Insurance Notes. Fully three-fourths of the incorporated towns of Kansas observed fire prevention day as proclaimed by Governor Hodges. Beebe, president of the Beebe & Runyon company.

Mr. Beebe has had the painting in the family for many years. His wife inherited it from her auni, but never knew it to be more than a family heirloom.

The supreme court of Kansas has set June 4 as the date for hearing the suit of the fire insurance companies, which seek to set aside the reduction in rates ordered by the insurance companies. The supreme court of Kansas has set June 4 as the date for hearing the suit of the fire insurance companies, which seek to set aside the reduction in rates are proved unprofitable.

As the old frame was rapidly wearing away and crumbling to pleces Mr. Beebe carried it to the art store of A. Hospe to have a new frame put on it. He handed the picture to Mr. Hospe and believing it to be of any value he ordered a rather cheap frame. Mr. Hospe glanced at the picture and noticed that the number of horses were exceptionally well painted.

This attracted Mr. Hospe's attention as most horses are painted in a rather scrubby manner and he informed Mr.

Beebe that the picture was far from worthless in addition to being an heirloom. Then he acrutinized it more carefully and ciphered out the signature at the lower corner of the painting.

"Why, you've got a painting," exclaimed Mr. Hospe in surprise. "This may be worth $5.000 and it is certain that it is a genuine Herring painting."
