

COAL BARONS FILING SUITS

Colorado Company Wants Million from Miners' Union.

MANY OFFICIALS ARE NAMED

Complaint Charges Conspiracy and Persecution on Part of Organization—Three Other Suits Will Follow.

TRINIDAD, Colo., March 20.—(Special) A combination by the United Mine Workers of America to injure the business of the coal corporation, a suit asking for damages to the amount of $1,000,000 and body judgment against President John P. White, vice president Frank J. Hayes, and a score of others was filed today in the district court of Las Animas county by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

Officials of the United Mine Workers of America here are little perturbed today over the announced intention of the Colorado coal companies to file suits asking damages of nearly $4,000,000 and body judgments against them. John B. Lawson, executive board member from Colorado, characterized the contemplated action as "another attempt to harass the union and an admission of the inability of the companies to break the strike, called September 23, 1913."

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Conspiracy and Persecution. Announcement of the companies' intentions was made last night, coincident with the mailing of papers in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company suit against the union to counsel in Trinidad for filing in the district court of Las Animas county today.

Black Tony and His Pal Are Now Making Brooms Behind Bars

"Black Tony" Claretta and Joe Williams, members of the bandit trio, who on January 15 killed Henry E. Nickel, are now confined in the Nebraska state penitentiary. The men are both in the broom factory and are rapidly becoming accustomed to a service which the court said would last their natural lifetimes.

Ceverinus R. Rosemond, the third man of the trio, who is detested by the police to be an ignorant tool of Williams, has not been sentenced. It is probable that he will go before the court on a manslaughter charge and will not receive a life term.

Police yesterday declared "Black Tony" would be exceeding unlucky if he did not receive his liberty before the expiration of ten years, and they also predicted less than twenty years for Williams.

"Just look at the Christ Lausten case," say the police. Nine years ago Lausten, a saloon keeper was murdered in cold blood by a gang of youthful bandits, and a month or so ago the last member of the gang received his pardon.

GREETERS REMEMBER WIDOW OF ONE OF THEIR NUMBER

Greeters of America at the Hotel Rome last evening decided to tender a fund to the widow of Gus Broberg, member of the organization and former clerk of the Her Grand and Murray hotels. Broberg died March 2, at his home, 278 Meredith avenue.

Godspeed was wished J. S. Hamilton, night clerk at the Loyal, who left this morning to take a position as head clerk at the Hotel Allison of Cedar Rapids.

The entertainment committee is rapidly formulating a campaign for its share in showing the large eastern and western delegations to the national convention at Los Angeles in June, a splendid time while in Omaha. Beside an auto trip throughout the city several novel surprises for the eastern bunch are being framed up.

Colman William Anderson of the Hotel Rome, the founder of the Greeters of America, and head of chapter No. 1, which comprises Nebraska and Iowa territory, is going into the fight for the presidency of the National organization with a strong backing and it is the hope that he will be elected overwhelmingly.

When the order was founded by him some nine years ago, it was greeted by the eastern hotel clerks with derision and did not meet with the sanction of the majority of the hotel proprietors. At present it has an enormous membership throughout the entire United States and is endorsed by proprietors and clerks alike as a splendid protective organization.

From six members at its origin, chapter No. 1 at present has a total of 28 in its fold. James Stokes of the Commercial hotel of Philadelphia is the present president of the national organization.

Two Garrisons Increased. In response to instructions from army headquarters, a detachment of 300 infantry arrived at Newry today from the Curragh, and another 200 from Mullingar. The garrison of Londonderry also was reinforced by 200 men from Mullingar and two warships arrived in Dublin bay.

Feeling among the public in Belfast has become tense since yesterday's debate in Parliament. Soon after his arrival here Sir Edward Carson issued an appeal to his followers to preserve calm.

Crisis Seems Near. LONDON, March 20.—Grave events are impending at Ulster, according to the unionist newspapers and a rumor is current that the government is preparing for the military occupation of the province. There are indications that a crisis has been reached.

A vote of censure of the British government, which was moved in the House of Commons yesterday by Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, was rejected, 545 to 252. Arthur J. Balfour, summoned by Mr. Law, made a hurried return from the Riviera and arrived in London in time to participate in the division.

NEW MOTORCYCLE CLUB ELECTS ITS OFFICERS

Thirty-five local motorcycle riders enjoyed a banquet at the Henshahn hotel Thursday evening, and incidentally perfected the organization of a new motorcycle club and elected its officers. All are boosters and feel confident that this club will be a success.

The following members were elected officers of the new club, to hold office for one year: Thomas Birrell, president; Lloyd Jensen, vice president; Victor Coley, secretary; Victor Roos, treasurer; Otto Ramer, road captain, and Henry Hamann, lieutenant.

PREFERS DEATH CHAIR TO TWENTY YEARS IN PEN

NEW YORK, March 20.—"I would rather go to the electric chair than spend twenty years in prison," 19-year-old Harry Schaffer told his parents in the supreme court today, when they urged him to plead guilty in the second degree at his trial on the charge of first degree murder for the killing of William T. Martin, a Toronto Canada milliner, last August.

Taking the stand in his own defense, Schaffer told how he and another man wrapped a towel around Martin's neck as tightly that death resulted, after luring their victim to a flat.

