PLACES WHERE THIRSTY MEET

Claims Made that the Police Do Not Enforce the Law Regarding Sale of Intoxicating Liquors.

More and more it begins to appear that the Fire and Police board of South Omaha is due for another spasm...

A prominent and well-known resident in the southwestern section of the city said yesterday: "The saloons are not observing the law, at least in the district where I live..."

The board writes the chief a letter once in a while and there the "cleaning up" ends.

For a time when the public asked about the enforcement of the law, the chief gives the orders to his subordinates...

Sage Tea Darkens Hair to Any Shade

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get this famous old recipe...

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied.

WHAT COMES AFTER 8

A teacher at the Cass school was trying to teach one of the kindergarten pupils to count.

"Eddie, what comes after one?" asked the teacher.

"Two," shouted Eddie proudly.

"What comes after two?"

"Three."

"After four?"

"Five," answered the youngster.

"What comes after five?"

"Six."

"After six?"

"Seven," screamed Eddie, inflating his chest, because he had broken a class record.

"Well, Eddie, what comes after eight?" asked teacher.

This time Eddie hung his head and hesitated. "Twelve," he finally answered.

"Oh, no, Eddie," denied the teacher. "Come, come, what comes after eight?"

Eddie thought and thought. Finally he remembered something he had heard his father say to his mother.

"Oh, I know, teacher—the sergeants."

Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be in Laurel Hill cemetery.

City Hall Burglar Makes His Getaway

City hall attaches went on a man hunt yesterday at 5 o'clock when the Board of Education janitor, William Lawson, rushed down five flights of stairs and planted himself firmly in the rotunda...

Although a careful search of the building was made and all offices duly inspected, the burglar in the gray sweater could not be found.

The purse was found late yesterday afternoon on the steps of the telephone building across from the city hall.

Red Cross Seals On Sale in Hotels

During the ten days before Christmas, Red Cross Christmas seals will be sold in hotel lobbies and in the corridors of the Omaha and South Omaha postoffices...

The nurses in the Omaha hospitals are selling many of the seals, those at the hospital having disposed of over 18,000, while other hospitals are not far behind in the work.

ED HEELAN, VETERAN POLICEMAN, IS RETIRED

Ed Heelan, for twenty-four years a member of the police department, yesterday tendered his resignation to Chief of Police Dunn and asked to be allowed the 30 a month pension provided by the police relief and pension fund.

At one time he was a detective, and he holds an enviable record. While a patrolman, walking along South Tenth street many years ago, he broke into a room in an abandoned house and found Maud Rubel murdered.

A North Sixteenth street grocery was broken into once and the burglars cut into a new cheese. One of them hit a mouthful out of a wedge and threw the remainder away.

William Boone, the driver, was held at headquarters pending an investigation. He said that Peterson stopped him several blocks away and asked for a ride and permission was granted.

LID GOES ON IN JUAREZ TOWN

Anyone Trying to Buy or Sell Liquor Must Face Firing Squad.

Whether Federals Will Stay or Retreat Into Nuevo Leon is Not Known--Hard Fighting Near Tampico.

JUAREZ, Mexico, Dec. 11.--The rebel military commander at Juarez today issued an order imposing a penalty of death before a firing squad on anyone who violated or attempted to violate the prohibition law.

The order issued through the chief of police says: "It recently has come to the attention of the military authorities that merchants and saloonkeepers have been selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law."

PRISIDIO, Tex., Dec. 11.--Whether the tattered remnant of the Mexican federal army, under General Salvador Mercado with 4,000 soldiers, driven to bay on the United States border, will make a last stand for supremacy at Ojinaga against the rebels advancing to that point, or whether the federals will continue their retreat into the state of Nuevo Leon, became the most critical question in the revolutionary movement in northern Mexico today.

Colonel Edward F. Test spoke before the Southwest Improvement club last night on the subject of a new Union station. Colonel Test advocated a new depot which would be constructed at a cost of not less than $5,000,000 at a more central location.

Colonel Test also advocated a free bridge over the Missouri river.

W. H. Green and F. W. Fitch spoke on the new depot question. Mr. Fitch announced that he had learned from General Manager Ware of the Union Pacific that the Union Pacific was more than willing to do its share in the construction of a new and adequate depot, but that the other railroads were delinquent.
