Dwyer-Flanagan Engagement.
An engagement of much interest is that of Dr. Timothy J. Dwyer and Miss Susan Mary Flanagan. Both are very prominent in medical circles and Miss Flanagan resigned December 1 as the head nurse, or superintendent of nurses, at St. Oktherine's hospital, where she has been most successful.

Miss Flansgan is a vivacious brunette and came to Omaha about eight years ago from Newark, N. J., where she took her training in the city hospital. She has made a host of friends in her short stay Nebraska and later the Creighton Col of Medicine, where he was an honor graduate and was appointed interne at St. Joseph's hospital. Pollowing that he was amistant to Dr. Charles C. Allison until two years ago, when his brother, Dr. John Dwyer, became associated in business with him.

Friends of Dr. Dwyer and Miss Fiana-gan think that this is another of the tornado romances. On Easter evening they were both attending a dinner given at one of the cafes when they heard of the tornado. They immediately left the party and hurried to the stricken neighparty and hurried to the stricken neighborhoods and assisted the injured.

Rt. Rev. Richard Scannell will officiate at the wedding, which will take place Nvednesday morning, January 7, at 8t. John's church at 8 o'clock, followed by a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Finnagan, 278 California street, for the wedding party. A reception will follow from 2 to 4 o'clock, and they will leave that evening for an extended southern wedding trip to points in Texas, Florida and Louisiana, spending some time at Palm Beach, returning by February 15.

Plans for Charity Ball.

The decoration committee for the Char-ity ball to be held Jagnuary 1 will be one of the hardest working committees, unless it is the ticket committee. The decoration committee, composed of prominent society women and business men. is planning to do much of the real work of decorating the Auditorium personally; the members plan to literally put on the one social function given by the class Miss Garnetta Thener, Miss Susan Wood their old clothes and go to work to save larger business firms will be requested to school lend some professional decorators to as-citizens having Christmas trees to let the committee have them, and the Christmas greens, for the Auditorium, as the tivities. Christmas season will be over January I, just in time to help the Charity ball. Anyone having trees may 'phone Douglas 791 and the committee will send for them The decoration committee includes Mr. Frank Judson, chairman; Mr. Robert Manley, Mr. John W. Towis, Mr. Louis Nash, Mr. D. J. O'Brien, Mrs. F. S. Cow-gill, Mrs. John A. McShane, Mrs. O. C. Redick, Mrs. J. E. Summers, Mrs. J. De Porest Richards, Mrs. Gould Dietz, Miss Lynn Curtis and Mrs. W. A. Redick.

Smith-Dale Engagement.

The first of the special maids of Ak-Ear-Ben to become engaged this year is Miss Dorothy Dale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Dale, to Mr. Sidney L. Smith of Hartford, Conn. Miss Dale graduated fast year from Lesell school for girls at Auburndale, Mass. Both families are prominent in insurance circles, and Mr. Smith is also in this Last"Pre-Christmas" Call! Prices Vigorously Reduced Because "Brown" Must Vacate!

The C. B. Brown Co. must crowd a world of business into THREE short days-Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. But there is EVERY reason to EXPECT such an ourush here, for prices are at their lowermost limit, "Must vacate" reductions are on ALMOST everything; and the reductions are GENUINE beyond QUESTION.

Same "Brown" Grade as beforeonly the PRICES have changed

February 1st the United States National Bank commences to RAZE this building; a jeweler's business is usually at a standstill during February, so don't you see how NECES-SARY it is for the C. B. Brown Co. to CLEAR its stock BE-FORE the building is DEMOLISHED? Think it over and you'll say "Must Vacate" reductions are well founded.

A few, and ONLY a few, lines of goods retain their regular prices. This must be because of rigid contracts made with the MAKERS. All ELSE is deeply "Cut."