Schaffer said he and his companion, who is a fugitive, had not intended to kill Martin, but merely to quiet him until they could rob him. The case will go to the jury tomorrow.

WAR IN ULSTER IS PROBABLE

Activity at Unionists' Headquarters Causes Excitement.

CARSON RETURNS TO BELFAST

Leader Received at Dock by Picked Guard of Ulster Volunteers—Garrisons Ask for Reinforcements.

BELFAST, March 20.—Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the unionists of Ulster, made a dramatic entry into the capital of the province today. His purpose in coming here is to consult with the other Ulster unionist leaders and with commanders of the Ulster volunteer forces.

The great activity displayed at innumerable headquarters and in the army barracks have caused considerable excitement among the people of Belfast who for days past have been momentarily expecting some development on the part of the unionist chiefs or the government.

Before landing this morning Sir Edward Carson received on board the steamer on which he had made the passage from England Sir George Richardson, a retired lieutenant general of the British army, who is commander in chief of the Ulster unionist forces, together with his chief officers.

WAR IN ULSTER IS PROBABLE

Activity at Unionists' Headquarters Causes Excitement.

CARSON RETURNS TO BELFAST

Leader Received at Dock by Picked Guard of Ulster Volunteers—Garrisons Ask for Reinforcements.

BELFAST, March 20.—Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the unionists of Ulster, made a dramatic entry into the capital of the province today. His purpose in coming here is to consult with the other Ulster unionist leaders and with commanders of the Ulster volunteer forces.

THREE TORNADO VICTIMS ASK COMMITTEE FOR AID

Although the Easter Sunday tornado occurred one year ago, three persons have asked the relief committee for help within the last few days. The committee had thought it was done with applications, but these are being considered although there are no available funds at present. If money that was apportioned to certain sufferers after the tornado remains unclaimed for when the final report is made next Monday, it is possible that some may be allotted to these recent applicants. The final meeting of the committee of fifty which was the general relief committee is to be held Monday afternoon at the Commercial club rooms. That will be March 23, the anniversary of the tornado.

Washington Affairs

President Wilson yesterday manifested a deep interest in the financial condition of the railroads of the country. Mr. Wilson considers an important factor in the railroad situation the question of whether the railroads would get the proposed increase in freight rates now being argued before the interstate commerce commission. He made it clear that this was "the big thing" in the situation, but did not express any opinion on the merits of the increase.

The Church as an Advertiser will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. E. H. Jenks Sunday evening 7:30

Solo by Mr. W. H. Hunt

Music by Church Quartette Christian Endeavor Meeting 6:30

First Presbyterian Church

17th and Dodge

GREIGHTON DEBATERS WIN

South Dakota Team Outtalked by the Local Stars.

FAST RETORTS ON REBUTTAL

Vermilion Debaters' Delivery of Gating Gun Style, but the Judges Hold Creighton Men More Finished.

Creighton university triumphed over the University of South Dakota in their annual debate held at the Creighton university auditorium Thursday evening, by a vote of two to one.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

GREIGHTON DEBATERS WIN

South Dakota Team Outtalked by the Local Stars.

FAST RETORTS ON REBUTTAL

Vermilion Debaters' Delivery of Gating Gun Style, but the Judges Hold Creighton Men More Finished.

Creighton university triumphed over the University of South Dakota in their annual debate held at the Creighton university auditorium Thursday evening, by a vote of two to one.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

GREIGHTON DEBATERS WIN

South Dakota Team Outtalked by the Local Stars.

FAST RETORTS ON REBUTTAL

Vermilion Debaters' Delivery of Gating Gun Style, but the Judges Hold Creighton Men More Finished.

Creighton university triumphed over the University of South Dakota in their annual debate held at the Creighton university auditorium Thursday evening, by a vote of two to one.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.

M. Q. Sharpe, also of the visitors, brought forth some telling arguments. If a star could be picked from the performance, it was Louis D. Kavanagh, of the local team, who was especially good in making close distinctions.

The university orchestra furnished some lively music during intermission. The personnel of the two teams was as follows: Affirmative, Floyd R. Poole, F. E. Sheehan and J. Q. Sharpe; negative, Louis D. Kavanagh, Henry C. Mundt and E. J. Robins.

The judges were Prof. H. W. Caldwell, head of history department, University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Prof. William R. Arthur, dean, Washburn college of law, Topeka, Kan.; Hon. Earl R. Ferguson, attorney, Shenandoah, Ia., chairman; Matthew V. Brossard, law '13.

Following the debate the visitors and members of the local team were the guests of Creighton university at a banquet at the Hotel Loyal.

The Persistent and Judicious Use of Newspaper Advertising is the Road to Business Success.

Creighton upheld the negative of the question: Resolved, That the provision of the Panama canal act exempting the coast-

wise shipping of the United States from the payment of tolls should be repealed. The affirmative arguments of the Coyote representatives were of no avail. Last year's contest at Vermilion was won by South Dakota.

Last night's contest was attended by a large delegation of Creighton students, friends and supporters, and the members of both teams were liberally applauded. The feature of the debate was the animated rebuttals of both teams. It appeared that both teams saved their telling shots until the finish. Henry C. Mundt of South Dakota set the record for rapid fire work in attempting to take advantage of every possible moment allowed for shattering the arguments of his opponents.