HOWARD AND SEVENTH STREETS

SOUTH PART OF STATE IS IN FINE CONDITION

Assistant General Freight Agent Montmorency of the Burlington is back from a trip into southern Nebraska and Kansas and asserts that he has never known a time when the winter wheat crop promised better than right now. Up to this time the weather conditions have been ideal. There has been plenty of moisture, with the exception of a small area in southwestern Nebraska and northwest, ern Kansas and both of these localities are in the clear, the rainfall of last week having been from two to three inches. With reasonably favorable conditions from now until harvest, Mr. Montmorency is of the opinion that the Nebraska and Kansas wheat crop will be the greatest ever known.

TWENTY LIVES LOST ON SHIP

Wreckage of Steamer Benjamin Noble is Found.

NOT A MAN REACHES SHORE

Five Other Vessels Headed for Duluth Are Overdue and Fear is Expressed for Their Crews.

DULUTH, Minn., April 29.—The steamer Benjamin Noble is lost off Duluth and twenty men are dead. Wreckage was found on Park Point. Liferafters were unable to launch a boat because of the high seas. Not a man reached shore so far as known.

Great anxiety is felt in Duluth for five vessels headed for this port. All of them were overdue yesterday. These are the William H. Tweedale, Willis King, F. T. Hoffelinger, Sheldon Parks and David Z. Norton. No word has been received of these vessels, although diligent search by wireless has been made throughout last night and this morning.

This afternoon the tug Cathaina, looking for the wreck, located the cabin of the Noble on a sand reef near Minnesota Point. They assert that this makes it certain that the crew was lost. No bodies have come ashore.

MINE GUARDS AT FORBES KILLED; TIPPLE BURNED

clean, was caring for the wounded. Superintendent Nichol, awaiting another attack, had his small force of defenders on guard. Postmaster K. E. Cowdery was examining the ruins of the mine office, in which the mail records and stamps had all been burned.

Pitched Battle. An army of strikers estimated at 300 attacked the property shortly after 5 o'clock this morning. There was a pitched battle lasting several hours, after which the strikers disappeared in the hills.

The known dead: R. A. NEWMAN, JACK SMITH, ED KESSELER, FOUR JAPANESE, all defenders of the mine. Seriously wounded: Whitely, negro guard, shot through abdomen. One Japanese, shot through shoulder. Two of the bodies were burned in the ruins of the mine buildings.

Twenty-eight mules were burned when strikers set fire to the mine stables. Several horses were shot or burned. The burned buildings include the mine office, with the United States postoffice, the tipple engine house, boarding house, barn and several homes of miners. George Albert, wife and baby were taken prisoners by the strikers, but released and made their way to a ranch house. Six guards were captured, but released after being taken some distance over the hills.

Ask Operators to Mediate. WASHINGTON, April 29.—President Wilson has asked the president of the Kentucky Mine Operators' association and the Alabama Mine Operators' organization to come to Washington immediately for a conference, with the view to further attempt a mediation of the Colorado mine strike.

It was understood, that acting on request of Secretary Wilson of the Department of Labor, these two men, representing the owners and the employees of coal mine interests, already were on the way to Washington, and that they probably would select a third party and go to the scene of the disorders in Colorado.

The Italian ambassador called this morning on the secretary of state, to ask for protection for the Italians in strike riots in Colorado. The reported killing of six little children was the immediate cause of the request of the assurance of further protection.

Will Withdraw Militarily Slowly. DENVER, Colo., April 29.—"The militia will be withdrawn as the federal troops occupy the strike districts. We will cooperate in every way to restore order."

This statement was made today by Gov. E. M. Ammons when asked what action was contemplated by state officials in connection with the Colorado industrial conflict.

Reports received by Gen. John Chase today were that in a two-hour fight, which began at 8:30 o'clock at Forbes, in Las Animas county, the boarding house had been burned. At 7:30 he was advised that the strikers were retreating over the hills in the direction of Berwind canon.

Companies E and H, Twelfth cavalry, were expected to reach the Fremont county mines during the forenoon. Orders were issued by General Chase to the seventy-one militiamen in that district, when relieved to entrain at once for Walsenburg to aid the troops there in "cleaning up that district," after which he said, attention would be given the Ludlow region until the arrival of federal troops from Fort Leavenworth.

Col. W. A. Davis reported the situation quiet at Louisville, in northern Colorado, early today.

Fighting at Walsenburg, which ceased late last night, had resumed at 9 a. m. today, guards and militia defending the Walsenburg mine against a considerable body of strikers who were firing at long range.

Main Grievance of Union Men. The chief complaint of the union men against the militia, say union leaders, is that the members of the National Guard of Colorado who were kept in and most recently sent into the strike zone are not really members of the guard, but are truly mine guards who enlisted in the militia when it first came to Trinidad, replacing the regular members of the organization who were allowed to return to their homes. The mine guard has been the chief enemy of the strikers, even more than has been the strikebreaker, and the hatred expressed by the strikers against these, whom they call "bird gunners," has been most bitter, both in words and in actions.

President Wilson's proclamation issued yesterday, by virtue of which the federal troops were ordered into Colorado, gives the strikers, "gunmen" and others until tomorrow to return to their various abodes peacefully and to cease all acts of lawlessness. From that moment until further order comes from the president of the United States all violators of law and order must answer to the federal government. This fact it is thought would be a powerful "persuader" among the thirty-four or more nationalities which compose the army of strikers. The uniform of the United States army was expected to have great influence, and the knowledge that the United States was back of every order given was thought to go far toward prevention of the disorder which the strikers had accorded the state troops.

