North Carolina Supreme Chief Justice Hits "Judicial Oligarchy."

CONTROL IN HANDS OF THE FEW

Judge Declares Power of Government, State and Nation, at Feet of Clique Composed of Lawyers of Country.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.-Declaring that all the power of government, both federal and state, lies at the feet of a "judicial oligarchy" composed of the lawyers of the United States, Chief Justice Walter Clark of the North Carolina supreme court, addressing a meeting of the People's institute at Cooper Union tonight, warned his fellow-jurists throughout the country to take heed lest their power prove their own undeing. Justice Chrk's theme was "Government by Judges." In part be said: "In this country as in all countries, the control of the government is in the hands of the few. We have learned that the form of governments amounts to little. The real question is 'Where does the control of the government reside."

"The overwhelming preponderance of the judiciary was unexpectedly created in 1803 by a decision of the supreme court of the United States without a line in the constitution to authorize it, when that body assumed the right to veto any act of congress they chose to hold unconstitutional.

"This doctrine was promptly seized upon as a boon by the special interests and by all who believed at heart in the government of the many for the benefit of the few. It practically has made the courts the deminant power in every state in the union. Whenever any progressive statute has not been in accord with the ecocomic views entertained by the courts. they have generally exercised their power to declare such statute unconstitutional, because it was not 'Due process of law.'
