

MANY PLAN TRIPS ABROAD

Interest Manifest in Coming of the Michigan Musical Clubs.

SOCIETY QUIET HOLY WEEK

Patronesses Are Selected for the Michigan Club Concert, Which is to Be Given at the Brandeis Theater.

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Prof. F. M. Fling, lecturer. "Struggle with Europe." Central High school, 4 p. m. Temple Israel sisterhood, card party, 7:30 p. m. Prairie Park Whist club. TUESDAY—Mrs. William Stull, children's party for Master William Stull, Jr., and little Miss Della Hudson. THURSDAY—Tango club at Prairie Park clubhouses. Sixty dancing club, Chambers academy. FRIDAY—Chicken pie luncheon, First Presbyterian church, Prairie Park association, meeting. SATURDAY—Prairie Park assembly dance.

More than the usual number of travelers of this city are planning to go abroad for the summer. So many Americans are going that it is difficult to get reservations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dietz plan to leave in May to meet Mr. and Mrs. Gould Dietz in Paris. The latter, who are taking a trip around the world, will arrive in Naples May 18, and will then go to Paris. Mr. Joseph Hayden and Miss Sadie Hayden, who have been to Australia with Mr. and Mrs. Gould Dietz, will go as far as Naples with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rung have engaged passage and will sail from New York May 5 for a six months' trip through Europe. They leave Omaha April 25.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Russell left Friday for New York to sail Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm to join their daughters.

Miss Agnes and Miss Anna Russell, in Berlin and to remain abroad for ten weeks. The Misses Russell have been in Europe with Mrs. C. E. Johannes since last July. Mrs. Johannes is now with a travel party in Italy and will sail for home April 17.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers and Miss Nathalie Myers of Dubuque have gone aboard to join Mrs. E. W. Naah and Miss Naah in Berlin. Miss Myers will probably remain abroad with Miss Naah for the summer. Mrs. Naah returning earlier.

Judge and Mrs. W. A. Redick and Mrs. Warren Rogers and Miss Rogers landed Monday in Palermo, Sicily, from their India trip and will remain in Palermo a week or two, probably, after which their plans are not definite, as they leave the Cleveland, on which they have been making the regular cruise. Mrs. John Redick and baby expect to sail May 15 to join Judge and Mrs. Redick in England and Mr. John Redick hopes to go over later in the summer to return with them.

Miss Clara Bull of Pasadena, Cal., who has visited here a number of times as the guest of the Misses Congdon, also plans to go to Europe, sailing the latter part of June. She will visit in Omaha en route to Europe.

Patronesses for Concert.

Much social interest is being shown in the concert to be given by the Michigan Glee club at the Brandeis theater Tuesday evening, April 14. The Glee club will have a busy day. Arriving here in the morning, there will be a breakfast for them at the Hotel Home, after which they will give a short concert at the high school, followed by luncheon at the University club. They will then attend the base ball game and have dinner at the Home. Following the concert there will be a reception and dance at the University club.

The patronesses for the concert are:

- Meadames—C. C. Allison, H. V. Burkley, W. M. Burgess, V. B. Caldwell, F. S. Cowgill, L. F. Crofoot, C. F. Crowley, C. L. Fisher, C. C. George, Harold Gifford, C. W. Hamilton, G. W. Hitchcock, W. D. Hoeford, A. W. Jelfer, A. E. Jones, George A. Joslyn, C. T. Kountze, F. F. Kitchendall, J. L. Kennedy, Miss Jessie Millard.

Interesting Vacation.

Miss Mona Cowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cowell, who is attending school at Yassar, is spending a most interesting spring vacation.

While in New York with a party of friends she dined aboard the battleship Arkansas in New York harbor. From New York she went to Annapolis, where she attended the officers' dance at the Naval academy.

In Washington, where Miss Cowell was the guest of Miss Crowell, she was right royally entertained by Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock and Congressman C. O. Lobeck, through whose courtesies she was shown through the White House and was also accorded the privilege of listening to the debate on the long exemption clause of the Panama canal act.

Miss Cowell is now with her roommates at Vassar. Miss Bettie Allison, at her home in Haderford, a suburb of Philadelphia, and will spend Easter there.

She also has been at Bryn Mawr, where she visited Miss Ida Darlow of Omaha, who is a student at Bryn Mawr.

Church Affairs.

The women of the First Presbyterian church will have an Easter sale in the card room of the Colonial, Thursday, April 9, from 10:30 to 5:00 o'clock. There will be Easter eggs, rabbits and novelties for children, as well as fancy work and cookies and candies. Some of those in charge are: Meadames Carrier, C. F. McGrew, C. M. Wilkes, W. T. Cook, W. G. Preston, A. J. Cooley, C. E. East, Charles Offutt, J. L. Kennedy, Thomas Kilpatrick, Misses Zela, Jessie Millard.

