

TRIANGULAR FIGHT IN FIRST

Cornered Battle.
Will Maupin May Make it Four-PRICE IN RACE FOR CONGRESS

Same Old Game to Get Him Out of Contest Being Played as Before, but it Won't Work.

(From a Staff Correspondent).
LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special)—It is now assured that the democratic fight in the First congressional district will be a three-cornered affair, with the further possibility that Will Maupin may get into the race.

William B. Price has announced that before the week goes he will file for the democratic nomination. Governor Morsehead has already announced over his own signature that he will try for the job, and Congressman Maguire sends word from Washington that his filing may be looked for most any day.

Working Old Game.

Already the old game is being worked on Price that has been worked before.
There is little doubt but that Price would have been the congressman from the First district six years ago if he had not been persuaded by his friends to switch to a race for state auditor. In their eagerness to get William off of the congressional track they got out a petition and paid the fees for filing and Price fell for the scheme, and instead of being elected state auditor remained a private citizen.

He announces now, however, that there will be none of that stuff doing this time, although he is constantly receiving letters asking him to run for governor or attorney general. The double-cross business has been played once too often and Price is in the fight for the congressional nomination to stick.

Code Insurance Law Up.
Argument in the suit of State Auditor Howard to regain possession of the insurance department of the state and test the constitutionality of the present code insurance law will be heard before the supreme court Monday forenoon. Attorneys will represent the auditor, while Attorney General Martin will look after the interests of the state.

Omaha Injured.

Frank Hargan of 315 Cuming street, Omaha, was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital last evening suffering from injuries sustained while attempting to get off of a street car or by falling off, bystanders were unable to say. He was somewhat bruised about the back and ribs, and while the injuries may be painful for a few days will not be serious.

Entertainment in Senate Chamber.

About 120 state officials, employees at the state house and friends were entertained at the senate chamber Saturday night by Gov. Commissioner Harmon, assisted by his force of clerks, inspectors and Prof. George F. Condra. The entertainment was in the nature of a motion picture show, in which the workings of his department were shown both within the office and laboratory and in the field. In addition to this Dr. Condra showed two reels of the work of the State Conservation and Public Welfare commission, advertising the poultry and horse industries of the state.

Cyrus Black Files.

Cyrus Black, editor of the Hickman Enterprise and a member of the 1911 house of representatives of the Nebraska legislature, has filed as a candidate for the republican nomination from Lancaster county.

New Use for "Ig." Papers.

A new use for cigarette papers has been discovered by the Lincoln police, which they admit is more useful than the papers are generally put to. Last night while searching a prisoner, a wad of cigarette papers fell from his mouth. A little later repeated soundings on his cell door and gestures toward his mouth convinced the police that he wanted some more cigarette papers. They were given him, and, after dipping them in water, he made a wad of them and put them in the roof of his mouth. An examination showed that there was a big cavity therein, which, he said, had been there since childhood, and the only way he

Mr. Eberly was born at Beach City, O., January 25, 1839. His early life was spent in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. He enlisted in the Nineteenth Ohio regiment, September 7, 1861, and served throughout the war. He participated in the Tennessee and Atlanta campaigns, marched with Sherman to the sea, and across South and North Carolina. He was discharged October 15, 1865, with his regiment mustered out of service.

At the close of the war Mr. Eberly engaged in business in Fort Wayne, Ind., going from there to Napoleon, O. He was married to Miss Mary Agier at Wilmot, O., December 4, 1860. The family moved to Stanton county, Nebraska, and took up a homestead four miles south of here in 1878. Mr. and Mrs. Eberly resided there until 1879, when Mr. Eberly was appointed deputy county clerk and they removed to Stanton. In December of that year by reason of change of officers, his employment ceased, and he secured the position as general traveling agent for the Elkhorn Valley Immigration society, but soon after this appointment; the elected county clerk, Captain Butler, was appointed register of the land office, then situated at Norfolk, and the commissioners appointed his deceased county clerk to fill the vacancy. At the next election he was elected to fill the unexpired term and in 1881 was again re-elected for a two-year term.

In 1882, in conjunction with Frank P. Hanson of Omaha and Lewis Lay, the Citizens Bank of Stanton was organized. Mr. Eberly's duties were that of bookkeeper, and these duties he performed wholly outside of the time devoted to the county clerk's office. At the conclusion of the term as county clerk he devoted all of his time to the banking business. Later Mr. Lay retired from the business and the institution was reorganized as the Stanton National bank.

After the death of Mr. Hanson on January 15, 1912, Mr. Eberly became the president of the institution and continued as such until the time of his death.

In the early years the deceased was prominent in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Grand Army of the Republic. He was past commander of W. L. Kendall post, No. 190, and at the present time was the chief muster master of the division of Nebraska.

The funeral services will be held at his late residence at Stanton, Neb., on Monday at 2:30 in the afternoon.
