

Nebraska. LYFORD FILES FOR OFFICE University Regent Will Make Race on Bull Moose Ticket.

PARTY PLANNING FOR BANQUET Two new companies file articles of incorporation—North Platte demands new depot in view of big business done.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Jan. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—V. G. Lyford has made good his determination to run for congress in the First Nebraska district by filing for the third party or bull moose nomination today.

The big banquet of that party, which will be held next month, will take place at the Lindell hotel, with ex-Senator Beveridge of Indiana as the headliner, with H. J. Allen of Kansas, Medill McCormick of Chicago, W. E. Cadmus and Miss Harriet Vittum of the Northwest Settlement as lesser lights.

Companies Incorporate. The George P. Shepard Monument company of Florence has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state with a capital stock of $20,000.

The Omaha Retinuing company, which will do a general business in retinuing creamery supplies, has incorporated for $10,000, with Luntz Hicks, Clyde H. Howard and John Collins as the board of directors.

North Platte Wants Depot. The city of North Platte wants a $80,000 depot at that place, according to a complaint filed with the railway commission today, which sets out many so-called reasons why the town is entitled to the new edifice.

University Printing. According to a decision handed down by Judge Stewart of the Lancaster county district court the state university cannot contract for its own printing, but must secure the work through the present state printing board.

Resinol Shaving Stick

WHEN you use Resinol Shaving Stick there are no stings, smarting after-effects, no annoying shaving rashes to fear. That is because its creamy lather is full of the same soothing, healing, antiseptic balsams that make Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap so effective in the treatment of skin affections.

Nebraska. Merchants Resist Effort to Take Off Motors from Lines

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—In the hearing held by Railway Commissioner Taylor in this city this afternoon it was evident that the Union Pacific railroad is trying to take the motor off branch lines and cut down the service as much as possible in this state.

General attorney Rich for the Union Pacific tried to make the proposition out a plain case of jealousy between the merchants of the different towns, but he was shown otherwise. The matter was thoroughly gone into and the commission took the same under advisement with a promise of a decision within ten days.
