Hair Grew 4 Inches In A Few Weeks

A St. Louis Lady Increased the Length of Her Hair Four or Five Inches in a Few Weeks With This Simple Home Recipe.

A well-known St. Louis lady, after using a simple recipe on her hair which she mixed at home, made the following statement: "Without exaggeration, my hair has grown four or five inches." The recipe she used is as follows, and any lady or gentleman can mix it at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the tips of the fingers. It not only promotes the growth of the hair, but removes dandruff, scalp tumors and prevents the hair from falling out.

It dries, streaks, fades, gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. These ingredients can be obtained from any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home.—Advertisement.

Easter Week Bride in Wedding Gown

Mrs. Harold Bromfield Brown,
Née Miss Bertha Dickey

Brown-Dickey Wedding.
As the cathedral bells chimed eight Wednesday evening, the wedding of Miss Bertha Dickey, daughter of Mrs. John Jay Dickey, to Mr. Harold Bromfield Brown of Honolulu was celebrated in Trinity cathedral.

Dean James A. Tanook read the double ring service. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. W. Lyle Dickey of Tulsa, Okl., and she was given away at the chancel steps by her mother, Mrs. J. J. Dickey. The church was beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and palms and Mr. Ben Stanley played the "Lohengrin" "Bridal Chorus" for the entrance of the wedding party.

The bride was charming in her wedding gown of white satin charmeuse draped and made with square court train fastened to the bodice which was formed of point applique lace and tulle. The short sleeves and bodice with V neck were entirely of point applique, which was also draped on the skirt with clusters of orange blossoms. The long tulle veil was also held with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift was a diamond and platinum lavaller. The three bridesmaids were Miss Waphne Peters, Miss Mary Burkely and Miss Katherine Thummell. They entered singly and were gowned alike in dainty costumes of shadow lace and pink taffeta. The skirts made in the newest approved Parisian fashion—quite short in the back and long in front. Flourishes of shadow lace and tulle, caught with French roses formed the foundation of the gowns and a pannier flounce of pink taffeta was draped over the skirt and finished at the back with a taffeta bow. The bodices were of shadow lace draped with pink taffeta and made with the high Gladstone collars. They were short duchess veils of pink tulle fastened on the left side of the hair, which was worn high French roll effect. They carried baskets of pink sweet peas tied with tulle. The bride gown came pins set in etched gold. Miss Helen Scoble, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore white taffeta and duchess lace. The skirt was draped and made with bustle back. The bodice and short sleeves were of duchess lace and she wore a short- duchess veil of white tulle. She carried a shower of pink snap dragons. The bride's gift was a sheer pin of platinum set with diamonds.

George Thummell served as best man and received from the groom a pearl and platinum scarf pin. The ushers were John Caldwell, who received an emerald scarf pin; Sanford Gilford, sapphire pin, and Ben Galling, a topaz pin. There were four extra ushers, Milton Darling, Taylor Belcher, Halston Scoble and Burdette Kirkendall. The boutonniere were of swansons.

The bride gave the groom a pearl and platinum dress suit set. An exquisite gift sent to the bride was a diamond and ruby necklace from Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telegraph and Telephone company. Mr. Vail has been a friend of the Dickey family for many years and was formerly associated in business with the bride's father, the late J. J. Dickey.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the bride's home for the wedding party and relatives. Mrs. Dickey wore white broadened crepe de chene draped with shadow lace, entraine, with corsage bouquet of orchids. Mrs. J. R. Scoble, aunt of the bride, wore yellow charmeuse with short ruffled skirt. Mr. and Mrs. Bloomfield-Brown left for a wedding trip to Monterey, Cal., and will sail April 23 for Honolulu. They will be at home after June 1 at Wahiawa, Oahu, Territory of Hawaii.

The Sales of the Henry Siegel Stocks and the other Special Purchases Begin Monday, April 20th

See Omaha Sunday Papers For Full Details

Announcement of especial interest concerning our purchase of the stocks of the HENRY SIEGEL STORE

As previously announced, we secured a great number of the departments from the Siegel stocks at enormous concessions, but were unsuccessful in securing other departments, as they brought higher prices in the auction than we felt warranted in paying.

But in order to make this a sale which should embrace every department in this store and fill every want of every home we gave these instructions to our New York office:

Go into the market and secure the biggest bargains you possibly can. Do not hesitate to buy any quantity, however large, as long as the merchandise is right and the prices low enough.

The result of these instructions are showing up now.

A late season and other unfavorable circumstances made it necessary for a great many high grade manufacturers to unload their overstocks. In many instances it was a question with them how to get cash quickly. They, therefore, were eager to dispose of their stocks at a great sacrifice to the Brandeis Stores, knowing that they would get their money immediately instead of having to wait for it 60 or 90 days, as is customary with most mercantile establishments.

We cannot yet announce the details, but from the general descriptions we have received, the bargains secured are so great that from the basement to the top of this establishment we should be able to offer our customers the greatest values in the history of this city. Among other messages received is one from our cloak and suit buyer telling us of a number of sample lines bought at a fraction of their regular prices. The details of this purchase will be announced later.

Sales Begin Next Monday, April 20th
