It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an

SAYS SLAVERY DOES EXIST

Deputy County Attorney Says the Carabaos Are Right.

TRAFFIC IN BOYS AND GIRLS

System of Slavery is Chiefly a Matter of Tribes and Families ... Family | Relations Are Extremely Loose.

That slavery openly exists in the Philippine islands, though knowledge of the system has been kept from the American public; that Pilipino character and customs are elements with which no person can deal who is a strainger to them, on Pinkney avenue. The home was deco- and that President Wilson and his adrated in a red and white color scheme, visers "do not know what they are talkwith bells and red and white carnations, its about," is Deputy County Attorney The evening was spent informally and Charles Haffke's comment on the satirthe guest of honor was told to pull a rib- ical performance put on in Washington As a result of amusing criticisms of the evening. The hostess was assisted by the sovernment's Philippine policy heard at the banquet, at which army and navy officials were present, threats of courtsmartial have come from the White House. Mr. Haffke is not a member of the Order of the Carabao, but spent several years in the islands in the employ of the American Department of Justice mas party. Guests were given costumes there. From men who recently have been there he has learned that slavery still exists

There is a large traffic in boys and girls," said Mr. Haffke, "the price varying from 50 cents to several dollars each. I was frequently offered opportunities to make such purchases. I never bought a human being, but a Pilipino father gave Mrs. W. J. Autumn leaves were me I sent him to school and bought him used in the decorations of dining room clothing, of which he was sadiy in need. When I left the islands he was in a position to earn his own living 'The system of slavery is chiefly a matter of tribes and families. Family relations are extremely lose and the marriage relation amounts to little. A leader among the Negritos, one of the inferior tribes, for instance, accumulates a considerable following and is never averse to disposing of some of the supernumeraries by sale.

"I never heard of a slave attempting to escape. I suppose if he did he would be recaptured, but the system is so much a part of the islands that nothing else is "It is this kind of people, divided into hundreds of little tribes or families, without any bond of unity, that the administration is trying to make self-governing. It can't be done safely for many years.

BIG BOND FILED FOR THE APPEAL OF THOMPSON CASE

bond for $101,000, the largest ever known in the local district court, was filed by the Burlington railroad, when it gave notice that it would appeal from the judgment of Judge Estelle in refusing a new trial in the suit in which Howard Thompson secured a verdict for $50,000 for personal injuries.

As required by law, the bond amounted to twice the verdict and costs. It was furnished by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty company.

SOUND OF THE PORT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PORT OF THE P III EVIDENCE!

Truth versus Falsehood! Honesty versus Fraud! Professor Wallace, who died recently, whose name has been everlastingly linked with that of Darwin-gave it as his judgment that, notwithstanding the marvelous material prosperity of the world, its wonderful inventive genius and development (greater during the last century than all the centuries preceding it) no advancement had been made along the lines of Honesty, Truthfulness and Fair Dealing. The opinion of this great nonogenarian is entitled to careful consideration. His conclusions are supported and buttressed by the judgment of the most profound thinkers

For 20 years or more THOMAS KILPATRICK & CO. have from time to time called attention to the Fraudulent Methods and False Statements of a few merchants in this community. Facts were presented and evidence offered many times-which we could not get before the court of public opinion. The people are waking up. They have seen the evidence—and by their verdiet are saying: "Never again in Omaha will it be possible to build up a business on Falsehood, Fake and Fraud.
