SCHOOL AND COLLEGE WORK

Midweek Holiday Still Educational Activities for a Moment. STIMULATING TALKS AT PERU. Principal of Omaha High Enthusiasm Students of State Normal—Doings in Educational Field. Last Friday morning was "Talked" day at Peru State Normal school. President Hayes introduced Colonel T. J. Majors, a Peruvian of forty-seven years standing, who spoke briefly and pointedly on the Mexican trouble. He introduced another member of the State Board of Education, Rev. Mr. Gettys of University Place, who discussed loyalty from the standpoint of the home. He insisted that this kind of loyalty would produce the larger loyalty to the nation. Prof. Miss Kate McHugh, principal of the Omaha High school, visited schools all day Friday and during the chapel time gave one of the best speeches ever given by woman from the chapel platform. It was the advice of a woman of experience quitting the busy stage of active playing; to those just ready for a tryout upon the mighty stage of human experience. Her main theme was "A Multiplication of Powers as a Result of Radical Experience," which idea of true education was that which produced helpfulness and overcome selfishness. She was the guest of Miss Bowen, formerly of the Omaha High school. A great deal of class spirit was shown in chapel after the juniors had succeeded in winning the honors of class foot ball by a score of 21 to 8. The number of black eyes seen, point to another meeting held late a few evenings before; the outcome of which was an unequal report further than to say a certain anticipated parade was called off. President Hayes last week visited several city and country schools in Jefferson county. Saturday a Peru club was organized which he addressed. The following students were in evidence Thanksgiving day: C. V. Krebs of North Bend, C. B. Maples of Talmage, W. Rosiger of Hooper, Harold Livingston of Columbus, H. Hoie of Harrington, Earl Meyer of Lincoln, Hazel and Gordon Dick of Lincoln, Miss Applegate of Brook, Miss Gilbert of Johnson, Roger Hendricks of Auburn and Pink Renfro of Lincoln. HASTINGS COLLEGE. Brief Mention of the Week's Activities. The last women's chapel exercises were conducted by Prof. Carpenter, Prof. Cunningham, Mr. McCracken of the city Young Men's Christian association, Mr. Simmons, general students' secretary of the Young Men's Christian association of Nebraska and Rev. L. Young of the Episcopal church of Hastings. Mr. McCracken spoke on the subject of "Efficiency," Rev. Mr. Young on "Life's Battle" and Mr. Simmons on the "Student Volunteer Movement." Friday evening the regular annual foot ball banquet was held in the college refectory at 6:30. The banquet was given to the students, faculty and friends. Thursday evening Miss Johnson's pupils gave a recital in the music studio. Only the students and their friends were invited. Fourteen of the piano students rendered selections to the delight of those in attendance. Miss Stella Lord has enrolled as a student in the fourth year academy. Among the visitors to the college were Dr. and Mrs. Stuart of Mitchell, who spent a day with our matron, Mrs. Sheldon; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Borchert of Holdrege, who visited with Miss Harrenstein; Mrs. Keeler of Axtell, who spent Sabbath with her sons, Carl and Ed, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Borchert, who came for an over-Sunday visit with his daughter, Miss Ella Mair. The college orchestra appeared at chapel for the first time. This organization gives promise of being of considerable value to the college. Nebraska Wesleyan Notes. The Young Women's Christian association will hold its annual banquet on the evening of December 12. Bert A. Besaire, Wesleyan '11, now a student in Yale Divinity school, has been awarded the Menck scholarship prize in that institution. L. O. Jones of Lincoln addressed the Vincent association Tuesday evening on the subject "The Ministry from the Business Man's Standpoint." The girls' intercollegiate basketball tournament has progressed to the extent of four games. The freshman girls have made the best showing thus far. Prof. Shirk of the botany department is making a set of lantern slides for use in connection with his lectures on plant ecology. The pictures are original, being scenes from Nebraska, Kansas and the Dakotas, especially around Lake Erie. Advanced students in the department of physics are making a study of the fuel values of various grades of coal and are getting some interesting data. A calorimeter, imported from Germany, is used for determining the heat of combustion of the four elements from Nebraska for the Rhodes scholarship, two are Wesleyan graduates, Leslie Stevens, '13, and Knox Newkirk, '12. The others are Paul Good of the University of Nebraska and Paul B. Means of Yale. Mr. Stevens is the son of a missionary to China and Mr. Newkirk the son of a Methodist minister. Educational Notes. New York's schools will cost $38,193,606 this year. Pittsburgh school children now have a dental clinic. Kansas City, Mo., will employ motion pictures in public schools. Buffalo is equipping public schools with latest improved fire escapes. St. Paul school children are to be taught to save and bank money. Covington, Ky., doesn't know what to do with Fong Pock, a Chinese boy who goes with white children and he won't go to a negro school. LAUNDRY GIRLS LOSE CASE

