

HIGH AFTER BOOTLEGGERS

Anti-Saloon Superintendent Gets List of Government Licenses. ALSO IS AFTER DRUGGISTS

High Says While He is Against the Sale of Liquor He Will Proceed First Against Those Selling Illegally.

Indications of activity of the Anti-Saloon league were apparent yesterday, when F. A. High, district superintendent of Omaha of the league, with an assistant, started to copy the records of government licenses issued from the office of Ross L. Hammond, collector of internal revenue for the state of Nebraska.

Threatening Skies Cause Much Alarm

There were many anxious hearts in Omaha Tuesday afternoon and evening when the sky became dark and a bad storm threatened. Downtown shoppers nervously sought early cars to their homes, and folks at home closed up their houses tight and waited for developments.

FAMILY WINS CLEMENCY FOR JOHN HUFFMAN

John Huffman, alias Edgar Allen Poe, living at Fifteenth and Burt streets, was arraigned before Judge Foster and sentenced to thirty days in the county jail on a charge of vagrancy.

FATHER OF LARGE FAMILY MEETS TRAGIC DEATH

Joseph Parsons, aged 45 years, Central City, S. D., was found dead from gas asphyxiation at the Roma hotel.

DR. S. S. WISE TO SPEAK BEFORE PALIMPSEST CLUB

Invitations are out for the next Palimpsest dinner at the Omaha club Wednesday evening, April 1, at which the guest of honor will be Dr. Stephen S. Wise of New York City.

MRS. ORPHA BANKS POND, OMAHA PIONEER, IS DEAD

Mrs. Orpha Banks Pond, aged 68 years, and for fifty-two years a resident of Omaha, died of cancer of the stomach Wednesday morning at her home, 336 Bedford street.

TRIAL OF T. H. MATTERS POSTPONED SEVERAL DAYS

Trial of T. H. Matters, lawyer, indicted by the Douglas county grand jury on a charge of embezzlement, has been postponed for several days because one of his attorneys is occupied with another case now up before the court.

Special 'Health Warning' for March. March is a trying month for the young and for elderly people. Croup, bronchial colds, lagrippe and pneumonia are to be feared and avoided.

CHICAGO MAN JOINS FORCES OF HAYDEN BROS.

D. Burns, for the last twelve years connected with the Boston store at Chicago as buyer and department manager, has taken charge of the picture and framing, books, stationery and toy departments at Hayden Bros.

Milk Dealers Are Fined for Selling Below Standard

Milk Inspector Claude Bosale haled numerous alleged offenders before Judge Foster, charged with selling milk below standard, ten of whom were discharged, while three were fined.

FOWLER CHARGED WITH OFFENSE BY AN OFFICER

Charles Fowler, a machinist employed at the Cole creamery and living at 94 Francis street, was arrested last night at his home by Detectives McDonald and Rich, on two warrants charging aiding and abetting the delinquency of a minor and performing a criminal operation.

COMMITTEE ON PARK PLANS TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON

The committee of thirty appointed by Mayor Dahlman to confer with the council relative to devising plans for the park, parkway and boulevard system will meet in the council chamber in the city hall on Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m.

OMAHA MEN ATTENDING BIG DRAINAGE MEETING

Herman B. Peters, proprietor of the Merchants hotel, and General J. C. Cowin went to Blair yesterday to attend a big land drainage meeting.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Ed W. North, chief deputy in the office of Ross L. Hammond, collector of internal revenue, is in Columbus on personal business.

Superintendent C. M. Reed of the railway mail service has returned from an inspection trip over the southern lines.

County Constable John Lynch yesterday appeared at the court house for the first time in several weeks, having recovered from a serious illness.

MRS. ORPHA BANKS POND, OMAHA PIONEER, IS DEAD

Mrs. Orpha Banks Pond, aged 68 years, and for fifty-two years a resident of Omaha, died of cancer of the stomach Wednesday morning at her home, 336 Bedford street.

TRIAL OF T. H. MATTERS POSTPONED SEVERAL DAYS

Trial of T. H. Matters, lawyer, indicted by the Douglas county grand jury on a charge of embezzlement, has been postponed for several days because one of his attorneys is occupied with another case now up before the court.

Special 'Health Warning' for March. March is a trying month for the young and for elderly people. Croup, bronchial colds, lagrippe and pneumonia are to be feared and avoided.

PLEASE VISITING MERCHANTS

Cabaret Show at the Commercial Club a Riot of Fun.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE MIXED

Fancy New Dances Alternate with Lectures of Experts on Really Practical Topics Related to Retail Trade.

