

MINERS EXPEL "SPY" UNION

West Virginia Local Booted out by U. M. W. Convention.

TOOL OF DETECTIVE AGENCY

Body Votes to Further Campaign for Old Age and Mother's Pension and Liability and Compensation Laws.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 24.—On charges that it was an organization maintained by a detective agency for the purpose of "getting a spy into the convention," local union No. 97 of Pochontas, W. Va., was expelled by the convention of the United Mine Workers of America today. M. D. Whitesell, the delegate accredited to the union, was not present when the action was taken.

The attack on the union was started by A. R. Watkins of Yorkville, O., an international board member, who asserted that it was a detective agency for a union miner to appear in the neighborhood of Pochontas.

Vote Unanimous.
"Show the spy to us and we'll take care of him," shouted Thomas Cairns of Charleston, W. Va., president of the district in which Pochontas is located. The resolution to expel the union from the organization was adopted unanimously amid cheers.

The convention voted to further a campaign for federal old age and mother's pension laws and for liability and compensation laws.

Carpenters, employed in and about the mines, must give up their membership in the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners and affiliate with the miners, according to a resolution adopted today. William O. Green, international secretary-treasurer, announced that steps looking to this action were taken at the convention of the American Federation of Labor in Seattle.

Carpenters Agreed.
He said the miners' officials had conferred with the carpenters' officials in Seattle and that the carpenters had agreed to the change. It was pointed out that since the miners had taken a stand for industrial unionism, it was the duty of the miners to include every workman employed about the mines in their organization.

The question of the consolidation of the United Mine Workers of America with the Western Federation of Miners was brought up, but postponed until the fraternal delegates from the metal miners could be heard. Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation, is expected to attend the convention later.

Action Expected Today.
HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 24.—Action on the deportation of Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and Charles Tanner is expected to be reported by the special grand jury tomorrow. Circuit Judge O'Brien was ready to receive a further report from the jury today, but George E. Nichols, the special prosecutor, asked for more time in which to present some minor cases.

Deliberations of the jury today concerned the shooting on Labor day of Mary Faeakas, 12 years old, while deputies were suppressing disturbances resulting from the copper miner's strike.

There was every indication that the jury would conclude its work tomorrow. The jury must make some return on the Moyer case as the judge delivered a special charge to investigate the reported kidnappings and forcible deportation of the miners' chieftain and his lieutenants on the night of December 23.

The Calumet & Hecla Mining company today refused its deputy force from 188 to 125 men and the latter number probably will be retained for an indefinite period.

Union leaders expressed pleasure today that conditions in the copper country were to be investigated by a congressional committee. Officials of the mining company declined to comment on the proposed inquiry.

Tabor Defeats Amity.
Tabor, Ia., Jan. 24.—(Special.)—The basketball ball game of the season was played here last night between Tabor and Amity college teams. The outcome was very uncertain until the close, with Amity in the lead until midway of Tabor made a lucky basket that settled the score in Tabor's favor, 25 to 24.

Don't Let Pimples Bother You
Take Hold of Your Case Now and Use Stuart's Calcium Wafers for All Skin Blemishes.

There are literally thousands of women all over this country heart-sick on account of their poor complexion. Some of them have pimples and blotches, others liver spots and tetter, muddy color, etc. If these ladies would just follow the laws of nature and the science that Stuart's Calcium Wafers have, they would quickly remove all their regrets and endow themselves with the first-class skin-frees from any blemish.

The skin breathes in air and exudes decayed matter which is poisonous. When the pores of the skin become clogged, then the skin becomes diseased. A woman must object to look at Pimples and all manner of skin disorders arise. Colorless skin, blotches, etc., are due to this great underlying cause.

Calcium Sulphide is nature's greatest blood purifier. It is found in just the desired form and quantity in Stuart's Calcium Wafers. Then there are other ingredients in these wafers which have an effect on the blood which acts as a natural and speedy way with the Calcium Sulphide.

The fact that you have skin blemishes is proof positive, that your system is trying to get rid of its poison. Pimples, etc., are nothing else than red, raw, rawings of danger. The blood is throwing out so much waste matter that it clogs the skin pores. Stuart's Calcium Wafers will make the blood clean. They will throw open the pores and in only a short time you will find the entire system free from marks of blood impurity.

