TUBERCULOSIS BEING CONQUERED

MRS. LAURA PAYNE Valley Junction, Ia., July 30, 1912. "To the Public: I wish to express my thanks for what Nature's Creation has done for me. I had what I thought was just a bad cold, but didn't get any better. I took almost every kind of cough medicine. My lungs pained me so and I had had fever and chills and night sweats. I went to see a doctor and he told me the only medicine that would give me any good was to be out of doors all the time. A lady friend of mine came to see me and told me about Nature's Creation. I also saw in the paper what it had done for others. I got a bottle and felt so much better. I took four bottles. I now feel well and strong and am recommending the medicine as I go along. Yours truly, MRS. LAURA PAYNE, 167 7th Street."

MARMON The Easiest Riding Car in the World

Lubrication---

No motor is better than its oiling system.

You can either know what is taking place in the matter of oiling within the motor or you can hope that it is being done properly.

One car (name above) originated the automatic force feed system by which the oil is pumped through hollow shafts, direct to the main, connecting rod and piston pin bearings.

Ten years of use in the car named have proved this the most reliable, efficient and economical of all methods of motor lubrication.

This is one of a series of talks on how to buy an automobile. The complete series containing a wealth of valuable information may be had in booklet form by asking—

Family Row Aired in the Police Court Shows Bad Mixup

Julius Jaya, Tenth and Nicholas streets, was brought before Judge Foster charged with assault and battery upon the person of his aged father-in-law, Frank Koback, 1115 North Eleventh street.

Jaya, who is employed at the smelter, testified that he and his wife have three small children to support and the added burden of the grandparents, with their 16-year-old daughter, Grace, would be out of the question. A few weeks ago, threatening for her husband, Jaya, if she testified against him, Koback had the man sentenced to ninety days in jail on a charge of beating and abusing his family.

In the meantime Grace had appropriated the Jaya furniture and removed it to his own home. Jaya's attempts to recover his property led to the old man turning himself in Monday morning and seeking out his son-in-law.

In the meantime Grace had preceded her father and warned Jaya of his approach. Koback ran toward his son-in-law, pulling the trigger of one of the revolvers as he ran. The gun refused to go off and Jaya, hurling himself upon Koback, disarmed him and administered a severe beating. In police court Jaya was defended by Julius S. Cooley, who secured a suspended sentence of ninety days for his client. Koback was warned to keep away from his son-in-law, and expressed his intention of moving out of town. Grace Koback testified in court against her father.

John Birze, Laborer, is Perhaps Fatally Injured Under Train

John Birze, laborer, 141 North Sixteenth street, was perhaps fatally injured yesterday under a freight train at Thirteenth and Blondo streets, when his legs were cut off, his hands badly lacerated and his skull crushed.

Birze is 36 years of age, employed at the Omaha road roughing, Thirteenth and Madison streets, and was on his way to his work when the accident occurred. He had ridden part of the way when he fell from the side of the third car and was run over by eight cars before the train was stopped.

An emergency call was sent the police and after being given immediate treatment by Dr. R. E. Harris he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where but little hope is held out for his recovery.

Police Officers Are Not to Hold Back Information

A letter from Chief Dunn to the three captains of the police department was received at police headquarters, to the effect that a certain officer on the force was possessed of information that would have led to the arrest of the McVoy bandits last week, and because he thought it of "no use" did not make known his information.

STUDENTS AT THE HIGH SCHOOL FACING EXAMS

With pale and frightened expression and numerous "cramp" books under their arms, Central High school students nervously wend their way to and from the "slaughter" this week. For this is the time of final examinations for the term and judging from reports on the severity of the tests, the pupils really should worry.

The quizzes started Monday and continue till Thursday and the progress of the pupils from one grade to another will depend in large part upon getting good marks. Friday the programs of classes for the next term will be given out, and the work in them will commence next Monday.

Eat Less Meat If Back Hurts

Take glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Advertisement.

