Your unrestricted choice of any Tailored Suit, Coat, Dress or Evening Wrap formerly sold as high as $65.00, on sale Saturday only, at the ridiculously low price of . . . $15

Again we ask you not to confuse these regular Julius Orkin personally selected tailored garments with many that are bought and used for "sale" purposes by some stores at this time of the year.

Come early! There are some bargains better than others, but they are all exceptional ones. If you had your eye on any garment in particular during the season when, perhaps, the former price was beyond your reach, come Saturday and if it hasn't been sold, you're welcome to it for only $15.00, even if it formerly sold as high as $65.00. It will be a great day here tomorrow. Hundreds of regular patrons of this store always attend this sale and buy an extra garment or two no matter how well they are supplied with clothes. The styles and the prices are irresistible. The more you know about clothes the more these bargains will appeal to you. Come tomorrow.

RAILROADS ARE CUTTING ICE

Securing Good Quality from the Wyoming Fields.

SOME HOUSES ARE FILLED

Colder Weather is Needed Before the Crop Can Be Harvested in This Section of the State.

The normal annual ice pack of the Union Pacific Railroad company is 150,000 tons. Up to Thursday night 22,000 tons of this quantity had been placed in storage. And while there is no zero weather in eight, officials of the company who have to do with ice are not alarmed over the outlook, feeling that during the latter part of this and during next month, there will be enough freezing weather to enable the securing of a heavy crop.

At this time the Grand Island ice houses are being filled with ice cut at Laramie, Wyo., and the houses at Sidney are filled. Ice is being put into the houses at Cheyenne, Laramie, Green River and Evanston, and in another week they will be filled, even if the weather should not turn any colder than it is at the present time.

At North Platte and Gettysburg the ice is from six to eight inches in thickness and some is being harvested at these two points.

The Burlington is getting good ice at Nebraska points along the north branch of the Platte, filling the ice houses at stations in that section, and considerable is being shipped to the houses further east. Along the Wyoming lines around Sheridan and in the Big Horn basin country, a good quality of ice is being harvested and there is little fear of a short crop.

With the Burlington, the only places

Give Your Blood A GOOD Searching Bath

An astonishing record of serious blood poisoning is daily brought to our attention. And most of these conditions could be averted were the blood primed, toned and purified in advance by that wonderful remedy known everywhere as S. S. S. Few people realize how quickly the system becomes infected with the acids and ferments from undigested food, constipation and inactive kidneys.

The medicinal properties of S. S. S. are so entirely just as essential to well balanced health as are the nutritive properties of the meats, fruits, fats and sugars of our daily food. And if you will bear this fact in mind and get your blood under the dominating influence of S. S. S. you will not only drive out those impurities that cause Rheumatism, Catarrh, Eczema, Pimples, Boils and this accursed blood, but you will find new thrills of health that can come only from a purified blood stream.

Old Associates at Burial of McElroy

A large number of telegraph men and old-time residents attended the funeral of William A. McElroy Friday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Peter's church, Twenty-eighth and Leavenworth streets. The deceased had been a Western Union telegraph employe for over thirty years, twenty years of that time as traffic chief. He had lived in Omaha for forty-four years.

The service was conducted by Rev. Father J. F. McCarthy, pastor of the church of which Mr. McElroy was a communicant. The pallbearers were all telegraph men, railroad or business men who were associates of the deceased during the many years of his work here. They were as follows:

Honorary—J. B. Sheldon, superintendent of telegraph of the Union Pacific; W. P. McFarland, assistant superintendent of telegraph, Chicago & Northwestern; C. B. Horton, district commercial superintendent of the Western Union; J. P. Barnhart, district traffic superintendent; W. Salubury, district plant superintendent; W. W. Umsted, district commercial manager; Eugene Duval, assistant general manager and ticket agent of the Milwaukee road; F. J. McShane, sr., pioneer resident.

Active—W. P. Hart, J. P. Fronser, J. H. McDonald, W. J. Rudland, H. L. Rowe and Edward Thompson.

MALONE TELLS FRIENDS HE IS VERY MUCH ALIVE

"I am not dead," Joseph H. Malone, 234 South Fifteenth street, has been busily telling his friends in answer to phone inquiries, due to an error in the reports of deaths at the city hall. He asserts that he is very much alive and expects to be for a long time to come. The friends who have made inquiries have done so because of seeing a death notice regarding a person of similar name who died at a hospital early this week. The deceased bore the name of Malvic, which resembled the name Malone in appearance, when written.