The fresh, red, rosy hue of the blood flowing freely and the skin will give you the complexion you desire.

DAKOTA LIQUOR MEN WILL FIGHT SUFFRAGE

DEADWOOD, S. D., Jan. 24.—(Special.)—That the liquor men of South Dakota plan an organized fight against woman suffrage this fall and intend to "protect" themselves from any adverse legislation was given as the reason for the secret organization here of the Retail Liquor Dealers of South Dakota and the Shippers' association, two separate state bodies that will work together for the one object, according to some of the delegates who were present at the meeting.

This meeting was held in executive session and the only official statement of it given out for publication was that of E. R. Diederich, for some years past recognized leader of the liquor men of South Dakota. Mr. Diederich explained that the activities of the Anti-Saloon league of this state had forced organization upon the liquor men and that they intended fighting "an amendment to the state liquor laws initiated by the license forces which will be voted on next November."

COMANCHE FRANK WINS CHAMP HUNTING DOG TITLE

GRAND JUNCTION, Tenn., Jan. 24.—Comanche Frank, a pointer, entered by H. R. Fishel, Hope, Ind., today won the title of champion hunting dog of America and a purse of $1,000 by defeating the setter Falcio, owned by W. H. Beazell, Michigan City, Miss. In the final race of the national championship field trials, in bird finds, honors were with the Beazell entry, which found five berries and a single against three berries and two singles located by the winner.

Vice District in St. Louis Closed March 1

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 24.—The segregated vice district of St. Louis will be closed for all time March 1, 1914, by an order of the Board of Police Commissioners, issued tonight. The order is the result of a crusade waged by the committee of 100 for the suppression of commercialized vice. It means the elimination of about seventy resorts and about 500 inmates.

ALL REVERE NAME OF BURNS

Omaha Scots Celebrate with Music, Songs, Dancing and Speeches.

PROGRAM IS AN ENJOYABLE ONE

Scotch Tunes and Recitations of the Poems of the Scottish Bard Thrill the Audience that Gathers.

In commemoration of the one hundred and fifty-fifth anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns, Omaha Scots held a largely attended concert and ball at the Auditorium at 1009 Chicago street last night, though the anniversary does not occur until Sunday. It was given under the auspices of Clan Gordon No. 63, Order of Scottish Clans, and was the twentieth annual affair of the kind held here.

In bonnets and plaids, and some in kilts, the clansmen and their families and friends turned out in full force to pay their respects to the memory of Scotland's plow poet, the bard of the land of the heath and heather, for whom love will never die, so long as Scotchmen live.

Songs of the highlands and the lowlands were rendered by numerous skilled artists during the early part of the evening, and the bagpipes, highland fling and sword dance were popular favorites. At the close of the program, everybody joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne," and then the floor was cleared for a good old fashioned clansmen's dance.

Many Features of Program.

Commending the musical program, Eggers orchestra played an inspiring overture of Scottish selections, after which Chief John McTaggart, who occupied the chair, expressed a welcome to the audience. Among the good old Scotch ballads that followed were: "Afton Water," "Annie Laurie," "Mary O'Argyll," "Auld Scotch Bridge," "My Laddie" and "The Standard on the Braes of Mar." The vocal soloists were Misses Hazel Silver and Hazel Rydov, and James E. Carnal and Harry S. Distrov.

A feature of the entertainment was the violin playing by little Miss Olga Eitner. Although only 10 years of age, she proved herself an artist in the rendition of Scotch tunes, and was clamorously applauded. One of her selections was "Blue Bells of Scotland."

Miss Mattie Britton in spite of her name showed herself to be a true Scotch lass by dancing the highland fling and the sword dance to the satisfaction of the many competent critics present. Pipe Major Clannaman George W. McDougall played her accompaniments on the bagpipes, and also played a solo on the national instrument. E. D. Challinor played the piano to accompany the singers.

