000 on Nebraska property holdings which became his when Francis Smith, a brother, died in 1968, has been taken. A petition has been filed with the clerk of the district court asking that the county of Douglas and John H. Grossman and George E. Bertrand, acting as special counsel for the county, be restrained by a temporary injunction from instituting any action to establish a lieu on toe property held by Smith in this county or to collect any inheritance tax on it. The claim for exemption from the in-heritance tax is made on the ground that the two brothers, George and Francis Smith, had at the outset of their business careers entered into an agreement which provided for the element of survivorship. It was agreed that their joint earnings should be shared in common, and when one of them died, all of the property he d. ings of the two should go to the survivor Besides much city property in Omahi and many tracts of land in the vicinity stock in the Union Stock Yards company of Omaha and 100 shares in the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Rallway company.

POSTOFFICE WOULD HELP AVOID CHRISTMAS RUSH
