Little Indication in Sight for Any Advance in Wheat,

CASH WHEAT MARKET IS DULL to a Half Cent in the Aggregate.

OMAHA, March 12, 1914. OMAHA, March 13, 1914.
The trend of ghest is to a lower level. This fact is realected every day in the big wheat pit, where the volume of trade is small, and where the smallest advance will bring out increased offerings. Those who have watched conditions closely know that it will take far different reports from those already received from the growing winter wheat in order to create new buying power from any section of country.

some Manitoba bought for export by the seaboard after the close of exchange on Tuesday.

The cash trade in corn showed marked improvement on Wednesday, and what was the principal help then seemed to disappear yesterday, as the transactions at Chicago were only $5,000 bushels, and the eastern markets all reported business as small. A cargo of Argentine corn was sold to come to Galveston at 88 cents. April shipment, and advices indicate that the shipments from that country will be on a liberal scale next month.

Oats were under selling pressure and not losses were shown of $45\cap{4}c$ higher. John Inglis, who is in Kansas City, safe a large acreage is being seeded to oats; that seeding is general, and that farmers are getting a fine seed bed.

The firm and higher hog market was reflected in the provisions yesterday. Lard was the more active commodity and the buying was credited to eastern speculators.

CHICAGO, March 13 — Discredited rumors of an impending break in relations between Russia and Austria were utilized by the wheat bulls today in giving the market a lift. The outcome was an advance of 160 to net. Other speculative articles, too, all showed a rise, corn, 160 to, cats 160, and provisions 7400 to 171c.

War talk quickly brought denials that any serious trouble was in prospect. Further more, the denials were emphaized by the fact that consols closed strong, with a substantial gain. It was evident, however, that the trade had been caught in an oversold condition, and there was consequently but little action from the top prices reached.

Preceding the bulge in the wheat market, July deliver especially was under pressure from the hears. Larger world shipments and higher favorable domestic crop reports constituted the chief reacond it was said the amount of winter killing promised to be the smallest on record.

Corn gathered strength throughout the session. The demand was better and

One of the more conservative men in the wheat trade at Chicago, and a man who would be pleased to see a bull market in that grain, said last hight that there is nothing in the conditions surrounding wheat to help it from the bearsh of a calamity to bring about a reduction in the prospective yield sufficient to be a real factor in the matter of price making.

There was some bull news from abroad, but this failed to give any material assistance to the market here, as there were declines in all the trade markets of the old world. Frame reported much replowing there and native wheat as scarce and higher. Liverpool reported additional purchase of Australian cargoes by the continent, and Germany reported wheat scarce, especially the better kind.

The cash wheat market at Chicago was extremely dull, with sales of only 66,000 bushels, and this was larger transactions than for several days. The senboard markets all reported bids as too low for consideration, and there were no sales for export westerday, but there was some Manitoba bought for export by the seaboard after the close of exchange on Tuesday.

The cash trade in corn showed marked improvement on Wednesday, and what was the principal help then seemed to disappear yesterday, as the transactions at Chicago were only $5,000 bushels, and the seaboard after the close of exchange on Tuesday.

HOGS-Supplies were moderate this morning, and the market opened in good shape, shippers and speculators buying a number of loads carry that looked to shape, shippers and spectuating cosing a number of loads early that looked to be around loc higher. Fuckers started bidding about so nigner, but nothing moved on this basis, and values improved rapidly, so that when the first killer sales were made the market was fully spile higher. Some hogs sold at these prices, but values continued to strengthen and in the end the most of the sales were made at an advance of a flat loc. On the extreme close, with only a few loads left, things took another spurt, and the last sales were made at the high time of the day, prices at this time looking much as logistic higher. Taking the market as a whose, values can be quoted as a flat dime higher than yesterday's average. Movement was lively from the start and everything was cleaned up long before 19 o clock.

Most of the saies were made at a range of $4.49850, with quite a string at $9.00, and a top of $4.60. Values are now at the hain spot for the year to date, and to-day's top is a nickel above the best price paid up to this time.

Receipts were estimated at lie cars, or 7,600 head. For the five days the total is 49,355 head, being 1,600 iarger than last week, but 5,000 short of the supply for the same days a year ago.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

Unexpected Turn for Better Comes After Indifferent Opening.

NO EXPLANATION FOR CHANGE

Movement Apparently Represents Nothing More Than Operations of the Professional

Traders.

NEW YORK, March IS.—An unexpected turn for the better came; in the stock market today after an indifferent opening. The principal stocks were lifted a point or more. There the market begins of the market to a point or more there is a point or more. There the market begins of the day's developments to explain the sudden change in the market. The moviment apparently represented nothing more than the operations of professional traders. At the opening there was renewed weakness in various stocks which recently have been under fire, but their declines did not affect the general list. This encouraged speculative operations on the long side, and it required only a small arratunt of buying to demonstrate the scarcity of stocks at the current level. The shorts began a retreat and buying for both accounts sent up prices rapidly.

In the early movement several new low records were made. Canadian Pacific dropped 20%, the lowest since ISI. Denver & Rio Grande preferred at 19%, was the lowest on record. Rock Island also made another low mark, at 4. On the upturn, Canadian Pacific rose fearly 3 points from its low figure. New Haven and Chesapeake & Ohio were strong.

London bought stocks here on a moderate scale. Canadian Pacific's upturn was influenced largely by foreign buying. Bonds of the Gould roads and Rock Island bonds were weak in the early was influenced largely by foreign buying. Bonds of the Gould roads and Rock Island bonds were weak in the early trading, but recovered later. The general bond market was steady after a period of irregularity.

Total sales, par value, $2,300,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.
