

CHILD FEARS FATE OF DOG

Little Frances Ellick Afraid She Too Is to Be Killed.

RECEIVES A FEW SCRATCHES

Physicians in Doubt Whether Gashes on Hand of Girl Caused by Teeth or Claws of Brute—Two Dogs Put to Death.

After being injured by a mad dog Saturday morning, Little Frances Ellick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Ellick, 218 Davenport street, hid away in the closets of the house for two hours because she was afraid veterinary surgeons would kill her. She is only 7 years old, and her childish imagination went wild when Mrs. Hall and Morris, veterinarians, who were called into the neighborhood, killed the dog and another dog that had been associating with it.

Terms to Run. Little Frances Ellick was out in the yard playing when she saw the terrier running at her. She turned to run, when the beast leaped upon her back. She threw back her hands to push him off. In doing so she received a few gashes on the back of her head. It is impossible to determine whether they are tooth marks or the marks of the animal's claws.

Mrs. Mel Uhl, Jr., as soon as she heard of the affair, went fearlessly into the street, seized the beast by the collar and dragged him to the cellar door. While she was opening the door he broke away. He plunged madly about from house to house, throwing his weight against every door in an effort to enter. The woman followed him, grabbed him again, and again dragged him to the cellar door. This time she managed to throw him down cellar and shut the door on him. It was here that the veterinarians shot him a little later when they arrived. Excitement was high in the neighborhood. Parents began to question their children as to when they had played with the dog last.

Two Dogs Killed. The veterinarians inquired as to what dogs had been associated with the mad beast, and killed the terrier belonging to George Durkee, 318 Davenport street, because this dog was known to have been with the Uhl terrier regularly. The veterinarians said there would be danger of rabies in any animal that had been bitten by the Uhl dog within thirty days. It was when Little Frances Ellick heard the doctors talking of killing all dogs that had been associated with the mad dog that she ran away and hid. When her mother found her hidden in the house a few hours later she said she feared the veterinarians would kill her because she had been injured by the mad dog.

Judge Bates Enters Fight. MADISON, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Judge Bates authorizes the announcement of his candidacy for the position of judge at Madison, subject to whatever primary rules the local committee, when appointed, may adopt. Judge Bates has been county judge twelve years and at the present time is chairman of the democratic county central committee. A. K. Donovan, editor of the Star-Mail, has already filed with J. C. Reeves, the local commissioner, as far as can be learned the candidates, individually, are favorable to a primary open to all the patrons of the office qualified to vote at any general election.

Tecumseh Victim of Matrimonial Scheme Summoned

TECUMSEH, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—George W. Brott, a printer of this city and the victim of a matrimonial defrauding scheme, was last evening served with a subpoena by Deputy United States Marshal G. W. McCallum of Lincoln to appear in the eastern division of the United States district court at St. Louis on Tuesday next. Early last spring Brott, a widower, answered an advertisement of "Miss Stella Lee" in a matrimonial paper, the woman claiming she wanted a correspondent, with a view at matrimony. Letters and photographs were exchanged, the Lee woman giving as her address 30 Chambers street, St. Louis. Finally, upon persuasion from his supposed fair correspondent, Brott mailed the woman $10 to come to this city for the purpose of marrying him, as she had agreed. Brott waited for the woman for a few days and she not appearing, he addressed the number she had given in St. Louis and his letter was returned. He then turned his correspondence over to the federal officers.

In March Brott was summoned to appear before the grand jury in the court mentioned to give evidence against the woman, which he did. At that time it developed that the "Miss Stella Lee" was in reality Mrs. Stella Lee Green, the wife of a man known in St. Louis, Green and his wife had been doing a wholesale matrimonial business, it developing that they had secured as many as 100 pictures of fair looking young women at the galleries in St. Louis and these, with tender letters, had been mailed all over the country to the men who bit on their advertisements in the matrimonial papers. Green, it seems, had a position in St. Louis which paid him $20 a week, but he gave this up to help his wife in her correspondence work. When Brott appeared in the court there were more than thirty other men from different sections of the country on hand to give evidence against "Stella," to say nothing of the many who were bit and did not make complaint. At that time the Greens had suddenly made a change of base and the officers could not locate them. Each of the thirty odd men had letters from "Stella" which were much like the ones Brott had received, and each had contributed cash to "Stella" to come to this and that point for the purpose of marrying the victim. A mail carrier of the court there testified that he had taken as many as fifty letters to the Green woman at a single time, and that for a few days she had received an immense amount of mail. Several indictments resulted. The officer who came here last evening to serve the summons was not advised whether or not the Greens had been apprehended, but it would seem that they have been from the fact that the services of Brott are again demanded in the St. Louis court. He will go to St. Louis Monday.

