F. A. Shotwell, Omaha Lawyer, Tells His Honest Opinion. FAILS TO STAND FOR JUSTICE

Well Known Attorney Says Charac terisation of Association as Matual Admiration Society In Correct.

A lawyer's honest opinion of the Negrasks Har association, which closed its ssions Tuesday night, was given in an nterview by Franklin A. Shotwell, wellknown Omaha attorney.

Having read The Bee's comment on the activities of the association, which referred to it as a "mutual admiration society," Mr. Shotwe'l declared the term was just; that the association is dead and doesn't know it; that it fails to the few men who control its policies and

"According to The Bee, 'the lawyers solding their state meeting will proceed to demonstrate what a really, truly mutual admiration society is like.' Nothing could be said that is more true. The State Bar association performs no public r professional service and its meetings are social and nothing more.

"The few lawyers, who do attend its sessions call each other brother; applaud each other's dry remarks, usually pass some meaningless resolutions and then elect officers for the next year, men who have been hand picked and selected by self-perpetuating committee.

"This so-called association does not represent the lawyers of the state. It only speaks for the few men who control its action and policies and dominate its machine. It has no influence, it is lifeless; it is dead and doesn't know it; it means nothing; it formulates no progressive policy; it determines no advanced action; it has become so loaded with its own conceit that it has died of dry rot.

No Progressive Leaders. "The real progressive leaders of the bar are not in its confidence. Such lawyers as Judge Sullivan and John L Kennedy of Omaha, Harrington of O'Nell, Gering of Plattsmouth, Flansburg of Lincoln, Judge Holcomb, Governor Aldrich and other progressive lawyers, are not in its counsels. These men stand for something besides self-adulation. They are for real reform in court procedure and they realize the injustice being done by the present condition of affairs. "Lawyers, on account of their position and leadership in society, should endeavor to help the weak and oppressed. They should frown upon injustice and should lend all their strength to remedy the evils now existing in our social system. They owe it to themselves. They owe it to the public,

Relief for Supreme Court. "One would have thought that this se called bar association would have attempted to help our supreme court to bring its large docket up to date. The court is far behind and it needs assistance. We should either have an intermediate appellate court or a court commission This relief must come soon or our court will be in a bad rut for a decade. "Think of the wrongs suffered and endured by litigants by this condition Justice is, in many cases, absolutely denied by reason of delay. People will not long stand for it. It will not answer for lawyers to praise a judicial system THE BEE: OMAHA, THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1914.