That the celebration was acutely given is illustrated by the reception given James E. Carnal, when in announcing the name of his encore, he explained that he would sing it to a tune composed by an Englishman, as he did not know the original Scotch melody. Whispers of disapproval and even exclamations of disgust swept over the audience. However, as the vocalist sang the words of the piece which was "Blue Bonnets Over the Border," the clansmen forgave the English tune and willingly applauded the Scotch words and singer.

Clannaman Kenneth Finlayson was the orator of the evening and delivered an address on "Scotland's Darling." He told of Burns' life and works and praised the poet highly for his many noble verses, including "The Cotter's Saturday Night." In closing he quoted a poetic tribute paid to Burns by another Scotchman.

Scotland knows no prouder name, Holds none more dear than his.

The arrangements and floor committees included these members of Clan Gordon: Chief John McTaggart, Past Chief R. G. Watson, Taniat Alex McKie, Secretary James C. Lindsay, Financial Secretary George A. Dunn, Treasurers W. J. Hialop, Clannamen George Peacock, Thomas Falconer, Robert Malcolm and John Hamilton.

GIVE LOT WITH SET OF BOOKS THEY SELL FINED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 24.—Thomas H. Smart, book dealer, and two of his agents pleaded guilty in the federal district court here today to charges of using the mails to promote fraudulent New Jersey land schemes.

Smart volunteered to plead guilty and pay a fine of $2,500. His agents, Albert Levy and Benjamin H. Lange, volunteered to plead guilty and pay fines of $200 each.

On recommendation of the United States attorney, the federal court accepted the propensities. The three men, with nine others, were indicted on charges of circulating literature offering to sell a set of books for $20 and to give with each set of books a lot in Spotswood Manor, N. J., worth $15. The government claimed that the lots were not worth more than $5 and that false representations had been made concerning the desirability of the location.

TRUST BILLS OPEN TO CHANGE

Legislative Program as Already Outlined Not the Last Word.

MAY BE ALTERED OR EXTENDED

Interstate Trade Commission Measures Taken Up Next Week by House Committee—Plans for Hearings Considered.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The anti-trust legislative program, as outlined in bills made public yesterday, is not the last word in proposed remedial legislation to regulate big business. That the tentative measures may be altered or extended was emphasized today in both branches of congress and the president let it be known he did not consider the forms of the bills drafted closed.

Pursuant to the purpose of administration leaders to exhaust the subject, it was determined by the house judiciary and senate interstate commerce committees not to introduce at this time the measures relating to interlocking directorates, prohibition, definitions of restraint of trade and specification of "cut-throat" competition. Hearings on the question are to be held before the bills go to congress.

The interstate trade commission bill introduced yesterday will be taken up next week by the house interstate and foreign commerce committee, which may see fit to alter the provisions suggested by the judiciary subcommittee and Senator Newlands, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee.

Not to Be Framed for White.
The fifth of the proposed bills, that to authorize federal regulation of railroad securities, probably will not be drawn for several weeks. As a basis for this measure, however, bill introduced by Representative Adamson of Georgia probably will be taken.

Plans for the hearings now are engaging attention of the legislative leaders. Representative Clayton has called a meeting of the judiciary committee tomorrow to determine upon a course of procedure. When the democrats of the senate interstate commerce committee met today to discuss the subject, the suggestion was made that hearings should be conducted jointly by house and senate committees in order to expedite hearings of the bills. This idea received little encouragement, however, from the house leaders in charge of the anti-trust program.

With two committees in the house already engaged in preliminary consideration of the subject and with the prospect of another division of jurisdiction between the senate judiciary and interstate commerce committees it was pointed out that joint hearings could not be conducted without considerable difficulty. Democrats of the senate interstate commerce committee were inclined to insist that all the trust measures be referred to them when the bills are introduced in the upper branch.

Exchange Views.

Representatives Clayton, Carlin and Floyd, of the judiciary subcommittee, conferred with Senator Newlands and other democrats of the interstate commerce committee, including Senators Smith of South Carolina, Pomeroy, Thomas, Myers, Robinson, Salsbury and Thompson, tonight.

"We are exchanging views," said Representative Carlin, "going over the bills with a view to determining where they may be improved and to insure harmonious action upon any changes that may be suggested."

