Y.M.C.A. Band Scores With Fine Concert

A concert given last night by the military band of the Young Men's Christian association made a big hit with the large crowd attending, and demonstrated what can be done in such an organization in a short time, when it is properly conducted and the members are skilled and in earnest. The band was formed only last October, yet now includes over sixty talented musicians, and is one of the best features and assets of the association.

Last night's entertainment was given in the big gymnasium, which was well filled. The band rendered half a dozen selections and as many encores. Assisting were Miss Martha Gryn, soprano; James E. Carnal, basso, and the Immanuel choir of thirty voices, all of whom proved most pleasing.

Dr. A. D. Laird, director of the band, scored heavily with a cornet solo. He was soloist with leading orchestras for many years.

AFTER SICKNESS OR OPERATION

It is a pathetic mistake to accept drugs or alcoholic mixtures when nature craves nourishment to repair the wasted body and restore the vigor of health. For forty years the best physicians have relied on the wholesome predigestion in SCOTT'S EMULSION which is totally free from alcohol or opiates.

Scott's Emulsion sharpens the appetite—renews blood—nourishes nerves—strengthens bones and restores the courage of health to make life bright.

Scott's Emulsion sets in action the very forces that promote health. Its purity, richness and strength has stood the test of forty years.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Lincoln Held Up as Model for Present Day Student.

TALK BY SUPERINTENDENT

Cites Need of Such Diligence Among Students Now as Was Employed by the Young Lincoln.

Lincoln's total schooling did not cover more than one year, according to Superintendent N. M. Graham, who addressed the students of the South Omaha High school yesterday at a mass meeting. Superintendent Graham said Lincoln under adverse circumstances had done more studying than the students of today with every school equipment. He said Lincoln's example should put the modern student to shame. Lincoln was a man of deeds and of few words.

Superintendent Graham cited the need of men today in forming the policies of the country and brought the students to address themselves to their duties with the intention of fitting themselves for the problems of afterlife. The speaker referred in impressive terms to the work of the national administration. He concluded his address by reciting Lincoln's Gettysburg address. About 800 students were present.

Work in Glup's Behalf. Charles Glupe, the young white man who shot and dangerously wounded Mace Wynne, a negro, Wednesday, is held to be the victim of bad whisky administered under fear, according to a theory growing at the police station. Glupe's father and retained Attorney Dean Ringer. According to the story told at the police station, Glupe was asked to drink by four negroes, whom he was afraid to refuse to drink with. He is said to have taken four drinks of what the police term "quiritel whiskey," and then lost his mind. He maintains, and with every show of sincerity, that he remembers nothing of the shooting. When shown the gun he readily identified the weapon as his, but could not remember that he had used it Wednesday. His sister, with whom he took refuge, stated that he had failed to recognize her when he called at her home after the shooting.

Glupe has a wife and four children. One of the children is a paralytic. He has a fair reputation for industry and Attorney Ringer stated yesterday that an effort was being made to get bonds for the accused so that he might return to his employment at the Union Stock yards.

U. S. Lieutenant in Vera Cruz Shot, but Only Slightly Hurt

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Feb. 13.—An attempt was made late last night to assassinate Lieutenant Arthur B. Cook, first lieutenant in Rear Admiral Mayo, of the United States battleship Connecticut. Lieutenant Cook, although struck by a bullet was only slightly hurt. His assailant was not seen.

The lieutenant accompanied by his wife, and Miss Ethel McKenzie of Philadelphia, had been dining with Admiral Mayo aboard the flagship. The party took a carriage to drive to the steamer Morro Cansule were to sail today. Lieutenant Cook, conspicuous in full dress white uniform with gold epaulets and heavy gold cords, sat with his back to the driver.

The party was proceeding down a side street, when a sharp detonation was heard, and Lieutenant Cook felt a sharp shock on the left hip. Lieutenant Cook found a small object on the carriage cushion which proved to be a steel jacketed .38 caliber bullet, of the type used in pocket automatic pistols. The bullet had inflicted a bruise on his hip.

Beyond doubt, the bullet, which was fired at a short distance, was spent, having lost its velocity by passing through the woodwork of the carriage. Whoever fired the shot must have fled immediately apparently without having attracted attention.

Steamer Ashore on the Peaked Hill Bar

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Feb. 13.—The Peaked Hill life saving station reported this afternoon that a steamer was ashore on the Peaked Hill bar, half a mile off the beach. A violent gale is blowing and the temperature is zero.

The point where the steamer struck is the most dangerous on the cape. There was no heavy that the life savers could not launch their boat.