May Be Worked Longer Than Nine Hours Per Day. JUDGE FOSTER SO DECIDES. Complaint Against Owners of P. D. S. Laundry Dismissed in Police Court, Despite Testimony Supporting Charge. The Pardon, Drake & Sipple laundry, Twenty-second and Cuming streets, charged by Marie Case, a former employe, with violating the nine-hour labor law for women, was held not guilty when Judge Foster dismissed the case through lack of evidence. The Case girl testified in court that she had been employed overtime nearly every evening, as was the majority of the other girls. This fact was not denied by Mr. Drake, who represented the company, and in explanation of the violation four girl employes testified they had worked after hours so as to be able to secure a half holiday on Saturday. Marie Case was discharged by her employers Wednesday last for being an "agitator" and urging her companions to quit at 5 o'clock, the completion of the legal nine hours' employment. Despite the fact that few objected to working overtime the law was nevertheless violated, as the testimony of the four girls and the admission made by the defense plainly showed. The firm since the charges were filed has increased the limit period of their help from a half to a full hour. Workers' Protective Judge. The organization committee of the Omaha Central Labor union has prepared the following statement for the public in reference to the case: "The case of the State against the P. D. S. Laundry company for violation of the nine-hour law for women was tried before Police Judge Foster on Saturday morning, November 29. After witnesses for the state had been examined and the witnesses for the defense had admitted the fact that the girls had worked more than nine hours, in violation of the law, not once, but many times—Mr. Drake, one of the principals, admitted on the stand that he had discharged one girl for talking to the other girls and raising a disturbance about the girls having to work overtime; he further stated that he never asked them to work overtime, he never paid them anything for overtime work, but that it was voluntary upon their part. "What the Law Says. "The law states clearly, 'that no laundry, restaurant or other commercial establishment, or public utility shall employ women workers for more than nine (9) hours in any one day, nor for more than fifty-four (54) hours in one week.' Look again at the admissions made by the defense and you will find that there was absolutely no denial of the fact that the girls worked more than nine hours. More than seven witnesses testified to this effect. Yet our most wise Police Judge Foster found that there was not sufficient evidence to convict and discharged the defendants. If we cannot get a conviction when both prosecution and defense testify to violation of the law, then when can we expect a conviction, Judge Foster? "This is the most flagrant case of fat-headed decision that was ever brought to public notice. We thought Napoleon kicked 'divine rule' into the ditch along with two-thirds of the crowns of Europe, but it seems the mantle has again descended and now rests upon the shoulders of a Foster. "The question arises, was Foster scared, or did he just give himself away? And this is the man that poses as a 'reformer and friend of the people.' If this is a sample of his brand of reform the sooner he is kicked out of office the better it will be for law and order. It is such decisions as these that make for anarchy and contempt of the judiciary. The day of Bloody Jeffries has gone by; but we still have our Humphries and Foster. "By this action of Judge Foster, laws are only made to be ignored or to give the printer a job, not for the protection of the rights of the people; but only for such as Judge Foster to 'look wise' over and make a plaything of. It is not a matter of law, but of the capricious decision of judges. "Victims Are Helpless. "Under this condition rests the health, life and happiness of the unorganized, therefore defenseless, women workers—many of whom have others dependent upon their small earnings. One of the witnesses for the defense in this case had three small children dependent upon her earnings. Can you realize what it means for such as she to protest against being overworked? The loss of her position is a very serious matter for a great number of these women workers. It is protection of such women that gives our nine-hour law its greatest merit. Such decisions as Judge Foster's hands on women bound and staggered into the clutches of grasping employers. "Laws made for the protection of the weak and defenseless women, to preserve and perpetuate the physical and mental resources of the race, are a mockery when we have a Foster on the bench. "An error of judgment can be over-