Former Tecumseh Woman Dies in New York City. TECUMSEH, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—Word came to Tecumseh Saturday that Mrs. R. A. Seaver had died at her home in New York City. Mrs. Seaver was formerly Miss Charlotte Talcott of Tecumseh. She was aged 35 years and is survived by her father, W. H. Talcott of Tecumseh, husband, and one child, a sister, Mrs. Grace Dusing of Kansas City, and a brother, Charles A. Talcott of Oklahoma City. The body will be brought to Tecumseh for burial, reaching here Wednesday. Mrs. Seaver was a here Wednesday. She was a very fine talented musician possessing a very fine voice, and she sang in a New York City church. At one time she was a soloist in a Lincoln church.

ASHLAND MAN PINNED UNDERNEATH MOTOR CAR

ASHLAND, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—While returning from near Memphis about 11 o'clock last night Oscar Reese, 24 years old, had a narrow escape from death when near the James Jardine farm, northwest of town. A tire exploded on the automobile Reese was driving at high speed, the machine turned over into a deep ditch, pinning Reese underneath. Reese's cries for help were heard about two hours later by the night watchman at Swift's ice house, half a mile distant, who summoned a gang of men and released the imprisoned man, who suffered a dislocated collar bone. The auto was not injured.

News Notes of Chadron.

CHADRON, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—After a four days trial, the one criminal case on the docket, ended with a verdict by a jury of not guilty. It was against Acie I. Summers for criminal assault. The regular docket will be called next week. The two large grocery stores of Will S. and Charles N. Gilliam have been purchased by the Grantham Bros., Wesley and Frank. Wesley Grantham bought of Will S. Gilliam the two-story brick building in which the grocery store of the latter has been doing business for fifteen years, consideration $2,000. Will Gilliam is a member of the school board and a leader in the Commercial club. They retire from business to lead an outdoor life, carrying on a ranch business, but living in Chadron. Wesley Grantham comes from Stansberry, Mo., while Frank has lived in Dawes county for several years. The two stores will now be considered.

Farmers Institute will be held in Chadron next week. Dr. Carlson of Norfolk will talk on animal industry, and at the public lecture in the evening will tell of his recent trip through the Spanish-American countries. Messrs. Cole and Anderson are going out of Chadron each evening to lecture in the various country school houses in order to reach any who have not time to leave their work to come to Chadron during the week. Hastings Defeats Edgar. EDGAR, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—The first football team of the Hastings High school and the Edgar High school team met on the home grounds Friday afternoon and fought a pretty good battle although the Edgar boys were outclassed as was expected by many who know both teams, this being the first year for most of the Edgar High school boys while the Hastings High school boys are all vets. The score was 23 to 0.

CAPTURED FEDERAL OFFICERS MUST DIE

thief has been reported. Guards were placed at downtown stores with orders to shoot the first man who attempted to loot. The rebels took 12 federal prisoners, 35,000 rounds of ammunition, two field pieces and two machine guns—all in addition to an important border point of entry and a military strategic point. General Castro Missing. General Francisco Castro, commander of the Juarez garrison, is among the missing. It is the general opinion that he has escaped. No trace of him or his body has been found. His scabbard, sword and spaullets were found in his residence on Juarez avenue and General Villa has them for souvenirs. El Paso Police this afternoon thought they had captured General Castro in El Paso, but the prisoner proved to be a colonel from the Juarez garrison. He was sent to Fort Bliss a prisoner. Bullets fell in El Paso during the attack and Lester Burnett, a messenger boy, was shot through the hand while walking the streets in the early hours. Almost all the downtown business structures were hit by bullets. All El Paso was aroused by the firing and the streets were soon filled with people. No others were struck. United States troops took station near the international boundary and held the Americans away from the dangerous zone as much as possible while the battle lasted.

