

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Bull Crowds Takes on Heavy Load of Yellow Cereal.

WHEAT TAKES NEW STRENGTH

Small Grain is Showing Increased Stability as a Result of the Unexpected Turn in the Corn Market.

OMAHA, Jan. 29, 1914.

The old bull crowd is again in corn, and in a big way. Not only the Patten crowd, but the room speculators are as usual when it comes to the probable course of corn prices in the future.

And while there are strong men on the bull side of corn, there is a coterie of speculators in the market who are selling freely on all sides and are enabled to show to the casual observer that corn is not only likely to be much too high in this campaign, but that it is now in a top heavy position.

A great deal of the strength shown by the wheat market was taken from corn. In addition to the fact that the outlook for cold weather throughout the winter wheat belt, and the fact that the young plant is unprotected by snow, is a factor in Kansas, Nebraska, and other states where winter wheat is raised.

The further depression in provisions and the selling in the east for days past, the result of action on the part of the larger packers, who know that unless wheat is sold in the east for a profit, the holders of the big line of ribs and lamb, through the house of Knight McDougall, have refused to sell to this time in the present weather.

Cash wheat unchanged to 1/4 higher. Cash corn was unchanged to 1/4 higher. Cash oats were 1/4 higher. Cash beans, 1/4 higher. Cash peas, 1/4 higher. Cash lentils, 1/4 higher.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Shows Under Steady Pressure

IRREGULARITY SHOWN AT FIRST

Tone Becomes Distinctly Heavy as Session Advances-Southern Pacific's December Statement Exceptionally Poor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.-The stock market gave way today under pressure steadily by professional operators.

The beginning of trading the movement was confused and irregular, but as the session advanced the tone became distinctly heavy. Reading and Steel were singled out for bear attacks, and the Central Southern Pacific, Smelting and a few other representative issues, at times showed a bullish reaction.

The trading element was changed on the short side. In fact, speculative opinion for several days has inclined to the belief that a substantial reaction was due as a natural sequence to the recent advance, but outside buying has continued in sufficient volume to retard the movement.

Today the shorts were assisted by various new indices of an unfavorable nature. Denial that Reading was considering segregation of its coal property, which might have bestowed valuable rights upon its stockholders, according to the December statement was exceptionally poor.

It is probable the decline would have been more severe had it not been for extensive purchases here of foreign account. Both London and the continent were in the market for stocks, taking advantage of the present advance.

Improvement in sentiment abroad was associated with reduction of the English and French bank rates. An exchange change as a drop of 1 per cent in the English rate ordinarily would be expected to result in a decline here, but even such striking evidence of improving monetary conditions was ineffective against the prevailing tone of speculative sentiment.

Holds moved uncertainly. Total sales, $1,000,000. Panama 3c, registered advance on 1/2. Number of sales and leading quotations on stocks were:

RURAL CREDIT BILLS READY

Measures Introduced at Same Time in House and Senate.

PROVIDES FOR LOCAL BANKS

Institutions May Issue Bonds and Loan Proceeds to Farmers on Long Time-May Also Receive Some Deposits.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.-Administration rural credit bills were introduced simultaneously in the senate and house today by Senator Fletcher of Florida and Representative Moss of Indiana, members of the commission President Wilson sent abroad last summer to study the foreign systems.

The bills today were for long term farm loans, but for short term loans will be introduced later. The introduction was a sequel to yesterday's conference at the White House.

Today's measures would establish in the Treasury department a bureau of farm land banks under the direction of a commissioner and make provision for the formation of such banks in any state under federal charter and federal inspection.

Any group of farmers within a state might organize co-operative farm land banks with power to issue bonds to raise funds from distant money markets for farm development operations of the individual banks would be confined within the state lines, though supervision will be federal, owing to the variety of state laws bearing on land titles, taxation, foreclosure and like subjects. They would be strictly prohibited from doing "a city business."

Loan to farmers might not exceed 10 per cent of the value of improved land, nor extend more than thirty-five years. No institution could begin business without a foundation capital and double liability provided for national banks. The amount of long term business which might be undertaken by any of the proposed banks could not exceed fifteen times the amount of paid-up share capital and surplus.

The report submitted with the bill was drafted by Senator Fletcher, chairman, Representative Moss of Indiana, Dr. John Lee Coulter of Minnesota, representing the census bureau, and other members of the rural credit commission.

Militant Women Force Archbishop to Give Hearing. LONDON, Jan. 29.-A band of militant suffragettes today besieged the Archbishop of Canterbury, the English primate, in Lambeth palace and eventually forced him to capitulate and receive one of their number in order to discuss the question of forcible feeding.

The women were headed by Mrs. Dacey-Fox. It took them upwards of an hour to obtain admission to the old palace on the banks of the Thames, a little above Westminster.

The declined to listen to any attempt on the part of those within to temporize. Finally the archbishop, seeing the futility of trying to escape from his obstinate blockaders, allowed Mrs. Dacey-Fox to enter.

The head of the church of England listened sympathetically to the suffragettes' appeals, but he refused definitely to commit himself.

Mrs. Dacey-Fox told the primate that if he believed in the suffragettes, he would have to be a real Christian. She said he had to use only his personal influence to put an end to the system of forcible feeding.

The archbishop said that he received daily protests from all sections of the community against forcible feeding, but declared that he could not give a definite answer to the suffragettes' appeal until he had heard the other side fully. He continued:

"All I can promise is to give my earnest consideration of the matter." Mrs. Dacey-Fox thereupon informed Archbishop Davidson that she was profoundly disappointed with his reply. She presented him with a copy of the suffragette newspaper and also with Mrs. Christabel Pankhurst's book and she hoped his personal of them would open his eyes to the necessity for action.

Receivership of Wabash Probably Will Be Raised Soon. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 29.-Application for the dissolution of the receivership of the Wabash railroad and for a decree of foreclosure was made to Elmer R. Adams, United States circuit judge, here today by attorneys representing the bondholders, the Equitable Trust company of New York, trustee, and the receivers. Judge Adams took the application under advisement. The foreclosure, if it takes place, is to be under a mortgage of $1,529,000 to secure issues of refunding and equipment bonds. Judge Adams' final foreclosure decree will take effect in ten days. Lawrence Greer and George Murray, representing the Equitable Trust company of New York City, the largest bondholders of the railroad, submitted to Federal Judge Adams a form of foreclosure decree, which, if granted, will order the sale of the Wabash properties at auction unless the $1,529,000 mortgage held by the Equitable company is paid within five days.
