Dundee Woman's Club Party.

The Dundee woman's club gave a party Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Selby. Assisting in the receiving line were Mrs. J. P. Ferguson, Mrs. J. E. Dodds and Mrs. J. W. Marshall. A musical program was given, including vocal solos by Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh and Miss Hazel Silver, violin solos by Mr. Charles Lee Cooke, Jr. The decorations were Killarney roses tied with yellow tulle. Mesdames R. C. Peters, Henry Van Gosen, E. A. Benson, F. W. Carmichael and Royal Miller served, assisted by Mrs. Miles Sumner Beeze and Misses Jane Peters, Lucy Harte and Olive Ferguson. The committee in charge of the affair were: Entertainment, Mrs. G. W. Wickensham, Mrs. F. I. Ellick and Mrs. John A. Moore; decorations, Mrs. E. A. Benson and Mrs. T. L. Combs; refreshments, Mrs. E. C. Peters, Mrs. F. W. Carmichael and Mrs. Royal Miller.

Afternoon Musicals.

Mrs. Raymond G. Young entertained at a 4 o'clock musicale Thursday. The rooms were attractively decorated with pink sweet peas. The program was rendered by Mrs. Olga Smolzer of Lincoln, violinist, and Miss Josephine Craig, soprano. Miss Edith Miller and Mrs. Young were the accompanists. Twenty-five guests were present.

Postponement.

The meeting of the Research club has been postponed to April 24.

Coronado Club.
