Retailers Will Give Big Cabaret Dinner Early in December

December 11 has been get aside by the Associated Retailers of Omaha as the evening for their big banquet to be given at the Commercial club. It will be an invitation carabet dinner. The organization expects to get every retailer in the city to attend the banquet, whether he is a member of the association or not. At that time the purpose and work of the association will be out-92% 28% 86% 23% 23% lined to the retailers with a view to getting more of the retailers of Omaha interested in the association.

The date was decided upon at ing of the retailers' association at the Commercial club at noon Thursday. It was reported that 33,000 ratings have already been made by the credit bureau of the association, which has been working for some six months. The association expects eventually to have 45.00 different names on the list.

Local Doctor Grafts 10% New Nose on Patient at Clarkson Hospital

Probably the most extraordinary surgical operation performed in Omaha in many a day took place the early part of this week at the Ciarkson hospital when Dr. W. D. Califass staried the graft of a new nose upon a patient that had been referred to him.

So far the work has proven a success and there is every indication that it will conclude as such.

There is no record of an operation like this one ever being before performed in Omaha. A similar case was handled at 28, 400 158% IANNA 188% an eastern hospital several months ago when the local surgeon was a w