Some 500 retail merchants and their wives from all parts of Nebraska and adjoining states, in Omaha to do their spring buying, enjoyed a long and lively program of entertainment staged at the Commercial club last night.

The affair was arranged by the manufacturers and jobbers of Omaha, who are this week entertaining their customers, since this is merchants' marketing week in Omaha.

Variety of Comic Songs

Dick Bruun with his ever present variety of comic songs and his portable organ entertained the crowd for some ten minutes. Especially fetching in his rendition of "The Beautiful Lady," played on a cigar box fiddle with one string.

GIRL LURED BY MAN MAY DIE OF DISEASE

Mary Mangen, 14 years of age, living with her father and little brother at 824 North Twenty-eighth street, is in the county hospital in such a condition from disease she may not live as the result of treatment by a laborer, declared by Dr. Dwyer, now in the city jail.

MRS. LUCRETIA HARRISON DIES AT DAUGHTER'S HOME

Mrs. Lucretia Harrison, wife of C. J. Harrison, former postmaster of Wahoo, died yesterday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Osterberg, 1701 Park avenue.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Ed W. North, chief deputy in the office of Ross L. Hammond, collector of internal revenue, is in Columbus on personal business.

Superintendent C. M. Reed of the railway mail service has returned from an inspection trip over the southern lines.

County Constable John Lynch yesterday appeared at the court house for the first time in several weeks, having recovered from a serious illness.

Music

A delightful musicale was given yesterday afternoon by the Amateur Musical club at the residence of Mrs. F. A. Nash for the benefit of the Social Settlement.

The program opened with a two piano number, Romanza and Waltz from the suite opus 15, by Arensky. This was to have been played by Mrs. S. S. Caldwell and Mrs. George McIntyre, but owing to the illness of Mrs. McIntyre, Miss Dorothy Norton took her place at a day's notice.

Prof. William E. Chambers with a number of assistants demonstrated a number of the newer dances. Prof. Chambers, assisted by Mrs. Farnam and Mrs. Younglof, demonstrated the "a-la-mande." Assisted by Miss Annibel Sinclair and Miss Irene Walker, Mr. Chambers showed the various social dances.

TO ESTABLISH HOME FOR COLORED WOMEN

The Negro Woman's Charitable association will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock at Twenty-fifth and Grant streets for the purpose of taking steps toward the establishment of a home for aged negro women.

Men's Suits

The season's newest creations in style and color and the ever popular blue serge. $10 to $30

Boys' Suits

Kansome Norfolk Suits with 2 pairs of pants; unusual values. $2.95 to $10

Spring Hats

Your hat wants easily satisfied here. Newest styles, best values. Stetsons $3.50

GUARANTEE CLOTHING CO.

H. E. ARNSTEIN A. MATER. 1121-121 DOUGLAS ST.

WOMAN WOULD END HER LIFE

Mrs. Mamie Stanley Takes Poison When Life is Wrecked.

FOUND BEFORE DEATH COMES

With Husband in Jail, Suspected of Bigamy and Her Health Shattered, She is at Hospital Barely Alive.

"My Dear Parents: I am now writing these few lines to tell you 'good-bye.' By the time this reaches you, I will be in another world. It is so dreadfully hard, between the sickness and worry, that I cannot stand it any longer.

This note was found by the police yesterday afternoon at 231 Mason street, when they were called to attend Mrs. Mamie Stanley, wife of J. O. Stanley, who had attempted suicide by swallowing ether.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

Not Likely to Survive.

The woman is now in the city ward at St. Joseph hospital, and will probably die, but from the effects of the illness from which she is suffering, rather than from the poison.

Strengthen Weak Kidneys.

Electric Bitters will more than surprise you after the first bottle. Get a bottle today. Safe and sure. 50c and $1. All druggists.—Advertisement.

Young Women Identify Evans as Holdup Man

A garter purse, used by women to carry money in their stockings, assisted in the identification of Fred Evans, held in Council Bluffs with Frank Winert on a charge of having committed half a dozen holdups.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

Not Likely to Survive.

The woman is now in the city ward at St. Joseph hospital, and will probably die, but from the effects of the illness from which she is suffering, rather than from the poison.

Strengthen Weak Kidneys.

Electric Bitters will more than surprise you after the first bottle. Get a bottle today. Safe and sure. 50c and $1. All druggists.—Advertisement.

Young Women Identify Evans as Holdup Man

A garter purse, used by women to carry money in their stockings, assisted in the identification of Fred Evans, held in Council Bluffs with Frank Winert on a charge of having committed half a dozen holdups.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

WOMAN WOULD END HER LIFE

Mrs. Mamie Stanley Takes Poison When Life is Wrecked.