Commercial Club Endorsements to Local Charities

Seventeen charitable institutions have received the endorsement of the charitable endorsement committee of the Commercial club, which means that the committee believes them worthy of the support of those who are charitably inclined and want to give money. These represent only those whose application for endorsement have been granted. The committee feels that there are other institutions that are worthy of support which have not come to the attention of the club. Following is the list of those already endorsed and the amounts each is seeking to raise during the year: Associated Charities of Omaha and South Omaha.....$ 2,500 Associated new charities..... 2,500 Child saving institute..... 18,200 The Gardner and Jacobs Memorial hall..... 2,500 Omaha Charity association..... 2,500 Omaha City mission..... 7,000 Salvation Army industrial home..... 5,000 Salvation Army Rescue home..... 2,000 Scandinavian Young Women's Christian association..... 900 Swedish Mission hospital..... 2,500 Union Omaha..... 5,000 Visiting Nurse association..... 5,125 Volunteers of America..... 3,000 Women's Christian association (Old People's Home)..... 2,500 Young Men's Christian association..... 10,000 Young Women's Christian association..... 10,000

Mrs. Frey Missing From Home Since Eighteenth of Month

Mrs. R. E. Frey, 3423 Spencer street, has been missing from her home since November 18 and every effort made so far by the husband to locate the missing woman has failed. She is described as being 40 years of age, five feet two inches high, has gray-brown eyes and weighs about 108 pounds. Mr. Frey, who is a binder at the Rees Printing company, left his wife at home the morning of the day mentioned, and since then he has seen nothing of her. Returning from work that evening, he called upon the neighbors, but no trace of Mrs. Frey could be found. It is thought that she became mentally weak and is wandering somewhere or else has been taken in by some institution or persons who do not know who she is. For some time Mrs. Frey has been suffering with nervousness. The couple were married twenty years ago and were said to be happy with each other.

Creighton Club to Sing Musical Organization of University Gives Concert December 10.

FORMAL PROGRAM IN FEBRUARY. Annual Glee Club Recital Will Be Held Then at a Local Theater—Will Tour During the Holidays. Creighton University Glee club, official musical organization of the local school, will make its first appearance of the year December 10 at the University auditorium. Twenty-sixth and California streets. In an informal concert with the Henry G. Cox Omaha Symphony Study orchestra. The Glee club, which has for the last four years been a big favorite with Omaha music lovers, has been hard at work for the occasion, and those in charge promise a treat to their supporters. Two long practices have been held weekly since the opening of the school and the singers have attained a high standard in vocal harmony. The program for the informal concert is one of unusual excellence for such an occasion. Each organization will appear in an interesting cantata, "Paul Harvey's Ride," by Dudley Buck. This number has been given by many of the representative musical organizations of the country, and is full of rhythmic and patriotic interest. John G. Jamison, Creighton arts alumnus, will handle the baritone solos in this number, while William G. Thompson will sing the tenor solos. Both are possessed of good voices. Mr. Jamison is remembered for his frequent appearance in college days, while Mr. Thompson is a singer of considerable ability. Thompson is a junior at the law school and has studied music in Italy. His home is at Grand Island, Neb. Jamison is an Omaha boy. Mr. Jamison will also appear in a series of songs. Frank Hodek, the club pianist, will render several piano solos. Although but a very young man, he is an accomplished pianist. He studied music at the Peabody institute, Baltimore, Md., where he was pianist in the institute orchestra for several years.

Senator Hitchcock Speaks Monday Noon at Commercial Club

Commercial club members will have an opportunity at the Monday noon luncheon at the club to hear the views of Senator G. M. Hitchcock on currency reform. The senator has been scheduled to speak before the club on the subject of the proposed currency legislation now pending in congress. He has stood out for months against the administration draft of the currency bill and has proposed an entirely new bill as a substitute. Since coming to Omaha he has said he feels confident the senate conference will adopt some of his amendments before bringing the bill to the floor of the senate. He is in Omaha for a week or ten days following Thanksgiving.