Members of both committees after discussing the question of making the bills party measures through caucus action expressed the hope that it would not be necessary to handle them in this way, as was done with the tariff and currency bills. In this connection, Senator Newlands, pointed out that all minority members would be given an opportunity to participate in deliberations on the bill at hearings and through consultation with the committees.

Another joint conference of the house and senate committees will be held tomorrow.

Nebraska Woman Ends Life Because Can't Love Husband

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—The tragic story of a bride who killed herself because she could not return her husband's affections was related today at the inquest in the suicide of Mrs. Mabel Johnson.

The strange girl wife from Alliance, Neb., lived and died a victim of a dual personality to which she could not reconcile her married life. Living at 847 East Sixty-fourth street, with no friends to divert her gloomily inclined mind, she brooded until escape was found only in a bullet. In a note to her husband, Clyde Johnson, a draughtsman, she wrote in part:

Forgive me, my dear, loving husband. For a month you have been the dearest and most loving husband, and on for how many years a true and true love. Dearest, my mind left me the sleepless night I spent before we were married. My mind is growing more blank every day, and I have no joy whatever when you clasp me in your arms."

ALLIANCE, Neb., Jan. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Word was received today of the death in Chicago of Mrs. Clyde T. Johnson, formerly Mabel Crawford, a school teacher of this county. The couple were married here only a few weeks ago and went to Chicago to make their home.

Giant White Radish is Shipped to Bryan

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 24.—A white radish, three feet high, thirty-six inches in circumference and weighing twelve pounds, was forwarded today from Los Angeles to William J. Bryan, secretary of state at Washington.

The radish, which is said to be the largest ever produced in southern California, was discovered by the secretary of a produce concern, who, knowing Mr. Bryan's fondness for white radishes, decided to ship it to him.

The vegetable was grown by Japanese truck gardeners and is 1 year old.

STABS UNRELENTING WIFE

Mrs. Mike McCue Refuses to Withdraw Suit for Divorce.

FOLLOWS HER WITH DEMANDS

Insists that She Live with Him and Plunge Knife Into Her When She Refuses—Given Aid by the Police.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 24.—(Special Telegram.)—Stabbed by her husband when she refused to withdraw a divorce action against him, Mrs. Mike McCue staggered to the police station where she filed a charge of assault with intent to murder against him. Then she nearly collapsed and was attended by police surgeons.

The stabbing occurred on the fourth floor of the Iowa Loan and Trust building. McCue, she alleges, followed her from her work and demanded that she live with him. She refused. He then ordered her to drop her suit against him. Again she refused.

With that the man drew a knife from his pocket and leaped toward her. The blade struck her in the breast and on the left hand. She reeled and then ran screaming from the building. McCue followed and was seized and held by passing pedestrians. The police arrested him.

Mrs. McCue then went to the central station. It was found that the wound in her breast was not serious.

Bill of Lading Reform Assured.
Judge Henderson, commerce counsel, on his return from Chicago and Washington, announced that a very satisfactory conclusion has been reached as between shippers and the railroads for a material change in the uniform bill of lading with regard to the time limit for filing claims. The present time limit is four days for domestic and thirty days for export shipments. But for years little attention has been paid to the time limit, until recently when, under court decision, it has seemed to be necessary to do so. As a result many shippers, and a large number in Iowa, have been embarrassed by finding their claims disposed of for lack of failure to file within the time limit. Now it is agreed, first, that the export and domestic time limit shall be the same; second, that at least six months be given as the uniform time limit, and third, that as to the pending claims barred by the limit all shall be considered that are filed prior to April 1 next. This affects shippers over the country and thousands of claims which are now held up. The commerce counsel has received in recent months a great many inquiries as to these barred claims indicating that Iowa shippers stood to lose heavily unless this agreement was made. It will be for the Interstate Commerce commission, however, to have the last word on the subject.

Thorne Candidate Again.
Clifford Thorne, present chairman of the Iowa railroad commission, today secured blanks for nomination papers as a candidate for railroad commissioner to succeed himself. He has no time on any doubt as to asking a second term, but had refrained from taking action until now. It is probable he will not be opposed. His great success in the matter of adjusting freight rates for Iowa people, with which the Iowa commission has been concerned the past year, has given him the active support of all the commercial interests of the state. John R. Carter, Sioux City, has taken out papers as a candidate for district judge.

