

MANY PLACES EVADE LAW

Anti-Saloon League Gives Long List to Commissioner Ryder.

HAS MADE INVESTIGATIONS

Letter Says the Drug Stores Do Not Register Liquor Sales as Required by Law—Names Chop Suet Places.

Wholesale violations of the 3 o'clock law is alleged in a letter from the local branch of the Anti-Saloon League to Police Commissioner J. J. Ryder.

Your attention is respectfully called to the wholesale violation of the liquor laws in the city of Omaha. You have been notified in the daily press as saying you were unable to discover any such violations.

"Saloons—Diamond saloon, 1313 Douglas street; Alleyette saloon, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets; Tuttle's saloon in the alley between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets; Pollock's saloon, 135 North Fifteenth street; Thomas Hart's, Sixteenth and Cass streets; Allison Bros., 21 South Thirteenth; Hans Nielsen's saloon, 2122 Cuming street; Vienna hotel bar, James Carrolls, 622 South Thirteenth street, also saloons at 162 North Twenty-fourth street, 180 North Twenty-fourth street, 1311 North Twenty-fourth street, 1311 North Twenty-fourth street, 214 South Thirteenth street, as well as a large number of others.

"Restaurants—Worth's cafe; restaurant over Stoddard & Meredith's saloon on alley between Douglas and Farnam streets; chop suey restaurant over Turf Exchange saloon at 1305 Douglas street; chop suey restaurant over Diamond saloon at 1313 Douglas street; chop suey restaurant upstairs at 119 Douglas street; and the Unique restaurant at southeast corner of Fourteenth and Douglas streets.

"Hotels: Paxton, Rome, Carlston, Her Grand and Rome.

"Drug stores: E. R. Roberts, at 2315 Vinton street; Pope drug store, 1302 Farnam; Merritt's drug store, 1302 Douglas.

"At each and every one of these places the law is constantly and openly violated and large quantities of liquor are being sold. These drug stores do not register sales as required by law. In these chop suey restaurants large numbers of persons, many of them being young girls, drink at all hours of the day and night. They are probably doing more harm than any other places in the city of Omaha.

"These violations of law are easily found. They are open and notorious. You have sworn to enforce the law; you should do so or graciously resign."

Fire Does Thousand Dollars Damage to the Cole-McKay Co.

The undertaking establishment of the Cole-McKay company, 1308 Douglas street, was temporarily incapacitated for business by a fire at 7:20 yesterday morning.

The damage to the building and contents, mostly from smoke and water, was estimated at $1,000 by R. V. Cole and W. M. McKay, the proprietors. Insurance will cover the loss.

A defective smoke pipe in the boiler room, where the fire started, is blamed by Fred Dethloff, the furnace tender and assistant embalmer, for the blaze. Fire Chief Charles A. Salter declares, however, that he thinks the fire started from hot ashes igniting the binding near by.

Over a score of fine coffins and other undertaking supplies were damaged by smoke and water, and the entire interior will probably have to be redecorated as the result of the smoke, which filled the whole building within twenty minutes after Dethloff stirred up the fire in the boiler. He did so at 7 o'clock and then went to breakfast. At 1:30 o'clock, J. A. Vogel and H. F. Dean, embalmers, who sleep in the building, awoke from the smoke and called the fire department. Except for the prompt discovery of the fire, much greater damage would have resulted.

AUTO VICTIM SHOWS SIGN OF IMPROVEMENT

Miss Mollie Saltman, who was injured Friday evening in the auto accident at Fifteenth and Farnam streets, has partially regained consciousness and is reported by attendants at St. Joseph hospital to be showing marked improvement. The young woman is still declared to be in a serious condition despite the turn for the better.

Second Ordinance to Hustle Work on Nicholas Viaduct

A second ordinance, ordering the completion of the Nicholas street viaduct, was recommended for passage by the city commission in committee of the whole. City Attorney John A. Fine drafted the ordinance which embodies the provisions of the old instrument, with practically no change.

The new ordinance follows a conference with the railroad companies constructing the viaduct. Concerning the ordinance Fine said:

"This will hurry up the matter. It is agreeable to the city and the railroad company."

