Woman's Work

Miss Lillie M. Strong, general secretary of the Young Women's Christian association, will give the talk at the Sunday afternoon speaker service at 4:30 o'clock at the association building. Her subject will be "The Birthday Month." There will be special music by Miss Martha Dale. There will be the usual social hour Sunday afternoon from 5:30 to 7 o'clock. Light refreshments are served and the secretaries and hospitality circle help new girls to become acquainted. A special treat this Sunday will be a program of readings during the social hour by Miss Pearl Bennett of the public speaking department of the Council Bluffs High school. All young women are cordially invited to enjoy these meetings. The entertainment course Monday evening, December 8, at 8:15 o'clock will be the second number of the course. Miss Louise Wallace Hackney of Chicago will read "The Milestones." Monday evening, December 15, will be the December Young Women's Christian association party. It will be a Christmas party open to all girls of the association and any other girls whom they would like to interest in the work. The parties are for social benefits for girls and those who come to them will be welcomed and will be expected to participate in the activities of the evening in every way.

Mrs. Mary B. Newton, former principal of the Castelar school, was a guest of the Mothers' Culture club, and gave a talk on "Mither, Child and School." This was the annual meeting of the club and these officers were elected: Mrs. George E. Michel, re-elected president; Mrs. T. L. Coombs, re-elected vice president; Mrs. W. W. Fisher, secretary; Mrs. L. M. Manor, treasurer; Mrs. J. O. Deweller, critic. There was a general discussion concerning sane Christmas giving, and the members pledged themselves to this program.

Mrs. F. C. Patton, 243 Bristol street, will entertain the members of the P. E. O. society at a luncheon at her home, Thursday, December 11. Each member is to bring a Christmas toy, which will later be given to some charitable organization.

MRS. GEORGE TILDEN, who has for fourteen consecutive years served as president of the board of the Old People's Home, and for eight years previous to that was treasurer, will not be a candidate for re-election at the annual meeting Tuesday. Mrs. Tilden is gradually retiring from too active work in several prominent organizations, as her health will not permit so much work. Mrs. Tilden will continue her interest with the board, and is especially interested in assisting in raising a building fund for the Old People's Home. Mrs. Tilden was also formerly president of the Young Women's Christian association, but owing to too many duties was obliged to resign, and as a reward for her work, she was made honorary president of the association, which is an unusual honor.

The thirtieth anniversary of the Old People's Home will be celebrated next Tuesday at the North Presbyterian church at Twenty-fourth and Vinton streets at 11 a. m. The regular business meeting will be held and the annual reports from the various officers will be given. There will also be an election of officers for the ensuing year at 2 p. m. A program has been planned, to which the public is invited. Several business men will speak. Miss Daisy Higgins will

E. O. Carson will read a paper on "Nature's Provision for the Protection of Animals." Mrs. F. F. Miller will read a sketch on Whittier. The current topic, "Conditions in Mexico," will be read by Mrs. R. F. Park. Miss Esther Johnson will talk on "Mission Work." Mrs. Charles Eiebarth will give a reading, "Aux Italiens."

The Dundee Woman's club will meet with Mrs. Joseph Polcar, Wednesday, December 10, instead of with Mrs. W. W. Johnston, as announced on the program. The Italian epic, "The Divine Comedy," will be the subject studied. Mrs. G. E. Fisher will tell the story of this epic, and Mrs. J. E. Dodds will lead the discussion, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Rhodes, Mrs. C. J. Hubbard and Miss Zora Shields. The Dundee Woman's club party, to be given December 12 at the home of Mrs. McCuller, 5104 Cuming street, will be an "advertisement" party, and it is desired that each guest will wear something suggesting an advertisement of a household necessity, similar to the book review party. Prizes will be given for the greatest number of ads guessed. A short program will be given by talent in the club.

Miss Grace Rosenow has written some appropriate verses for the holiday season, called "Christmas Thoughts." They are on English parchment and written in old English.

While joys of the gay Christmas season illumine the earth far and near, My thoughts hasten forth in their gladness

To bear you a greeting of cheer. Yes, bright is the message I'm sending, For all of its meaning is true, And Christmas is just that much sweeter Because I am thinking of you.

The Book club will meet with Mrs. V. T. Warnar, 2018 Cass street, Wednesday morning, December 10, at 10:15 o'clock.

Come to Our Birthday Party! Tomorrow We Celebrate Our First Birthday We will have completed our first business year. We are justly proud of our record of growth during the past year and appreciate the generous support of the buying public. We have tried to make the name more than a sign on the building or a label on the merchandise. The perfect satisfaction of every customer best expresses the ideal of this store. Our aim in the future as it has been in the past will be to build a business that will never know completion, but that will advance continually to meet advancing conditions. To this end every effort is put forth towards making our selling organization so efficient as to render the greatest service to each and every customer. We buy only from reputable factories in such quantities that enable us to undersell any store in Omaha for the same quality, not occasionally, but every day in the year. Geo. W. Laier EASY CHAIRS.