Way Related to Interstate Colony.
The failure of the owners of the Flynn farm near Des Moines to make good on the conditions which the State Board of Control imposed makes it almost certain that the whole subject of the location will be reopened. One of the conditions was that a guaranty be made that the Interurban line from Des Moines be extended to the farm and a station be established on the farm. On the branch of the Interurban runs in the direction of the farm and could easily be extended, but the owners of the Interurban are the same as the owners of the city street railway and they insist they will not make any promise as to the extension until they are also assured of a franchise for operating their street cars in Des Moines. Under the circumstances, unless individuals interested will make the guaranty a trolley line to the farm, the state will probably go elsewhere for an epileptic colony farm. The price to be paid for the farm is $200,000. The Milwaukee railroad would build a station on the farm, as it has two tracks leading there.

Fraud in Land Sale Not Upheld.
The supreme court refused to uphold a fraud in a land deal by which an Iowa farmer lost on a trade for Kansas land. The plaintiff in the case had owned 230 acres in Davis county worth $40 an acre, which he traded for 240 in Kansas at the price of $20 an acre. It was shown on the trial that the land which he got was not the farm which was shown to him, and that the land which he got was only worth about $10 an acre. The court awarded him $1,500 for the fraud and the supreme court upheld the award.

Plans are Under way here for holding a school of instruction or short course in equal suffrage agitation for the benefit of the women of Iowa who expect to take a hand in the movement to secure ballots for the women. Among those who would conduct the school to be held in the spring are Mrs. Ella Stewart of Illinois, Mrs. Helen G. Hall of New York, Mrs. Edward Porritt of Connecticut and Miss Veda Barnett of New York.

Modern Woodmen Rates.
The law committee of the Iowa Modern Woodmen assembly in an opinion handed in yesterday at the reported request of the insurgent wing of the Modern Woodmen lodge in Iowa held that since Judge Bradshaw granted an injunction against enforcement of the Chicago head camp rates, the Modern Woodmen of America have been in operation without a legal rate schedule.

Thus if the holding of the Iowa and Illinois courts should be sustained by the supreme court of those states the Modern Woodmen would have no legal

CHARGES BURN INTO SPEER

Judge Rises and Attempts to Address Probing Committee.

TALKS OF MISREPRESENTATIONS

Federal District Attorney Asserts Jurist Mentally Unbalanced and Showed Favoritism in Deciding Cases.

MAISON, Ga., Jan. 24.—Retort of charges that Federal Judge Emory Speer was mentally unbalanced and showed favoritism in deciding cases before his court, brought Judge Speer to his feet with a vigorous protest today at the hearing before the congressional committee investigating allegations against the jurist's official conduct. It was the first time he had attempted to address the committee.

The outburst followed a declaration by Alexander Akerman, United States district attorney, that the judge had delivered a charge to a jury antagonistic to the government.

"Your honors," Judge Speer exclaimed, "if you please, I have sat quietly here and listened to misrepresentations which have been heaped upon me—"

Chairman Webb interrupted to insist that the judge allow his counsel to conduct his case. Judge Speer said he was a lawyer himself and asked to be allowed to read the jury charge referred to, but Representative Webb said the matter would be considered later.

Mr. Akerman recited instances in an effort to demonstrate that Judge Speer's mind was impaired and swore that the judge had allowed excessive fees to his son-in-law's law firm in bankruptcy cases.

Definite action upon this request will be taken up by the commission about the middle of March.

Foreign Notes

The River Plate Fresh Meat company and James Nelson & Sons of London, two of the largest British concerns in the meat trade, have amalgamated. The amalgamation was brought about, it is said, in order effectively to fight the invasion of Great Britain by American meat concerns.

The extraordinary cold weather experienced during the last four weeks and which shows no signs of abating, has caused the price of food in Paris to rise from 50 to 60 per cent above the ordinary. Potatoes bring nearly double their usual value, while fresh vegetables cost from four to six times the regular price.

Armed guards had to be called into the lower house of the Hungarian Parliament at Budapest yesterday, to elect irregular members of the opposition during a debate on the press reform law.
