YEISER ALSO IS IN THE NET

Another Attorney Indicted for Connection with a Damage Suit.

ECHO OF THE HICKS-CLARK CASE

Accused Attorney Makes Statement Explaining His Dealings in the Case and Says He Will Pursue It Further.

Among other indictments returned by the grand jury yesterday was one holding John O. Yeiser on a charge of blackmail for his connection with the Hicks-Clark damage suit. This suit was taken from the jury by Judge Estelle on Wednesday afternoon, after the plaintiff had rested on direct testimony. Yeiser was attorney for the defendant. Last night Mr. Yeiser gave The Bee the following statement: "Last April Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, two strangers to me, came to my office. The woman was crying and hysterical and the man was almost beside himself with anger. She related the story of having been engaged by Clark, not as a servant, but more as a companion for his wife, who was an invalid, and that her husband was engaged to marry the automobile. She told a story of mistreatment. I went over the case carefully and advised them to wait until I could make a thorough examination."

Believes Plaintiff's Story. "After careful examination I found the young woman bore an excellent reputation and had been raised in Oacoola, Ia., went to school there, then married a schoolmate and had never been in any trouble or never traveled around. I believed her story and still believe her in every detail. "I then served the notice of suit in Iowa for one of the parties and filed a suit here for the other. But later on, when I heard Clark was in Omaha with a large automobile, I brought suit for Mr. and Mrs. Hicks for $50,000 each in Nebraska, obtaining service on Clark by attaching this machine, as soon as I had those suits started in Nebraska I dismissed the cases in Iowa because I preferred to fight here instead of with strangers.

"Clark's attorney came to me and tried to settle for $1,000, starting at $500. I stood for $750 and no agreement was reached. Later they went to Oacoola and tried to induce the mother and uncle of plaintiff to hire another lawyer and settle. This caused her relatives to urge her to settle the case. Clark's lawyer, Sherze, came to me and we were negotiating a settlement. I had accepted an offer of $1,000 that had previously been made. Attorney Shers went to her home and in the presence of her mother and father and husband threatened to blackmail her character if she did not drop these cases without any payment. Then, when this occurred and I told them of what had been said to me, her mother and uncle all united in demanding a renewed vigorous fight. Then I started a new suit for $100,000 damages for conspiracy to coerce this settlement and for slander as a part of the conspiracy.

Holds Judge is Wrong. "This is what they call 'blackmail.' I tried the case and rested for the plaintiff and am told that practically all the jurors were favorable to damages for the full amount. Judge Estelle took the case from the jury, not because it was blackmail, but because he claimed Clark was not liable for what Shers said. The judge was wrong. In my judgment I have filed a motion for a new trial and will take the case to the supreme court if it is overruled. "Now, if what I have done is blackmail, I am going to commit the crime again, for I shall start another suit for $250,000 for a conspiracy to libel this woman, and I will keep it up as long as new causes of action are created, and when I get through my clients' cases I will attend to my own affairs."

Hold Banquet in Honor of Thirty Years of Service

Albert G. Bradford

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—(Special.)—In recognition of his thirty years' association with the business, N. W. Ayer & Son, advertising agents, tonight dined Albert G. Bradford, member and financial manager of the firm. Interest in this anniversary celebration is nation-wide in newspaper and magazine circles, because there is no one more connected with advertising more widely and favorably known to publishers of who has been more closely identified with great achievements of modern publicity than Mr. Bradford. He has under his immediate direction the disbursing of immense sums for advertising space. It has been conservatively estimated that N. W. Ayer & Son have paid American publishers over $75,000,000. Mr. Bradford's association with N. W. Ayer & Son began in 1884 as a book-keeper. In 1888 he was made a member of the firm, which then consisted of F. Wayland Ayer and Henry N. McKinney. Jarvis A. Wood became a member at the same time, and later Wilfred W. Fry was taken into the partnership, all being seated at Mr. Bradford's right and left tonight. The dinner was largely "Ayer family" affairs, over 70 present and past employes being present. Several fine addresses were made. Mr. Ayer paying Mr. Bradford a particularly interesting tribute. During the evening S. Wilbur Corman, general manager of N. W. Ayer & Son, presented Mr. Bradford with a magnificent Seth Thomas grandfather's clock on behalf of the firm and its employes.

Also, he suggests his willingness to listen to and heed any applications made to him directly by the friends and relatives of foreigners whose lives or property may be threatened and to make investigation of every case and to punish any of his followers who may be culpable. This is the substance of a telegraphic report made to Secretary Bryan today by American Consul Simplich at Nogales. WEST POINT GIRL'S CASE UP BEFORE BOARD

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, March 14.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Amanda Doerr of West Point appeared before the State Board of Control this morning in an effort to secure the release from the State School for Girls of Ella Stark, a daughter of Mrs. Doerr by a previous marriage, who had been sent to the school on complaint of her stepfather, who now admits that he might have been a little hasty in judging the girl's conduct. Editor James C. Elliot of West Point appeared in behalf of the girl, and stated that on July 4, 1912 West Point celebrated and he admitted, did a good job, nearly everybody joining in the chorus of the song, "We Won't Go Home 'Till Morning" and they did not. Like the rest, the girl was out until about 2 o'clock with a young fellow, and as a result she was taken before the courts with the young man, and the former sent to the girl's school and the boy to the boys' school at Kearney. People interested in the circumstances are now convinced that the girl was guilty of nothing for which she should be punished and that her place is at home. Judge Holcomb, president of the board of control, explained to those present that girls were not sent to the home as a punishment, but simply to get them away from questionable surroundings. The matter was taken under advisement by the board for a few days.