DENTISTS NEED NOT PAY UP

Do Not Have to Take Stock They Subscribed For.

THEY SAY THEY WERE MISLED

Were to Have Had Control of the Company, but They Now Assert They Have No Chance to Get This Advantage.

No less than twenty-five of the leading dentists of Omaha feel $100 richer apiece because of a court decision which says they will not have to pay up for $100 shares they agreed to take in a big dental supply corporation that was to be established in Omaha by a certain Dr. Fordyce of Des Moines. It was as much as three years ago that this bunch of Omaha dentists fell for Dr. Fordyce's smooth line of talk and signed the stock subscription list, each pledging to take a share and pay 100 good dollars for it.

Three years have danced merrily onward and the supply house has not been established. Also the Omaha dentists have not paid up their shares. So, Dr. Fordyce of Des Moines sued the whole bunch of them, consisting of Dr. M. H. Dunham, Dr. J. C. Soukup, Dr. W. H. Lacey, Dr. Fred Whitcomb, Dr. F. J. Desnocher, Dr. Harry A. Foster, Dr. J. H. Wallace, Dr. N. C. Christensen, Dr. J. F. Mares, Dr. W. C. Dean, Dr. F. C. Lane, Dr. H. A. Adams and several others, to get the $100 apiece.

They Fought Back.

They resisted up and fought back. They held that, while he had promised they should hold the controlling stock in the company, he, the organizer, Dr. Fordyce himself, had invented an alleged patent tooth crown and had unloaded it upon his own company in exchange for $100,000 worth of stock. "Now, who's got the controlling stock in the company?" cried the Omaha dentists in unison in answering the suit, when they remembered that the company was to be incorporated for only $25,000 and that the organizer himself had taken $100,000 of it in exchange for a tooth "Prett! high-priced tooth," they churched again, and straightway they employed attorneys to resist the payment of the $100 apiece.

Rooting around a little further for evidence, the Omaha dentists found that Fordyce had given gratis one share of the stock, valued at $100, to Dr. Charles Woodbury of Council Bluffs. Why? The letter he wrote Dr. Woodbury explained that: "Your name in this matter," he wrote Dr. Woodbury, "will be worth more to me than the $100." So all these little exhibits were dragged into justice court, and Judge Aldstadt ruled in favor of the dentists, holding that they owe Fordyce nothing. Fordyce's attorney says he will appeal to the district court.

MOREHEAD EXPLAINS DELAY

Has Not Named Minimum Wage Commission for Reasons.

MISS EAVES HAS BEEN AWAY

Governor Cites Her Absence as Obstacle to His Getting the New State Statute Under Operation.

Because Miss Lucile Eaves, political science department of the University of Nebraska, has been away for some months, is the reason given by Governor John H. Morehead for his not appointing the minimum wage commission provided for by the last legislature. Representative John Brain of Omaha, who, jointly with George W. Losey of Fremont, was the father of the minimum wage commission bill, wrote the governor a letter some days ago asking him why he did not appoint the commission, which should have been appointed within thirty days after the bill went into effect, last July. In the course of the letter Representative Brain suggested that Robert Cowell of Omaha would make a good man for the citizen's place on the committee. He also suggested that Miss Lucile Eaves be appointed as the one woman that is required on the commission.

Has Been the Obstacle.

In the governor's reply received by Mr. Brain he says: "Your favor regarding the minimum wage commission received. I have heretofore appointed Mr. Cowell on one commission in addition to the torpedo relief commission, on which he served. No doubt he would feel that he had given his full share of service without compensation. I am aware also that it was the intention that Miss Lucile Eaves should be a member of the commission, but she has been absent from the state since the passage of the bill. This has been one of the obstacles to the appointment of the commission. However, I shall take up the matter early in the next year and work out a solution."

The minimum wage commission bill requires that one member of the commission shall be the governor, another the deputy labor commissioner, another a member of the department of political science of the University of Nebraska, and another a reputable citizen of the state. It also provides that one member of the commission shall be a woman. It does not require that the woman member of the political science department of the University of Nebraska shall be the same person.