April Musicals.

Mrs. Samuel Katz and Mrs. Jay B. Katz will give a benefit musicale on the afternoon of April 23 at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Katz, 730 South Thirty-seventh street. Mrs. Samuel Katz has arranged a very interesting program for the last meeting of the Tuesday Morning Musicals club, April 14, at the residence of Mrs. F. A. Nash.

Birthday Surprise.

Mr. R. U. Wolfe was given a surprise party at his home, 300 South Twenty-fifth, Thursday evening, in honor of his birthday anniversary. An interesting musical program was given during the evening, also high five furnished amusement, prizes being won by Miss Margaret Fox and William Quade. The rooms were adorned with spring flowers. The table decorations were Killarney roses and violets. Those present were:

She has served as maid of honor at the Ak-Sar-Ben ball and is a sister of Mrs. E. E. Sterzinger of this city. Her Omaha friends have often been entertained at house parties at her home in Elkhorn.

Preston-Fletcher Engagement.

A number of friends were entertained by Miss Edna Fletcher at her home yesterday afternoon, between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock, the theme being pleasantly spent informally and with music. Mrs. Ralph Jennings, a sister of the hostess, assisted.

The luncheon table was prettily decorated in hearts and Cupids, and also Easter decorations. From the chandelier above the table hung a yellow crepe bag. When the ribbons attached to it were pulled, the written announcement came down amidst rice and confetti; this was read by Miss Hazel Basswell, announcing the engagement of Miss Edna Fletcher to Don C. Preston of Omaha.

For Brown-Dickey Wedding Party.

Miss Daphne Peters will give a supper at her home Easter evening for Miss Dickey and Mr. Bloomfield-Brown. On the following Monday they will be a theater party and supper at the Omaha club, given by Miss Katherine Thummel and Miss Mary Burkley.

For Baron Von Reinolds.

Mr. Peter J. Larson, 3050 Davenport street, gave a little affair in honor of Baron von Reinolds Thursday evening. It was entirely "en garçon" and in a superlative degree. Among those present were Mr. Helgren, leader of the Swedish singing society, "Norden"; Mr. Muerling, editor of Omaha Posten, and Mr. Lewis Henderson.

Entertains at Luncheon.

Mrs. Byron Badger entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon last Friday in honor of Mrs. L. A. Braden, who leaves soon to make her home in Red Oak, Ia. Those present were:

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Harmon have given up their apartment in New York and have taken a place at 200 Tenth avenue, Lynhurst, N. J.

Mrs. Charles Lobingier of Manila, P. I., formerly of this city, will be much missed in club and social circles in Manila, when she leaves with her husband, Judge Lobingier, for his new post at Hong Kong, China.

Miss Mabel Allen, who has been spending the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, will leave Sunday night for Bryn Mawr, Pa., to resume her studies at Baldwin school. Miss Allen will spend Easter Sunday with friends in Atlantic City.

Miss Ida Darlow will spend part of her Easter vacation in the Bermudas, where she is going with two or three college friends, and part in New York, visiting her uncle, Guizot and Solon Borglum. Mr. Clarence Darlow will spend his entire vacation in New York city.

Mr. Clarke Coit and his mother returned Wednesday from Detroit, where they were called last week by the illness of his nephew, Donald Allee, who is in a serious condition from erysipelas. The boy is and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Allee, formerly of Omaha. His condition was about the same when Mr. Coit left there and little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Michigan Musical Clubs on Long Tour to Include Omaha

The Michigan Glee and Mandolin clubs, which appear at the Brandeis theater the evening of Tuesday, April 14, have left Ann Arbor and are now swinging around the west on a 6,500-mile trip to the Pacific coast. Their itinerary includes Grand Rapids, Chicago, St. Louis, Denver, Laramie, Salt Lake City, Reno, Berkeley, Pasadena, Omaha and Rockford. For the entertainment of the talented college musicians while in Omaha the local alumni, with Dr. Claude T. Uren as chairman, have arranged a full program of activities. These will close with a big reception and dance at the University club after the concert. Invitations for the club affair have just been issued. Tickets for the concert will be put on sale this week by members of the committee.

Smallpox Ambulance Upset.

Chauffeur John Murray of the Health department narrowly escaped injury Friday night when the smallpox ambulance which he was driving turned over at Pinkney street and Florence boulevard. The accident occurred as he was rounding the corner and he saved himself by clinging to his seat.
