MOYER GRAND JURY REPORTS

Name of Men Charged with Crimes Are Not Given Out.

BILLS AGAINST UNION LEADERS Moyer, Mahoney, Miller, Tersich and Thirty-Pive Others Accused of Conspiracy Against Mine Employes.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 15 .- A present ment embracing some true bills was made to Judge P. H. O'Brien in circuit court here today by the special grand jury which has been investigating lawlessness arising from the copper miners' stike. The court was told that none of the men accused of felonies was in custody and their names were kept secret. John E. Antilla, secretary of the Calamet union, was indicted for conspiracy. The court announced that this bill charged a misdemeanor and therefore ould be made public. It was brought out that several "no bills' were included in the grand jury report and the court made them public The jury exonerated H. Stuart Goodell an oil merchant, of complicity in one of the strike shooting affrays. The indictment against Antilla included charges against Charles H. Moyer, president; C E. Mahoney, vice president; Guy E. Miller, Yanco Terzich, J. C. Lowney and W. P. Davidson, members of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners. In addition Lynn Sullivan, William Rickard, Ben Goggia, Frank Altonen, Charles E. Hietala and other local union leaders are named, the list including thirty-nine individuals. The first count of the indictment charges conspiracy to prevent "by force and arms" the pursuit of their vocation by employes of the mining companies. The second count was of similar tenor but the charge was broadened to include had, by their conspiracy and by attempts to intimicate, interferred with the rights and property of nonunion men. The jury made no reference to the

Will Make Arrests at Once. The court officials promised that as fast as warrants were served the names of the indicted men would be made public. One guess as to the nature of the concealed charges had it that they related to the four guards and two deputy become known as the "Seeberville mur-

The conspiracy indictment carried with it a list of 137 witnesses for the people Named in it were the following mine officials:

James MacNaughton, Calumet and Hecla; Charles L. Lawton, Quincy; F W. Denton, Copper Range Consolidated: Theodore Dengler, Mohawk and Wolverine: R. R. Seeber, Winona and Enoch Henderson, Franklin Mining company The others were nonunion employes of the company several women and some business men. Incidental to the indictment the jury found that the federation has 7,000 members in the strike district. Coupled with its exoneration of Mr. Goodell was a "no bill" in the cases of twenty-seven members of the union residing near South Range. They has been accused of unlawful assemblage and threats to destroy property. Immediately after the grand jury's report had been handed in court adjourned until Saturday, Judge O'Brien returning to L'Anse to continue the strike cases bacing tried in Baraga county. The grand jury again took up its work.

Ferris Wires Wilson. DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 15.-Information was received here this afternoon that Governor Ferris today telegraphed President Wilson as follows with reference to the strike situation: "Senator Ashurst reported to have quoted Michigan congressman of the Twelfth district as saying: "The Twelfth district of Michigan is a part of the United States where constitutional government no longer exists; that the rights of the cit sens under our constitution and our laws are overthrown and the laws and the constitution defied."

"If the congressman from the Twelfth district said this, he said that which is false in every particular; that which is a traitorous insult to his own district and the whole state of Michigan. Attorney General Fellows and I spent three days last week in the copper country. Both of us had been in daily communication with the strike situation. I know what I am talking about. Michigan asks that the truth be told. Michigan has protected the life and property of all its citizens and will continue to do so. Michigan needs no outside help."

Moyer Refuses to Talk.

DENVER, Colo., Jan. 15.-Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, when informed tiday that he had been indicted on a charge of conspiracy, said that he would not decide upon a course of action until after he had been formally notified of the indictment and has consulted with attorneys. "I shall leave Denver in a few days for Indianapolis to attend the convention of will cease to trouble you by the timely the United Mine Workers of America." ose of Dr. King's New Discovery. Sure he said. "From there I expect to return relief. 50: and $1. All druggists.-Ad- to the Michigan copper district. So far as this indictment is concerned I shall make no plans until I have further information.

O. N. Hilton, attorney for the Western Federation of Miners, who has just returned to Denver from the Copper county, said he was unable to determine at pres ent what action would be taken with regard to furnishing bond for the indicted mion officials. He declared that the indictment would open up the whole question as to the right of labor to organize and to strike to enforce its demands.

Telegrams Are Contradictory, WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.-Telegrams directly conflicting in their statement of conditions in the Michigan copper district were read today in the senate.

One message to Senator Townsend from a committee which said it represented 20,000 citizens of the district, said the law was being enforced and would continue to be enforced. A message to Senator Martine of New Jersey from the executive committee of the National Socialistic party said a reign of terror existed in the copper country and demanded a congressional investigation.