Iowa butter makers get fancy prices for their product. The report of Commissioner Barney on the year closed November 1 shows that the 512 Iowa creameries reported sold 96,965,183 pounds of butter in the year for $28,285,240, or 29.2 cents a pound. This is declared to be a cent and a half better per pound than the average price in New York. Of the creamery product $2,228,628 pounds were sold outside the state. The butter was made from the milk of 788,491 cows. Big butter producing counties are: Woodbury, 10,736,332 pounds; Polk, 4,600,163; Fayette, 3,996,568; Delaware, 3,260,270; Dubuque, 3,253,240; Bremer, 3,115,716. The department collected in fees in the year $26,004.52, to which should be added about $5,000, which went to the school fund in fines. Chapters are devoted to alfalfa, more milk, the lecture work and other topics. Lectures were given to 226 audiences and 40,000 persons. Arbitration Hearings Are Open. According to Labor Commissioner Erick, who had a great deal to do with the wording of the new law for a board of arbitration and conciliation, the proceedings commenced at Okaloosa under this law should be open instead of in secret as it was reported had been decided on by the board selected to attempt a settlement of the street car strike. Information from Ottumwa is that the board started out as in the case of a grand jury to secure evidence under pledge of secrecy, but later decided on having them open. In time the facts will be made known, especially if no settlement is effected, but it was supposed that the hearings would be open. Christian Citizenship Demands. The Christian citizenship conference closed here Saturday with the adoption of resolutions and election of officers. The officers selected are: President, W. R. Sawhill, Washington, Ia.; secretary, S. E. Greer, Washington; treasurer, R. L. Couter, Washington; financial secretary, J. B. Dadds. An executive committee was named. Resolutions include the following: That the bible be read in the public schools of Iowa. For an amendment to the federal constitution prohibiting polygamy. For uniform marriage and divorce laws in conformity with scriptural precepts. A better observance of the Sabbath. Closing the gates of the San Francisco exposition on Sundays. Prohibition in state and the nation of all traffic in intoxicating liquors. Amendment to the constitution of the United States recognizing Jesus Christ as the king of nations, and that the bible is the ultimate standard of all national action on moral questions. Report of Unusual Accident. An unusual accident was reported to the state labor office this week. A workman in a factory at Clinton was handling an acid used in cutting glass or frosting it, and not being familiar with the acid he permitted a quantity to reach his bare hands. Before he could be relieved by a surgeon his hands were so badly burned by the acid that it is feared he will lose both of them. The factory owners promise they will have an antidote ready hereafter in case of other similar accidents. Cost of State Colleges. Figures just compiled by state officials show that the state has paid the enormous sum of $11,000,741 to the three educational institutions in the last thirteen years, or nearly $800,000 a year on an average. The annual payments now run considerably over $300,000 a year. The colleges received aid as follows in the period covered: State university, $5,012,015; state college, $4,023,092; State teachers' college, $2,365,634. A large part of this is received from millage taxes appropriated and anticipated before they are collected.

HUERTA UNABLE TO BRING NEW CONGRESS COMPLETELY TO LIFE

hally, for a few minutes, he presided, but there was little of the parliamentary form observed in what followed. One group called for one man and another group for another man to act as chairman.

Washington, Provisional President Huerta had none. The taking today of Juarez, port on the Texas-Chihuahua border, by General Villa's forces, the capture yesterday of Culcan, capital of Sinaloa, and the attack today on Victoria, capital of Tamaulipas, on the Gulf of Mexico, it was asserted, would affect materially the international status of the revolutionary movement. It was asserted the revolution had doubled internationally in the last week.

Washington Confident. WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—While official information from Mexico City today was meager, the Washington government maintained tonight its confidence that Provisional President Huerta soon would be eliminated from the situation.

The steady pressure through diplomatic channels, the financial blockade and the practical certainty that the embargo on arms will be lifted unless General Huerta yields are expected to force retirement of the provisional president. How soon this would occur no official would predict.

Neither at the White House nor at the State department was there any disposition to regard seriously the statement issued from the national palace at Mexico City declaring that "in view of Venustiano Carranza's repudiation of any form of mediation by or alliance with the United States, Provisional President Huerta can do no less than join him in his expression of patriotic sentiment and maintain unshaken his dignified attitude toward Washington."

While on the surface this statement gave the impression that the United States had met with a rebuff in the diplomatic camp of both Mexican factions, administration officials conversant with details of the inner situation construed it merely as an attempt to meet temporarily the arguments of expediency being urged upon President Huerta by close friends. The declaration from General Carranza that he would not accept mediation by the United States and reiterated by President Huerta caused no concern here, for the Washington government maintains it never has offered to mediate.

Republican City Notes. REPUBLICAN CITY, Neb., Nov. 16.—(Special.)—G. G. Dyre of St. Francis, Kan., and Miss Myrtle Lamphere of this city were united in marriage at the home of J. W. Bash Thursday evening. Mr. Dyre is express messenger on the St. Francis branch. Miss Lamphere has been assistant postmistress for the last eight years at this place. John Uphinger, of this place, and Miss Della Erwin of Alma, Neb., were united in marriage by County Judge Robertson at Bloomington, Neb., on Wednesday.

A meeting was held in the opera house on last Thursday evening by the farmers of this section. A temporary organization was effected looking to the establishing of a farmers' elevator at this point.

Cheered by Successes. Military successes of the revolutionists reported today added greatly to the already cheerful attitude of officials here attending the negotiations conducted with Washington through William Bayard Hale, as representative of President Wilson. It was asserted that while the hitherto unrecognized revolutionists had direct and friendly relations with

TEST FOR SUFFRAGE LAW

Liquor Interests Will Bring Illinois Act Into Court.

TOO MANY "DRY" VICTORIES

Claim Made Girls of Eighteen Voted in Recent Elections in Places Carried by the Prohibitionists.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—An immediate test of the validity of the woman's suffrage law in Illinois is to be made by the liquor interests, it became known here today. The recent local option elections at Metropolitan, Macrae county; Baldwin and Perry in Randolph county, and Pinckneyville, Perry county, which were won by the prohibitionists by the votes of women will be contested. It is claimed girls 18 years old voted, making the elections illegal and that the male vote favored the saloons.

The votes of women today defeated a proposal to issue $250,000 worth of bonds at Evanston for an addition to the high school. The suffragists were led by Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, James A. Patten, former broker, and several bankers actively campaigned for the bond issue.
