Bungalows Laurelton

By far the prettiest bungalows on the market are in Laurelton addition, one block south of Miller Park and west of 24th Street. These bungalows are built along the lines of the California bungalow, of frame and stucco. Have 5 and 6 ruoms and are very warm and well built. The outside studdings are covered with matched shiplap, heavy tar felt and siding or stucco.

matched shiplap, heavy tar felt and siding or stucco.

They have built-in bookcases and buffets, splendid basements and finished attics. Modern, complete and up-to-date in every sense of the word. Will be finished in oak with oak floors. Beautiful lighting fixtures, decorated walls, shades on the windows, and, in fact, when completed will be ready for housekeeping without any additional expense. The lots are large and all of the street improvements are paid for, and the buyer is protected by building restrictions. These bouses are being built just as good as they can possibly be built. They are in the newest and best addition and the surroundings could not be better. Very close to car line, one block from Miller Park school. Prices are from $3,200 to $3,850 Reasonable terms can be arranged with good parties. By buying now you can have your selection of color and interior