Moving Ordinance is Placed on File

Without argument, the city council in committee of the whole placed on file the mayor's ordinance requiring movers, draymen and van drivers to notify the police of the change of location of any resident within two days from such removal. Mayor Dahlman, who introduced the ordinance by request of the retail merchants, was absent and Commissioner Dan B. Butler in the chair.

"BROOKS' SALE" STIRS UP THE JEALOUS ONES

Brooks Pities 'Em, for They've Had a Full Siege of It This Fall.

BROOKS TO QUIT BUSINESS AS ADVERTISED

Meetings—Intrigues—Lawyers—Rival Sellings—All Have No Effect Upon Brooks' Sale.

The pain of jealousy is deep seated. It is quickly aroused and slowly eradicated. Jealousy is not confined to sex, nation, size or color. It is in the natural born make up of all of us, but some of us have a happy faculty of concealing it longer than others.

Jealousy is most apparent in the school child, for if child, in its utter lack of consciousness, cannot conceal its jealousy. But, husky, full grown men also show their jealousy at times.

Now then, dear reader, WHY was "George Brooks," the Clothier, recently "written up," "lawyered," etc.?

WHY shouldn't George Brooks advertise his "Going Out of Business" Sale if he is up of all of us?

WHY shouldn't George Brooks ADVERTISE his Going Out of Business Sale when the back files of every Omaha newspaper will bring to light HUNDREDS of sales held when the parties advertising them were REALLY going out of business?

WHY isn't a clothier justified in calling his establishment "George Brooks" if he thinks the name euphonious? WHY shouldn't he call it "George Brooks" as readily as he would call it "Big Ben," "Model," "Star," "When," "Duplex," "San Francisco," "Grand Rapids," "Old Dutch Tavern" or "Old English"?

WHY is it you are today doing business with a half dozen concerns who do not retain a SINGLE member of the name that adorns the sign above their doors. What difference does it make if the goods are right and you buy them economically?

WHY shouldn't the exact number of DAYS in George Brooks' Going Out of Business Sale make any difference to you. DO YOU care whether his sale lasts TWO weeks or THREE weeks? Is it a CRIME to prolong a sale a bit if you are desirous of CLOSING OUT COMPLETELY?

WHY shouldn't George Brooks advertise such and such a make of clothing if he ACTUALLY HAS THAT MAKE OF CLOTHING? ($50 to any Omaha charitable institution if he hasn't.)

WHY shouldn't George Brooks go out of business if he finds it unprofitable to do business situated as he is? WHY shouldn't YOU buy clothes at "Going Out of Business" prices if you want to? WHY shouldn't George Brooks sell clothes as cheaply as he wishes to as long as he has PAID for the CLOTHES?

WHY should a member of an Omaha business organization have the iron clad nerve to step into Brooks' store and ask: "How much of a stock do you carry here?" WHY was he answered: "None of your business!"

IT'S ALL JEALOUSY—BANK JEALOUSY—JEALOUSY UPON THE PART OF THOSE WHO WERE HARDEST HIT—JEALOUSY UPON THE PART OF THOSE WHO WERE INSTRUMENTAL IN TRUMPING UP THE RECENT CHARGES AGAINST GEORGE BROOKS—JEALOUSY UPON THE PART OF THOSE WHO WERE DOING LITTLE OR NO BUSINESS WHEN GEORGE BROOKS WAS NOT ABLE TO WAIT UPON CUSTOMERS.

But "George Brooks" is still doing a record breaking business and the tide cannot be stemmed. In a short time he will have accomplished that which he started out to accomplish—to sell every suit of clothes and overcoat in the house at a price that would sell it.

The "George Brooks" store room has already been rented to other parties—George Brooks has only a short time remaining here—BUT HE IS GOING TO SELL CLOTHING AT ANY PRICE HE BEGS FOR, EVERY DAY WHILE HE REMAINS, IN SPITE OF STAR CHAMBER MEETINGS AND CONSULTATIONS HELD BY OTHER OMAHA CLOTHIERS.

ANY $20 Suit or Overcoat in the house, at $17.50. ANY $25 to $27.50 Suit or Overcoat, $21.25. ANY $30 to $35 Suit or Overcoat, at $27.50. This is an ADVERTISEMENT, inserted and paid for by
