When this news became known several of those, who have been interested in the possible sale of the control of the club, asserted that the situation tended to confirm previously reports to the effect that Charles W. Murphy never really cwned a majority of the stock of the Chicago club, and had not therefore sold it back to Mr. Taft. The same persons asserted that the recent retirement of Murphy merely was a nominal change of ownership, leaving Mr. Taft free to name a new president of the club, while Murphy remained inactively connected with the organization.

In this connection it was said that Charles H. Thomas, secretary of the club, might be elected president for this year under the present ownership.