ICE CREAM MANUFACTURERS ARE TO MEET IN THIS CITY

The Iowa ice cream manufacturers and the Nebraska men engaged in the same line are to hold joint sessions of their respective associations in Omaha, January 28. The Nebraska association opens its convention in Omaha, January 19. On January 28, the Iowa men are to come and join the session. It is expected that 250 or more delegates will attend the two conventions.

Water Rate Reduction

Because "better late than never," our Water board is to be congratulated for having at last brought the rates below 25 cents per 1,000 gallons, which it had repeatedly prescribed as a maximum charge for the old water company.

It is plain now that the board could, and should, have redeemed the promise to extinguish the "robber rates" immediately upon taking possession of the plant, and that the excess charge for all these eighteen months has been needless and unwarranted.

Incidentally, while congratulating the Water board on seeing the error of its ways, The Bee can take credit to itself for the complete success of its campaign for lower rates.

Does anyone believe that without this persistent pressure of aroused public opinion, the Water board would have reversed its announced purpose to maintain the "robber rates" until it had piled up a treasury surplus big enough to buy one or all of the public service utilities?

Does anyone believe the board would have backed up even now had not The Bee secured from Judge English the decision that extortionate water rates are subject to judicial review and control?

With that decision, won for the people by The Bee, the public will be able to command further rate reductions as conditions may justify, which would not be attainable in any other way.

GREAT NORTHERN EXHIBIT CAR IS TOURING STATE

Accompanied by a battery of lecturers and agricultural experts, the exhibit car of the Great Northern is touring the Burlington lines in Nebraska, covering from one to three stations daily. The car will be in Nebraska until March. Then it will go into Iowa for a couple of weeks, after which it will go back to St. Paul.

Humane Officer Has Some Horse Problem

"A Transaction in Horses, or Who Owns the Equine," is a topic of much interest over which Humane Officer Hans Nielsen has been stroking his pale brow in deep thought during the last few days.

A brief synopsis of the great problem is as follows: Wednesday of the present week M. Gillin of the State Dry Cleaning Works, Twelfth and Capitol avenue, purchased after much debate "a perfectly good horse" from M. Colick, Twenty-fifth and Bond streets, for which he gave a check for $17.50. Mrs. Colick hastened quickly to a nearby grocery and procured cash for the certificate. After driving the animal about three blocks it stopped, apparently dying from loss of breath, and M. Gillin, rushing to the nearest telephone, called up the bank and stopped payment of the check. With words of courage and appeal he later coaxed the animal back to M. Colick, who, declaring a bargain is a bargain, refused to reverse the deal even when he learned the check had been stopped.

He had the muzzum, so "he gaworry." M. Gillin grew wrathful and tying the horse to a post at the rear of M. Colick's yard departed. Nielsen was telephoned Thursday by neighbors of Colick's that a horse had been standing at the back of his house for twenty-four hours without feed or water. Nielsen boarded a car and found the animal in a bad state. At a nearby feed and grain store the equine drank a lot of water and consumed a healthy meal of corn. Telephone communications with both of the men in the deal resulted in Nielsen taking the animal to the pond for execution or disposal. The entire trip was consummated without a sign of a heave on the part of the animal, and when this was made known to M. Gillin he immediately claimed his property. Nielsen, however, angry at the treatment to which the beast had been subjected, has about decided to hold it and file a complaint of cruelty against both parties concerned.

HUSBAND GIVEN SUSPENDED SENTENCE ON ABUSE CHARGE

George Ender, 215 Webster, charged in police court with abusing his family, was given a suspended sentence of thirty days.

Ender was charged by his wife with slapping her, which fact he denied, but explained that he had "sufficient cause" to do so.

Twenty-five years ago he married a widow with seven children, all of whom he raised and educated. A few months ago, one of the boys brought his wife and four children to swell the already numerous household. This fact he objected to strongly, with the result of his arrest. He declared that all of his family were "morally" waiting around until he died so that they could divide a $2,000 life insurance policy he had carried for them.

POLICE MAKE TWO RAIDS ON DISORDERLY HOUSES

As a result of a raid on two disorderly houses by Sergeant Madison and crew Thursday night, Birdie Love, 268 South Thirtieth street, and Harry Smith, Keystone hotel, Fourteenth and Douglas streets, were arrested. The former was fined $50 and costs in police court, while the latter was discharged. Four inmates, two from each place, forfeited cash bonds.
