FITCH seems to be the leading novelty in fur this season, and lends itself unusually well for trimming. The furriers tell me they are having difficulty keeping enough pelts on hand, for the tailors and dressmakers are using such quantities of fur this year.

The brown and yellow shades of the Fitch fur blend beautifully with the new shades of brown. The lighter Fitch, which is a soft yellow tinged with brown, comes from Russia and is not as expensive as the darker Fitch which comes from Germany. The Russian is used more for trimming; and the German Fitch for muffs and collars. This new fur resembles stone marten.

Miss Laura Yund of Amsterdam, N. Y., who is visiting Misses Beatrice and Irene Coad, has a long box and large muff of German Fitch. Miss Irene Coad has a collar of the Russian Fitch on a blue velvet suit.

Miss Mae Louise Hamilton wears a chic suit of brown velvet, with hat to match, the suit and hat trimmed with the Fitch fur.

Mrs. Frank Keogh has Fitch fur collar and cuffs on a brown duvetyn (lor) suit.

The marten continues in popularity, but is used mostly on evening gowns. At nearly all of the recent weddings the bridesmaids' evening gowns of lace and chiffon have been trimmed with bands of marten.

RAILROADS CHANGING TIME
New Trains Are Added to the Over-land Route.

OLD TRAIN IS SPEEDED UP
Northwestern and Milwaukee Will Carry the Equipment of the Union Pacific from Here to the East.

The Union Pacific, Milwaukee and Northwestern are out with radical changes in train service that will become effective Sunday.

Sunday the Union Pacific puts on an additional train, Old No. 10, which for forty years or so has been running as the China-Japan mail and arriving around 4:45 in the afternoon, doing a local business all the way from San Francisco to Omaha, is to be speeded up and converted into a fast train, with new and standard equipment. Hereafter this train will arrive at 3:45 in the morning and will be known as the San Francisco Limited.

At Omaha the new No. 10 will deliver its equipment to the Milwaukee and Northwestern, each of which will run a new train east, leaving the Union station at 2:35 in the morning and each reaching Chicago at about 4:30 in the afternoon of the same day. This will give passengers a daylight run through Iowa, reaching Chicago before dark.

New Trains.
On the Union Pacific, a train to be known as No. 6 will take the place of the old No. 19, carrying practically the same class of equipment and reaching Omaha at about 4:45 in the afternoon.

Sunday the Northwestern will change the time of arrival of its No. 11. Herebefore this train has been coming in from Chicago at 8:30 in the morning, and its equipment going out over the Union Pacific at 8:15. Under the new schedule the train will arrive at 9:30 and leave for the west at 10:15. This train will continue to handle the same class of equipment as now.

The Rock Island is changing the schedule of its Oklahoma and Texas express, the change to become effective Sunday. Herebefore this train has been leaving Omaha for the west at 4:45 each afternoon. Under the change the leaving time will be at 4 o'clock.

HEAVY SENTENCE IF HE BOTHERS MOTHER-IN-LAW
Chris Knutson, 1718 North Twenty-fifth street, was treated to a lecture and the promise of a thirty-day jail sentence for striking his mother-in-law, Mrs. A. Higgins, when he was brought before Judge Foster in police court.

According to the testimony offered in the case Knutson returned home from work Wednesday evening to find his wife sick in bed. The mother-in-law urged him to summon a doctor and he refused. Further entreaties on her part led to his striking her and she had him arrested.

Caught a Bad Cold.
"Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was something dreadful," writes Mrs. Sarah E. Duncan of Tipton, Ia. "We thought sure he was going into consumption. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely."—For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

Novelty Company
Has Big Crowds at Bankrupt Stock Sale

Surpassing even Manager Fred's fondest expectations, immense crowds of men, women and children have swarmed into the Novelty company's store on North Sixteenth street to take advantage of some of the opportunities to secure articles that were included in the bankrupt stock which was recently purchased by the Novelty company and is now being sold at greatly reduced prices. Even before the doors were opened at 8 o'clock yesterday, bargain hunters who were anxious to purchase the choice articles of the stock, crowded in the entrance way and could hardly wait until the postoffice clock struck eight times.

The store was a chaos of confusion all day long, because of the extent of the stock which had to be opened and the lack of space to accommodate the people who wished to get into the store. More confusion resulted from the lack of clerks at first, because clerks were hard to find, but that fault has been remedied so that enough clerks are now on hand to serve everyone.

The first floor contains the single piece articles and notions and furnishings, while the second floor is devoted to the coats and suits. Both floors were taxed to capacity all day.

Manager Fred said yesterday that he never saw anything like it in all his experience in Omaha. "I have been here for several years and I have been connected with other firms where big sales have been held," said Mr. Fred, "but this surpasses anything in my experience. I confidently expected to have a good time selling all these goods, but it looks as if I would sell out before I even get warmed up."
