A. E. Brock, 220 Bluff street, received word yesterday morning of the death of his mother, Mrs. Jane Brock, at the residence of her daughter in Des Moines, at 1:30 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Brock was a resident of this city from 1867 until 1875, since when she had resided with her daughter. Mrs. Frank D. Jackson. She was 83 years old at the time of her death. She is survived by her daughter. Mrs. Frank D. Jackson of Des Moltes, two sons, A. E. Brock of Council Bluffs and W. E. Brock of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Kate Maloney, who has been makeand W. E. Brock of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Kate Maloney, who has been making serious threats against a number of her neighbors, was taken into custody yesterday afternoon upon insanity charges and locked up in St. Bernard's hospital. Very soon after Mrs. Maloney was acquitted by a jury in the district court upon the charge of murdering her husband, which occurred two years ago, she has shown symptoms of the same homicidal tendencies that then rendered her incompetent to govern her conduct. The attacks have been periodical and not of long duration. For the last week or more, however, she has inspired a good deal of terror in the neighborhood. She will be given a hearing before the insanity commissioners, probably today or Monday.

What may possibly prove the neucleus for an outbreak of cerebro-spinal meningitis is the home of a colored family. Henry Hogan. 1734 Elighth avenue Levangelist Hogan, a son, aged 23 years, died there on Thursday night from the disease after an illners of only a few days. He was given the serum treatment and every effort made to save his life. There are eleven surviving members of the family, the parents, seven brothers and two sisters, all residing in a three-room cottage. The health officers have taken every possible precaution to prevent the disease spreading. The son was buried yesterday privately in agrave made in Fairview cametery. He had been closely associated with the young here coming here from the south. Whether young Hogan caught the disease from the stranger is not known, but the presumption is he did.

Will plead guilty to the charge and that they will be paroled or given a suspended sentance. There is no disposition now to punish them any further. They are both out on the bonds provided.

Negre Boy Indicated.

Sammy Davenport, a well known negro boy, who has been more or less a police protege, was indicted for robbery. In company with another unidentified negro he is accused of holding up and robbing Ernest Sright on the night of December 7, at the point of revolvers, taking 39 from him. He has been in jail for several weeks ago. The latter was stricken by the disease a short time after coming here from the south. Whether young Hogan caught the disease from the stranger is not known, but the presumption is he did.

The Creche.

The grand jury took a very lenient view of the matter and did not return an indictment for attempted murder. The indictment for attempted murder.

Both of the parents are from good families and have excellent reputations. The mother is the daughter of Hepry Jehnson, a wealthy farmer residing near Persia, and the husband is the son of Joseph Hofler, another well-known farmer are young, the husband 24 and the wife 19. They were married here by the pastor of the German Lutheran church last September.

Both felt the shame of the early advent of the child and successfully concealed it from their friends. The evidence shows that the wife became desperate and frequently threatened suicide to hide her supposed shame, and toward the last she became obsessed with the fear to such an extent that it turned her mind. The husband also shared the same mental condition, and it was while in this abnormal state that they planned to come to Council Bluffs and dispose of the child after its birth. It is very likely that both will plead guilty to the charge and that
