Scottish Rite Masons Holding Annual Reunion in Omaha

Camera Man Captures a Group of the Brethren Who Have Gathered Here from All Over Nebraska for the Yearly Event

November the 22d Should Be Long Remembered Such a Day of Cut Prices at Kilpatrick's As Will Furnish Such a Topic of Comment and Conversation as Has Rarely if Ever Occurred Before in Omaha We Will Start With the Feet and Finish With the Head With Start With the Feet and Finish With the Head

HERE'S A MORE CONSISTENT STORY:

We have nine beautiful Suits left of a number of very stylish garments on which we did not expect much profit. These we want to close out now without thought of what they cost. If we come out We will place on sale the latest importations of China—France, Germany and England have contributed of their wares for this exposition. Beautiful porcelain, exquisite glassware and choice novelties in table decorations, all priced the Kilpatrick way, so reasonable that you will be glad to avail yourself of the opportunity to select now, and we will gladly lay away anything which you may buy till Christmas. Only about 4 weeks more. My, how old Tempus does fly!

"KANDD"

That comes very near expressing candy; and whether in the desert of Arabia at Nashipur or Babylon, most everybody has a sweet tooth. The name candy, however, is wofully libeled in some places. Most any concoction that will hold together and taste sweet is dubbed candy. "Cobb's Candy" is what we want to talk about. The kind that compares with "Maillard's," "Shaw's," "Mary Elizabeth's," etc. Aristocratic Candy, if you please, at wonderfully little prices. Mr. Cobb says, let's give the candy lovers some Thanksgiving treats. So here goes: Chocolate Molasses Dainties-A delicious center of molasses, oddly enough quite crispy, combined with peanut butter and then dipped in sweet, smooth chocolate. There's a toothsome delicacy for weans and wife. 30c for pound box Saturday. Maple Glace Caramels-A rich soft maple caramel, dipped in Canada maple sugar; no fake about maple sugar from our northern neighbor of the maple leaf. 25c per pound, usually 40c. Once before we told this story and caused almost a candy stampede. The men love this candy. Just try it on them. Cobb's Advance Notice on Thanksgiving Specialties-Glace fruits and nuts, salted nuts, maroons, delicious bonbons, candied figs, fruit and nut chocolates. If you are invited to a Thanksgiving dinner take a box to the hostess-my word for it, you'll be asked again.

$4.00 Shoes, $5.00 Shoes, $6.00 Shoes for $2.95.

A LOT of our best four dollar shoes in Tan Calf, Patent and Dull Leathers-correct styles and perfect-Saturday, $2.95.

NEXT. A big assortment of five and six dollar shoes in dull calf, tan and patent, also gray suede—some broken lots that is not every size in every class but all sizes in all the classes—the newest styles and best of quality—Saturday $2.95.

About 100 pairs of JULIETTES to sell. This is not an item for the ROMEOS, but refers to fur trimmed Comfy slippers in black and red. Just why Juliettes we know not, unless the thought occured to the maker that they would be Comfy and warm for the balcony scene. Her name, though, was spelled Juliet we believe. However $1.50 was the price—95c Saturday.

Once Again-a lot of Turkish Slippers in red, pink, blue, tan and black-59c Saturday.

The hardest job we have is to convince the public at such a time as this that it pays to be early. Now please try and come in the morning. Sale starts at 8 A. M.

THIS SALE AT 10 A. M.

Thousands of women watch anxiously at this season of the year for KILPATRICK'S RIBBON SALE. Never disappointed they know that few stores in America ever present such choice beautiful ribbons at such very low prices. There's a reason, too. The satisfied, delighted customer is always the very best advertisement.

FOUR GREAT DIVISIONS - Beautiful examples of artistic weaving and dyeing.

19c for Ribbons worth up to 38 cents a yard. 33c for Ribbons worth up to 55 cents a yard. 45c for Ribbons worth up to 80 cents a yard. 79c for Ribbons worth up to $1.75 a yard.

Time your visits to the various sections and you'll have a fair chance everywhere. The Ribbon sale STARTS AT 10 A. M.

Now, we could write an entertaining story about the failure of a Fifth avenue costumer, or a Regent street or Rotten Row modiste, and possibly fool some people. Strange, is it not, how conveniently people fail and furnish material for advertisements all over this broad land of ours! Stranger, still, perhaps, that some of us who are 1,500 to 4,500 miles from the seat of the serious anywhere near cost we'll be happy-they have served their purpose.

Three of them were marked $85.00, and similar sold at that-$65.00 Saturday.

Four of them were marked $67.50, and similar sold at that-$42.50 Saturday.

Two of them were marked $175.00, and similar sold at that-$110.00 Saturday.

A cleanup of Suits which sold up to $40.00, at $15.00 Saturday these in serges, poplins, broadcloths, duvetine and other late weaves.