Collier Promises in Writing Not to Again Beat Wife

"Because I would not do as he wished, Joe came home a few nights ago and beat me, and with a 2-week-old baby to care for and barely a scrap of food in the house," was part of the testimony submitted by Mrs. Joseph Collier, Fortieth street and Redick avenue, against her husband, whom she had arrested in police court on a charge of non-support.

Testifying that her husband had only contributed $4 in sums of from 10 to 25 cents at a time, toward her support within the last eight weeks, Mrs. Collier unfolded a story of neglect and abuse which caused her husband, a man considerably over six feet in height, to hang his head before the court. In her story she stated that Collier would come home about every third night and abuse her, and would make no attempt to care for her during her period of confinement.

Despite this fact, she agreed to "take back" Joe for the baby's sake if he would promise not to drink any more and would help her a bit about the home until she became stronger. Judge Foster administered a lecture to Collier and secured his written promise to make right as near as possible the wrong he had done. Husband and wife left the court room together.

Ure Says He Saves Money by Buying Up Old City Warrants

In his annual report for the year 1913, made to the city commission, Treasurer W. G. Ure says he has saved the taxpayers that amount of $65,000 by the purchase of outstanding warrants with funds from divers improvement districts. He says that January 1, 1915, will mark a new epoch in the history of warrants, for none dating back of 1910 will then be outstanding. When Mr. Ure assumed office the warrants unpaid and bearing interest dated back fifteen years.

BUILDING ON SIXTEENTH STREET IS ORDERED DOWN

A two story brick building, constructed in 1880 at 602-10 North Sixteenth street, has been condemned by Building Inspector Lee Bridges and the city commissioners have notified the owner, George C. Hobbie, to appear at the city hall, February 11, and show cause, if any, why the building should not be torn down. The building, the inspector says, has been in a dangerous condition for fourteen years. The second story has been abandoned. An iron rod has prevented the building from falling down, having been used as a brace for years, according to the inspector.

Don't Neglect Catarrh. or resort to snuff and vapors—they only irritate the delicate membranes. Modern science proves catarrh a symptom of poor health. Treat the cause with SCOTT'S EMULSION which contains pure cod liver oil to enrich the blood and energize the system, hypophosphites to nourish and rebuild the nerves, and glycerine to soothe and heal. Thousands testify that Scott's Emulsion overcame catarrh in a permanent, natural way and it will surely help you. Avoid the alcoholic substitutes.

HITCHCOCK AGAINST PLAN

Word Reaches Omaha that Senator Will Not Support Prohibition.

NORRIS IS RIGHT IN LINE

In Answer to Letter from Anti-Saloon League He Says that He is Likely to Cast Vote in Favor of Issue.

Senator G. M. Hitchcock will not support the nation-wide prohibition movement when it comes before congress for a constitutional amendment, according to word received from him by a member of the Anti-Saloon league. Senator George W. Norris is likely to support it, according to a letter from him, also written in reply to an inquiry from Anti-Saloon league forces.

Since the National Anti-Saloon league decide that nothing but nation-wide prohibition by constitutional amendment would satisfy them, letters and telegrams have been piling up on the desks of the congressmen and senators at Washington, asking them what stand they will take when the matter comes up. Some are endeavoring to avoid taking a stand on the issue until it comes up. Many of those interested, however, on both sides of the question are pressing them for a promise.

It was thus that replies were drawn from both Norris and Hitchcock. Hitchcock's reply was that he would not support the proposed prohibition amendment. Norris' reply was that he had voted for other temperance measures in the United States senate, and that in all probability he would support this when it comes up. It is predicted that this is a question that will cause many in congress to endeavor sidestepping in order to avoid the wrath of either wing of their constituents at home.

Fair Test of Strength. The Webb-Kenyon bill passed last year looked upon by the Anti-Saloon league as a pretty fair test of strength. This is the law that is to prohibit the interstate shipment of liquors which are to be used for illegal purposes. It was passed by a two-thirds vote of both houses over President Taft's veto. The liquor forces maintain, however, that it is not a fair test of strength, as many would vote for the Webb-Kenyon bill that would never think of voting for prohibition nation wide.
