

What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Calendar. SUNDAY—Vesper service. Young Women's Christian association, 4:30 p. m. Club study club, Miss Pauline C. Rosenberg, leader; Research club, St. Berchman's academy, 7 p. m.

WASHINGTON'S birthday will be observed by the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution at a banquet to be held Monday evening, February 23, at a place to be designated later.

The woman's club of the Railway Mail Service will entertain at a unique patriotic party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. L. Frantz.

The musical department of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae meets Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert G. Woodland. Franz Liszt will be the subject for study.

At a meeting of the Wyche Story Tellers' league held Thursday, Miss Abigail Manning was elected president and Miss Mary Krebs secretary-treasurer.

The Miller Park Mothers' circle met Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium of the Miller Park school. Prof. C. E. Reed of the Omaha High school read the paper on "Vocational Training."

The home economics department of the South Omaha Woman's club will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Jay Laverty. Miss Nava Turner of the domestic science department of the Omaha High school, will talk on "Milk and Eggs."

The Omaha Story Tellers' league will meet Thursday, at the public library. Miss Jeanette Newlin, leader of the program, will tell the first story, the "Perfect Tribute." Mrs. Philip West will tell the "Wonders of Saint Berach"; Mrs. Steven Davies, a selected story, and Miss Sarah Sarnon, "Yvonne and Pinette."

Sisters Who Announce Engagements

Sophia Alpersen

Mattie Alpersen

Photos by Rembrandt Studio

Omaha Delegates to the D. A. R. Convention

Mrs. S. W. Griffith

Mrs. J. W. Griffith was elected delegate and Mrs. C. M. Wilhelm, regent, go to the Continental congress in Washington, D. C., on Monday.

Rosenberg, "Land of Heart's Desire" by Yeats, is the drama to be studied. A comparison of Yeats and Synge will be made by Miss Fannie Grodzinsky; the story and criticism will be given by Miss Rosenberg, and Yeats, as representative of the symbolic movement, by Miss Mario Gordon.

A regular meeting of U. S. Grant Woman's Relief corps No. 104 will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock, at Memorial hall. All members are urged to be present, as a special meeting will follow immediately.

The Sunshine club of the George A. Custer Woman's Relief corps will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles G. Everson.

Chapter E of the P. E. O. society will entertain the husbands and friends of the members at the Prairie Park club Thursday evening.

The following chairmen of committees were appointed at a meeting of the board of directors of the Young Women's Christian association Wednesday: Bible study, Mrs. D. L. Johnson; devotional meetings, Mrs. F. M. Bristol; foreign work, Mrs. Emerson Benedict; educational, Miss Emma Wheatley; physical education, Mrs. D. C. Dodds; library, Mrs. C. B. Stone; extension, Miss Beulah Evans; for young girls, Mrs. G. F. Gilmore; house, Mrs. G. W. Wickersham; lunch room, Mrs. Frank Walters; membership, Mrs. A. L. Patrick; boarding, employment and travelers' aid, Mrs. F. B. Lowe; social, Miss Georgia Trimble; finance, Mrs. H. J. Kirschstein; summer home, Mrs. J. P. Lord. The newly elected officers are Mrs. J. M. Aiken, president; Mrs. M. B. Copeland, Mrs. J. J. Lord and Mrs. Frank Walters, first, second and third vice presidents; Mrs. Edward Johnson, recording secretary; Mrs. Ellen Koch, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. G. F. Gilmore, treasurer.

Hull House, the most famous center of social work in the country, has been designated as a polling place for the voters of that precinct of the Nineteenth ward of Chicago. Aldermen Powers and Bowler vigorously opposed the designation of Hull House, on the grounds that it is the residence of Jane Addams, who is one of the 63 women judges of election already appointed. County Judge Owens, however, refused to change the location. More than half of the 21,000 signatures needed to submit the woman suffrage amendment in Missouri have been ac-only being in sympathy with, but morally supporting every effort for civic righteousness.

The Sermo club will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Bergen. Following a 1 o'clock luncheon, the regular program will be given. Mrs. C. W. Bergen will give items of current events and papers will be read on the general topic, "Plant Life." Mrs. T. A. Thomason's paper will deal with the cultivation of mushrooms; Mrs. J. E. Goodrich, cereals, and Miss Lillian Gwinn, fibers.

The Benson Woman's club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. L. Ewing, when a general discussion on civil service was led by Mrs. F. H. Cole of Omaha.

The women of the Benson Presbyterian church served the second of a series of "turkey dinners" on Thursday evening. This was followed by another one on Friday evening.

The Benson Baptist Missionary circle will hold its first home missionary meeting on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. A. Jean.

The first edition of "Every Child's Magazine," of which Miss Grace Sorenson is editor, will be issued Friday of this week. This is the only child's magazine in this part of the country. Prof. Lawrence Bruner of the University of Nebraska will contribute a series of nature studies for this paper.

Mr. Hamlin Garland, writer and artist who comes here under the auspices of the progressive party, will address the Omaha suffrage association on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the council chamber of the city hall.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. The gymnasium girls will have charge of the vesper service at the Young Women's Christian association at 4:30 Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Brewster, the physical director of the association, will give the talk of the afternoon on "Half Dead," sewing or cooking in gymnasium. All everyone will be very cordially welcomed.

The new classes began very enthusiastically last week. Registrations may be made in practically all departments, except some domestic classes, which are filled. Anyone interested in millinery, sewing or cooking in gymnasium, in English of all kinds, French, German, chorus, dramatic clubs, etc., may obtain full particulars by phoning or inquiring at the association office.

Persistent advertising is the sure road to business success.

