30 Choice Lots in

Just outside the city limits. Lots 50x125 and 50x150. Lay well, 3 blocks south of Military Avenue on 50th St.

No City Taxes

County and State Taxes are less than $1.00 per lot per year. Indications are that car line will be extended west on Hamilton street in the near future. Here is a chance to buy for an increase in value, as these lots are directly in the path of Omaha's future growth.

$25 cash, $5.00 per month. 10% discount for cash. Salesmen on the ground Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

As a matter of fact, cash demand for corn here today was good if judged in relation to the almost entire absence of inquiry here of late. The actual cash buying amounted to 356,000 bushels. This total, however, was made up of miscel-laneous lots, and had no such algoriti-cance for speculators as would a single 500,000-bushel deal by the leading holder of the big stock that sprang up storage charges here daily while eastern pur-chasers of domestic corn are trying to resell because of Argentine offers at lower rates.

resell because of Argentine offers at lower rates. Improved support and moderately higher prices were the features in the wheat pit. Dry weather reports from the west and southwest had considerable influence and so also did estimates of diminished world shipments. Experts were rather more doubtful as to the out-look for insert damage aspecially in su-look for insect damage, especially in re-sard to Hessian fly. Free covering by shorts made the oats market relatively firm. The late weak-ness in corn, however, led to much selling selling.
