of the late Henry Cotton of Boston. The highest British court held that Quebec could not levy a tax of $2,000 on securities valued at $300,000 and held in Boston, although Mr. Cotton died in Quebec.

Expenses Brain pointed out that while the bill does not specifically provide for traveling expenses, it provides that when the commission shall conduct a hearing, the witnesses shall be paid out of funds in the general state treasury. "So you see," says Brain, "the operating expenses of the actual work to be done by the commission are provided for, contrary to the opinion of many who have talked about this. I have written to the labor commissioner about the appointment of this commission. The governor saw my letter, but he has not made the appointment. Also, Dr. Foster wrote the governor asking that the commission be appointed, but he makes the plea that no funds are provided."

EXCITING! "Going Out of Business" Prices have played havoc with the Clothing trade of Omaha this season

Brooks Quits! The word "Brooks" is a thorn in the side of the ordinary clothier THIS season, for "Brooks" is retiring from the clothing field, and is offering EVERY suit of clothes or overcoat in his stock at COST or LESS! You may well imagine how a condition of this sort UPSETS the regular clothing trade; REGULAR prices cannot very well be gotten while "Brooks" up street is shaking the very meat, the last semblance of gain, out of his prices. And "Brooks" is going to continue closing out clothing at cost EVERY HOUR during his short remaining time in business. "Brooks" lease has already expired and The City National Bank will take over the present Brooks store room as a savings department, but, a short time of grace has been given, and Brooks is making a final effort; a gigantic endeavor, as it were, to SELL clothes NOW while the WEARING season is ON. What are YOU going to do, brother?