Omaha Printers Will Give Reception and Ball Tuesday

A reception, dance and card party has been arranged by Omaha Typographical union No. 199 for Tuesday evening, February 17, at Burtch hall, Nineteenth and Farnam streets. Invitations have been mailed to all employing printers of Omaha and South Omaha and it is expected that there will be between 60 and 800 people in attendance.

A special feature for the occasion is that the program provides for one old-time quadrille and one Virginia reel, to give the old "Missouri river pirates" an opportunity to demonstrate to the tangosts that "those were the good old days." Following is the reception committee appointed for the affair: Messrs.—T. W. McCullough, W. J. Scott, E. G. Hixson, George E. Eddy, Hon. C. D. Traphagen, manager of the State Journal company, Lincoln, has accepted an invitation to make the only address of the evening, and has chosen for his subject "Better Employers and Better Employees." Three connecting halls have been engaged to accommodate those attending, and a five-piece orchestra will dispense the music for the evening.

WEDDINGS TO PRECEDE LENT

Miss Harding, February Bride-to-Be, Much Entertained.

MANY GRAND OPERA PARTIES Auto Show Will Set Apart a Special Night for Societies—Omaha People Seek Warmy Chimes for Winter.

Another dance to be given at Turpin's dancing academy later in the month. The dances given by both departments have been highly successful this year.

Dinner at Loyal. The Saturday Bridge Dinner club will entertain at dinner at the Loyal hotel Monday evening, followed by a brandied whiskey party, to see the "Garden of Allah." The members of the club are: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Andrews of Council Bluffs; Mr. and Mrs. John H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winheim, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. John Stuben, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith.

Birthday Surprise. A surprise birthday party in honor of Mr. Stanley Smith was given at his home Thursday evening. Those present were: Misses—Rose Koehmeister, Edna Walker, Jennie Smith, Nellie Keyser, Grace Hanson, Lydia Anderson, Blanche Keyser, Caroline Anderson, Messrs.—George Hagerman, Alfred White, Dennis Ryan, George Wells, Thomas Dierks, Claude Wells, Jack Riggs, Herbert Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smith.

Alumni Entertainment. The alumni of the High School of Commerce held its second meeting Thursday evening at Jacobs Hall, which was decorated in the national colors and in the class colors, old rose and silver. School pennants were also used in the decorations and at one end of the hall was a large picture of Abraham Lincoln. Games, the initiation of new members, dancing and refreshments furnished the entertainment of the evening. Prizes were won by Elizabeth Watson and Julius Arkin. Mr. Rasmussen, principal of the High School of Commerce, gave a brief talk in which he spoke of the purpose and perfection of an alumni.

Afternoon Bridge. Miss Kathryn McClanahan entertained at bridge this afternoon at her home in honor of Miss Heth Vall of Hancock, Mich., guest of Mrs. Martha Heth. Five tables were placed for the game.

Auction Bridge Party. Mrs. Charles S. Elgutter entertained at an auction bridge party Friday afternoon in honor of the visiting guests. The Valentine idea was carried out in the decorations and confections. Four tables were placed for the game.

In and Out of the Bee Hive. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Van Husen leave today for Los Angeles, Cal. Miss Magnolia Haynes will arrive today to visit her sister, Mrs. A. M. Longwell, at the Bachelors hotel for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levy and their daughter, Mrs. Daniel Korn, of New York, will leave Sunday evening for French Lick Springs, Ind., where Mr. Korn will join them. Mr. Norris Tym arrived today from the University of Nebraska to spend the week-end with his parents. He will return to Lincoln Monday evening, there being no session Monday because of the observance of Charter day.

Personal Mention. A daughter was born to Captain and Mrs. Walter Harvey at Fort Lawton, Wash., January 30. Mrs. Harvey was formerly Miss Josephine Young of this city.

Joseph Meyers Keeps Marriage License Six Weeks Before Using

For the last six weeks Joseph Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Meyer, has been carrying around in his inside vest pocket one perfectly good marriage license, giving him full right to wed Miss Luciel Bonoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bonoff. But no thought was given to such a proceeding, as Mr. Meyer is known to be a romantic soul and beyond the fact that he was enjoying the supreme happiness of a near betrothal, no significance was placed on the extraordinary procedure.

Pastor of North Side Christian Church Resigns

Rev. H. J. Kirschstein, for ten years pastor of the North Side Christian church, has resigned from his charge and plans to seek recuperation from the strain and strenuousness of his pastoral experience by engaging in life insurance work for a time. His congregation has voted unanimously not to accept his resignation and has offered him a trip to Florida, a six months' vacation, and a raise in salary if he will remain as their minister. Rev. Mr. Kirschstein declines, however, that he must persist in his plan, as he feels the imperative need of a rest and change of occupation for a while, if he is to retain his health.

O'BRIEN SENDS OUT STOCK TO BUILD UP HIS RANCH

T. J. O'Brien will soon make a trip to his McPherson county ranch with a shipment of cattle, horses and mules. He will also ship out an auto for use on the ranch. The outfit is located northeast of Butherford in the southeastern part of the county.

HELEN REDMOND NOTED ACTRESS DIES IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—Miss Helen Redmond, the actress, who, prior to her retirement from the stage in 1903, scored many notable successes in musical comedy productions, is dead here from pneumonia.

Advertisement for Nebraska Clothing Co. featuring "Monday, an Exhibit of SPRING FASHIONS" and "COATS, SUITS and DRESSES". Includes a list of items and prices.

Advertisement for THE PANTORIUM, "GOOD CLEANERS AND DYERS." Located at 1513-1517 Jones St. Phone Douglas 983.

Advertisement for J. WICE Ladies' Tailor. "Women who were customers of L. Lief will be pleased to learn that in the future they may have help gowns and suits made by the same man who did their work in the Lief establishment."