Improved Device for Diving is Invented

Demetrios K. Karamanos, a Greek laborer of Council Bluffs, has secured a patent from the United States patent office on a diving device invented a year ago by him. This device provides space for half a dozen men to move about in freely, prolongs the time during which they remain under water indefinitely and provides means to reach objects in the water about 125 feet. The invention is intended especially for use in gathering sponges at the bottom of the sea or in examining wrecks, although it does not permit of the minute examination of the interior of sunken ships as the single diving bells do. Karamanos invented his machine during spare time while working at day labor. He has seen service on ships in many seas and knows the diving problem well.

WOMAN WANTS HELP IN FINDING HER HUSBAND

Fearing that her husband, who November 15 left her and their three small children at Plainview, Neb., where they were staying at a rooming house, has met with foul play, Mrs. James I. Jacobs has asked that a description of him be printed. Jacobs has been a laborer; height, five feet seven inches; weight, 148 pounds; eyes, light blue; hair, dark brown, streaked with gray. A burn scar extends from the left ear towards the mouth. Jacobs at the time of his disappearance wore a blue serge suit and a dark gray cloth overcoat. He carried a Hamilton watch and about $7.

Sick Headache. Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies, but nothing helped me until, during one of those sick spells, a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." Eat Less Meat and Take Salts if Kidneys Ache or Back Hurts

Says Bladder Irritation or Rheumatism means Kidneys aren't straining out uric acid. Meat forms uric acid, which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels

University Co-Eds Give Team Banquet

Co-eds at the University of Omaha gave members of the foot ball squad their annual banquet Saturday evening at Hedrick hall. The entire feast was prepared by the co-ed, all the cooking being done in the domestic science department of the university. The tables were decorated with the school colors of crimson and black, while large bunches of red and white carnations adorned the tables. At the plates miniature foot balls and name cards were placed. Those present were: Neal Parsons, Arthur Newman, George Parish, Finley Jenkins, Charles Anderson, Paul Bell, Glen Reeves, Alfred Adams, Elmer Rhoden, Victor Jorgensen, Stanley High, James Westerfield, Andrew Bell, Harker, James Morrison, Oldham Paisley, John Selby, Arthur Fredericks, John Reese, President D. E. E. Higgins, Prof. Vera Finn, Prof. Fanny Williams and Otis T. Morgenthaler.

WAGERING ON WRONG SIDE EXCUSE FOR BEING BROKE

A smartly dressed young man wearing a bulldog briar pipe and correct college clothes walked up to Acting Captain Sigwart at police headquarters last night. "I want a place to stay for the night," he said. Sigwart questioned him and learned that the young man is the proprietor of a dyeing and cleaning establishment in LeMars, Ia., and came here Thanksgiving day to see the South Dakota-Creighton foot ball game. He said that he "liked Creighton" and had wagered all of his money on the Omaha team. "That's why I have to sleep in the station house until I can get money from home." The young man said his name is Albert Hiss, and that when he was playing with the Western Union college team of LeMars, last year, he played against Creighton.

GUTHRIE CENTER MAN LOSES FAITH IN HUMAN NATURE

Back in Guthrie Center, Ia., if a man puts a thing down in a public place and goes away he knows it is going to be there when he gets back and John Pauline, a resident of that thriving hamlet, had the idea that Omaha offered the same kind of a proposition. He had that idea yesterday. Just now he is skeptical, to say the least, because when he put down his pocketbook on a chair in the waiting room of the Union station yesterday and turned around to see the bulletin board, it took just long for him to lose it. The purse contained $30.

STOREKEEPER SWINDLED BY SHORT CHANGE ARTIST

Short change artists added another victim to their list last night when Mrs. Cuthill, keeper of a small store at 1235 Capitol avenue, was swindled out of $50. A well dressed man came in and laid down a $50 bill on the counter and asked her to change it. She counted out $50 in smaller bills and did not notice that the stranger had switched the $50 bill for a $1 bill until he had departed. It's a Burning Shame not to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve to cure burns, eczema, boils, sores, pleurisy, bruises wounds and ulcers. $c. For sale by your druggist.—Advertisement.