Six Injured in Northern District. BOULDER, Colo., April 29.—Quiet prevailed early today at Louisville, where yesterday was fought one of the most sanguinary battles of Colorado's industrial war. Other camps in the northern Colorado fields were reported orderly.

Upon receipt of advices from the governor that he was uncertain how long the militia would be kept in the field and in the absence of advices whether federal troops were to be sent to that district, District Attorney C. A. Carlson and Sheriff Buster continued perfecting the organization of citizen volunteers for protective duty. Special civilian officers were named today to have charge of equipment, ammunition and other supplies.

Deputies were busy notifying members of the grand jury, which will be convened at 2 o'clock to investigate the strike disturbances.

A close check in yesterday's conflict show six wounded, one probably fatally and two seriously. Peter Stamoff was shot in the head. Yesterday he was reported dead and today is at the University hospital, unconscious and in a dying condition.

Troops Leave Leavenworth. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 29.—The second squadron of the Fifth United States cavalry, ordered to the Colorado strike zone, entrained at Fort Leavenworth for Trinidad at 3 o'clock this morning. The troops, 300 strong, under command of Captain C. C. Smith, traveled without mounts. The squadron should arrive in Trinidad early tomorrow morning.

Orders Received. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 29.—Dispatches from the War department, ordering the second squadron of the Fifth United States cavalry to the Colorado strike zone were received at Fort Leavenworth this afternoon. The troops had been held in readiness for a move and were expected to move for the west in a few hours.

MILITIA COMPANIES ARE STILL ENLISTING HERE

Nebraska National Guard recruiting stations continue to do business, but the glamour of army life is not attracting as much as it did a few days ago when the reports of battles in Mexico was coming in. At the main station in the Woodmen of the World building three men appeared for enlistment yesterday and one at the station on North Twenty-fourth street. The South Omaha station reported progress and an assurance that enough men would be secured to fill one company. Enough men have enlisted to fill up one company in the proposed Sixth regiment and now an effort will be made to secure enough for three more companies. If they can be secured, this will give Omaha the dignity of being a brigade station for the Nebraska National Guard.

PRESIDENT EARLING OF THE MILWAUKEE HERE THURSDAY

En route home from several weeks spent on the Pacific coast, A. J. Earling, president of the Milwaukee road, accompanied by his family and Percy Rockefeller will be in Omaha this afternoon, en route to Chicago.

The Earling party will arrive as a second section of Union Pacific No. 4, reaching here at about 4 o'clock. Here the train will be taken over by the Milwaukee and will run on to Chicago solid. The stop here will be only long enough to change engines, as it is understood that President Earling desires to travel over as much of Iowa as possible during the day time in order that he may make a casual inspection of the second track work done since his last trip over the road.

Percy Rockefeller, who is in the Earling party, is a son of William Rockefeller, one of the principal stockholders in the Milwaukee road.

NEW BURLINGTON STATION IS TO BE NAMED ALLIS

The new town located in the southwestern part of Douglas county on the Burlington's Omaha-Tutan cut-off to be built this summer has been given a name. It is to be called Allis out of respect to the memory of Rev. Mr. Allis, who some eighty years ago came to Nebraska as a missionary among the Otoe Indians.

The town of Allis is close to the site of the old Otoe Indian village that was located on the high land, overlooking the Platte river valley. At this particular place, Rev. Mr. Allis is said to have had his station for many years. During his residence among the Otoes, he learned their language and upon many occasions he served as interpreter when conferences between government officials and Indians were held.

FARMER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Tony DeKanff of Emerson, Ia., Gets Serious Wound.

TWO MEN WERE SCUFFLING

One Picked Up Weapon After They Had Finished and Playfully Snapped Trigger, Not Knowing It Was Loaded.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Ia., April 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Shot in the head by Roy Webb while scuffling, Tony De Kanff, a farm hand, employed on the M. L. Evans farm near Emerson, Ia., is in a dangerous condition at a local hospital with little hope of recovery. No arrests have been made. Webb, who is a fellow laborer, maintains that he shot De Kanff accidentally.

The farm hands had been scuffling for several hours. Webb, according to the Emerson marshal, picked up his gun, not knowing that it was loaded, and pulled the trigger.

Bottle in Suit. Frank S. ("Fing") Bodie, White Sox player, is being sued in the Municipal court at Chicago for 3500 damages by the Alhambra Hippodrome company. The company alleges that "Fing" failed to fill a four-day engagement last fall and that a $500 forfeiture if he failed to fill an engagement was in his contract. No date for a hearing has been set.

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day, other thousands have headaches every week or every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best Doctor is often unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and in most other cases, knowing the cause, he does not know what will remove it, so as to give a permanent cure. All he can do is to prescribe the usual pain relievers, which give temporary relief, but the headache returns as usual, and treatment is again necessary. If you suffer from headaches, no matter what their nature, take Anti-kamnia Tablets, and you will be satisfied in the highest degree. You can obtain them at all drug stores in any quantity, 50c worth, 25c worth or more. Ask for A-K Tablets.

SICK-HEADACHES

Sick-headache, the most miserable of all sicknesses, loses its terrors when A-K Tablets are taken. When you feel an attack coming on, take two tablets, and in many cases, the attack will be warded off. During an attack take one A-K Tablet every two hours. The rest and comfort which follow, can be obtained in no other way. Genuine A-K Tablets bear the K monogram. At all drug stores. S. S.-A-K Sales for Skin Diseases.
