E. Latta. Miss Van Kuran's subject was "Civics" and she laid particular emphasis on the benefits that would accrue from an intelligent use of the ballot by women. Mrs. Getzschmann spoke of the movement to eliminate obctionable films in moving picture shows and to elevate the tone of pictures in children's programs, which are especially prepared. The speaker deplored the showing of war films and suggested films to promote universal peace. Special mention was made of scientific slides being prepared by Thomas Edison. The union will support Mrs. Getzschmann, who is one of its members, in her activities in censoring children's amusements. A request for twelve-Bibles for the county jail service was granted.

ST. PETERSBURG. April 25.-Plans for the observance of a "woman's day" by the workwomen of the capital were broken up by the police. The day was to have been observed chiefly by lectures in various halls on general topics affecting woman's work and position. The police arrested a number of women in advance of the day set, some of them of the edus cated classes, and forbade all the planned meetings but one. Three of the speakers for this meeting, however, were arrested beforehand, and the meeting was dissolved after two women had spoken. The audience tried to form a procession on leaving the hall. This was broken up and a number of other arrests were made. Altogether more than thirty women have been arrested.
