CRAWFORD OPPOSES BURKE

Dakota Republicans Evolve Tickets for Primary Fight.

FULL TICKETS IN THE FIELD

Congressional Fight Most Bitter, Rice Forcing Recognition in the Third District by His Tactics.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 6.—After a struggle of forty-eight hours, during which personal encounters between the leaders were narrowly averted, the majority faction of the republican party in South Dakota tonight completed its state and federal tickets.

Majority republicans re-nominated Senator Crawford as their choice for the United States senate. The minority republicans selected Charles G. Burke, congressman from the Second district, to oppose Senator Crawford in the primaries, which will be held in March.

The following majority state ticket was nominated: Governor—Frank M. Hyde, Lieutenant Governor—Peter Norbeck, Secretary of State—Frank M. Road, Treasurer—A. W. Ewart...

Royal C. Johnson was unopposed for the nomination in the Second district. Mr. Johnson is now attorney general.

A hard fight developed in the Third congressional district on Candidate W. G. Rice of Deadwood. So stiff was the fight made for him that the convention, after staving the office to J. G. Bartine, decided to compromise the situation and allow all the candidates for the district to run on an independent ticket.

Mr. Rice had the district nomination by a 1,500 majority over all candidates. The minority proposal committee named H. B. Anderson of Davidson county as gubernatorial candidate.

The republican minority finally lined up the following ticket: Anderson for governor, Everett of Spink for lieutenant governor, Harris of Walworth for treasurer, Horneman of Minnesota for land commissioner, Forest of Lincoln, attorney general, Ganser of Bonhomme, secretary of state, Lockhart of Pierre, state comptroller, McNulty of Brown was put up for congress in the second district.

Portland Unemployed SHUN THE CITY ROCK PILE. PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 6.—Portland's attempt to solve the unemployed problem by providing a municipal rock pile with a flat rate of $1.50 failed utterly today. Out of 200 men who have been given free sleeping quarters, fifty applied for work, but only twelve reported at the rock pile.

Two hundred men stormed the city council chamber and demanded information as to wages and hours at the rock pile. When told that only $1.50 would be paid for a full day's work they jeered in chorus and withdrew.

Dr. F. M. Fling, head of the department of European history at the University of Nebraska, gave the first of a series of six lectures on European statesmen at the high school auditorium yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Fling chose as his subject for the first lecture, "The Reforming and Ennobling Influence of the French Revolution on the Statesmen of France during the eighteenth century."

Dr. Fling gave a synopsis of the life of Turgot and his works. He told how the statesman had abandoned his efforts in the ecclesiastical field to study jurisprudence and political economy...

He has contributed to the uplifting of France by his judicial, financial, and moral reforms during his terms in high public positions. Dr. Fling spoke of Turgot as a man of infinite power and brilliance...

Dr. Fling characterized Turgot as one of the six most brilliant statesmen of Europe and one of the greatest ministers France ever had. He said that Turgot's call was indispensable on those days, and without Turgot and others of equal worth countries of Europe would still be suffering from the effects of weak rulers of the earlier centuries.

His constituents, the French, are a Christian people, and he has endeavored to enlighten them by his terms in high public positions. Dr. Fling spoke of Turgot as a man of infinite power and brilliance...