Dresses — of silks, challies, serges, bedfords, poplins, etc., whether they sold at $15, $18.50, $20, $25, Saturday, $10. Waists — of crepe voiles-long sleeves, with lay-down collars, $3.50 value of most, Saturday, $1.98 each.

Don't forget when you are buying a Hat-this Suit Sale, also the Dresses and Waists on same floor

ANNOUNCEMENT OF RECENT ARRIVALS:

Sport Coats in the wanted reds, the popular whites and the staple navys and oxfords-

$10, $15 and $20 Specials also in the Junior Section all the livelong day: 2-piece suits, winter weights, fashionable now; you'll appreciate the warmth later; Saturday $18.75, instead of $25, $27.50 and $30.

Designed for misses of 13 to 17 years; adapted to slight women and many times more satisfactory in fit than garments made specially for the older or more adult.

Dresses, odd lots and broken assortments will accumulate, do what we will. Be as careful as we will, use such judgment as we can, sometimes our ideas and the purchaser's don't jibe. Just now we find on hand for one reason or another dresses bought to sell up to $15. We'll bid them farewell Saturday at, each, $5.

If We Could Get Your Ears, As Well as Your Eyes

we could a tale unfold on DRESS GOODS which would draw better than a Porous Plaster.

Dress Goods must be sold. The new law goes into effect January 1st, 1914. The duty on Dress Goods drops from 100% down to 35%. We will not be caught napping—for now we will cut the prices clear to the quick in order to effect a quick sale. About 1,000 yards to be sold Saturday. Quite a conglomeration—plaids, checks and plaids; light and dark. Sold previously at 75c, 85c and $1.00-39c Saturday all day—if the goods hold out. You wonder at our chally values. You'll be more astonished at this sale. This sale also at 8 A. M.

Coaxers from the china section for Saturday: Fine Nippon ware—Trays, cups, saucers, pitchers; 50c instead of 85c to $1.00.

Also a lot of Japanese etched brass jardinieres and other fancy ware. Samples from a Jap import stock; 50c Saturday; should be double or more.

> Cut Glass Nappies at 59c. You'll buy if you see these whether you really need them or not. Mahogany Trays, usually $1.25, go at 79c.

We won't try to describe the beautiful linens now on sale for Thanksgiving use. You'll be downtown Saturday, no doubt. Look in the center window, ocular demonstration, better than all we might write on the subject. Might simply emphasize the fact that Now is a good time to buy linens, if at Kilpatrick's.

HERE'S A GIVEAWAY-

Do you realize that in about 4 weeks Christmas will be upon us? We are so crowded with Holiday Novelties and we are so certain of a rushing business that we would fain divide it up and distribute it so that all the jam won't occur in the closing days of Yuletide. Know, therefore, that on Saturday tables and counters will be arranged with Books, Calendars, Christmas Cards and other novelties, all at the stationery section. And to stimulate you and as a reward for helping us by doing your Christmas shopping early, we propose to GIVE AWAY on Saturday with every purchase made at our book and stationery section, to the amount of $1.00 a beautiful Dutch calendar, sold in some places as high as 25 cents. No other store in Omaha has them, and we think they are a little the cutest of any calendar ever made in this country. Saturday we display the Volland Publication. Saturday we display the novelties from the Pohlson

Desserts-Plum pudding, fruit cake filled with French fruit and nuts, fancy cakes of many kinds.

The Deipnosophists in Plato's time never revelled in such delicious delicacies. Plum pudding, what memories thy very name suggests. Big juicy Valencia raisins, Grecian currants, candied fruits, spices and then the "wee drappy" and other things what go to make the real plum pudding the "Cobb kind."

Ices, creams, Nesselrode pudding,, eggnog, Roman punch at $2.00 the gallon.

Individual turkeys, roses, fruits and flowers, $2.00 the dozen. Plain vanilla in bricks, a quart at 50c.

The American Bell 'phone and Telegraph company will take your order to us by telephone. If you have a house connection, Mr. and Mrs. Cobb will gladly attend to you personally.

THOMAS KILPATRICK & CO.

And Now a Word With You—You will find a millinery advertisement (of a special hat sale to be held by us Saturday) elsewhere in this paper. We are assured by the makers that many hats are worth $20 or more. However that may be, scores of women have said they never saw such Hat Values. We have reason to believe that we'll have a terrific crowd at this sale. It starts at 8:30.

THOMAS KILPATRICK & COMPANY

GLOVES ! GLOVES ! GLOVES ! Expect to close out Saturday all that may be left of the Leatherette or Cashmerette Gloves, made abroad to sell at 75c or 85c pair; 49c to close them out. A hurried estimate of stock shows on hand about 35 dozen pairs of black, tan and white kids, the Smaschen kind. Poorer, much poorer, are offered in many stores at $1.00. For a quick clean up on Saturday, and the last word on these, 59c païr.