FOUND BEFORE DEATH COMES

With Husband in Jail, Suspected of Bigamy and Her Health Shattered, She is at Hospital Barely Alive.

"My Dear Parents: I am now writing these few lines to tell you 'good-bye.' By the time this reaches you, I will be in another world. It is so dreadfully hard, between the sickness and worry, that I cannot stand it any longer.

This note was found by the police yesterday afternoon at 231 Mason street, when they were called to attend Mrs. Mamie Stanley, wife of J. O. Stanley, who had attempted suicide by swallowing ether.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

Not Likely to Survive.

The woman is now in the city ward at St. Joseph hospital, and will probably die, but from the effects of the illness from which she is suffering, rather than from the poison.

Strengthen Weak Kidneys.

Electric Bitters will more than surprise you after the first bottle. Get a bottle today. Safe and sure. 50c and $1. All druggists.—Advertisement.

Young Women Identify Evans as Holdup Man

A garter purse, used by women to carry money in their stockings, assisted in the identification of Fred Evans, held in Council Bluffs with Frank Winert on a charge of having committed half a dozen holdups.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

Not Likely to Survive.

The woman is now in the city ward at St. Joseph hospital, and will probably die, but from the effects of the illness from which she is suffering, rather than from the poison.

Strengthen Weak Kidneys.

Electric Bitters will more than surprise you after the first bottle. Get a bottle today. Safe and sure. 50c and $1. All druggists.—Advertisement.

Young Women Identify Evans as Holdup Man

A garter purse, used by women to carry money in their stockings, assisted in the identification of Fred Evans, held in Council Bluffs with Frank Winert on a charge of having committed half a dozen holdups.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

WOMAN WOULD END HER LIFE

Mrs. Mamie Stanley Takes Poison When Life is Wrecked.

FOUND BEFORE DEATH COMES

With Husband in Jail, Suspected of Bigamy and Her Health Shattered, She is at Hospital Barely Alive.

"My Dear Parents: I am now writing these few lines to tell you 'good-bye.' By the time this reaches you, I will be in another world. It is so dreadfully hard, between the sickness and worry, that I cannot stand it any longer.

This note was found by the police yesterday afternoon at 231 Mason street, when they were called to attend Mrs. Mamie Stanley, wife of J. O. Stanley, who had attempted suicide by swallowing ether.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

Not Likely to Survive.

The woman is now in the city ward at St. Joseph hospital, and will probably die, but from the effects of the illness from which she is suffering, rather than from the poison.

Strengthen Weak Kidneys.

Electric Bitters will more than surprise you after the first bottle. Get a bottle today. Safe and sure. 50c and $1. All druggists.—Advertisement.

Young Women Identify Evans as Holdup Man

A garter purse, used by women to carry money in their stockings, assisted in the identification of Fred Evans, held in Council Bluffs with Frank Winert on a charge of having committed half a dozen holdups.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

Not Likely to Survive.

The woman is now in the city ward at St. Joseph hospital, and will probably die, but from the effects of the illness from which she is suffering, rather than from the poison.

Strengthen Weak Kidneys.

Electric Bitters will more than surprise you after the first bottle. Get a bottle today. Safe and sure. 50c and $1. All druggists.—Advertisement.

Young Women Identify Evans as Holdup Man

A garter purse, used by women to carry money in their stockings, assisted in the identification of Fred Evans, held in Council Bluffs with Frank Winert on a charge of having committed half a dozen holdups.

WALKUP IS BROUGHT BACK TO FACE EMBEZZLEMENT

A. E. Walkup, former attorney and real estate dealer here, who was arrested Sunday in Sioux City, Ia., at the instigation of Edward Simon, attorney, and former member of the last legislature, was returned to Omaha last night by Detective John T. Duern of the local department.

The Best Spring Clothes Values To Be Had, Now Ready For Your Inspection and Choosing! WITH A GREAT DEAL OF SATISFACTION we call attention to our exhibition of New Spring Outfittings for Father, Brother and Son, gathered from America's foremost makers.

How many of today's Bee Want Ads have you read? Sometimes a Want Ad is as important to you as any of the day's affairs, the day's mail or telegrams or engagements.

Is Your Power Flexible? When you have overtime work for one machine, what does it cost you? Do you have to operate your entire power plant to get power for that one machine?

Business Opportunities These ads will start you on the road to wealth

Travel on "A.B.A." Cheques They are safe to carry and much more convenient than actual money, both abroad and in the United States.

Canadian "Royals" Royal Edward Royal George Cabins de luxe - suites and rooms with private bath - reasonable rates.