GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Foreigners Favor Deliveries of Wheat in July and September.

was a feature as well as a factor in this market last week. There was more or less pressure shown on the July and September because of the excellent weather throughout the oats country and the good prospects for the growing crop. The deliveries of this grain on May contracts were only fair, and most of it was taken by shippers. In case these oats are moved out it may strengthen the cash article as well as the May future. It is believed by speculators that the July and September future will be influenced by the crop prospects.

snow down to normal. Some of the con-sequent upturn in prices though disap-peared as a result of profit taking in the last hour. Prices outset were firm, but the good outlook for the growing crop-lead to realizing sales by holders and brought about a reaction.

Provisions lost much of an early ad-vance. The duliness of the cash trade offset to some extent the effect of grain strength and of the lighter run of hogs west.

CHICAGO, May 4.—Foreign buying here had an important builish influence to day on wheat. In the end the market was easy, but $67\frac{1}{2}\text{c}$ to $56\frac{1}{2}\text{c}$ up, oats off a shade to $6\text{c}$ and provisions with a gain of $3\text{c}$ to $7\text{c}$ c.

In the wheat trade it was virtually conceded on both sides that the situation was a case of phenomenal harvest promise in this country for $13\text{c}$, against fairly buillish conditions throughout the rest of the world.

May wheat builged so suddenly at one time as to put shorts into a good deal of a flurry. The upturn however, attracted much hard winter wheat here from the west, purchases to arrive being $4.000 bushels. Tightness in resard to the May delivery was also partly relieved by Chiengo sales of $60.000 bushels of contract wheat to go to store.

Delay in Argentine corn shipments, a condition due to heavy rains starting afresh, made the corn market here strong. Argentine damage estimates were raised 10 per cent. It was also pointed out by the builg that the former big stocks here had been more than cut in half, and were had down to normal. HOGS-A fair Monday supply showed up this morning, about ninety-five cars, or 6,700 head, being received. This is nearly 2,000 head larger than last week and about 800 head heavier than the corresponding day last year.

Packers opened out bidding just a shade higher. Advices from all other points indicated a better feeling all slong the line and seliers started out asking prices that were close to a dime higher. Trade during the early rounds was very slow, and nothing much sold for over an hour, but when buyers raised their bids a 5c higher level movement livened up and by 10 o'clock the big end of the supply had been cashed at a nickel advance. there was not much competition on the few loads that were left, and in the end the last sales were made at prices that were a shade easier than the general

The long end of the sales was made at $5.25, with the bulk selling at $5.254, $2.75. There was a sprinkling of the commoner lights down to $8.20 and tops reached $5.30, just a nickel above Saturday's top. Shipping demand was rather slack this morning and the big bulk of the offerings went to packers.

SHEEP—About steady on wooled sheep and lambs and steady to a shade higher on the shorn offerings would about cover the situation in the sheep barn this morning and trade was active most of the forenoon on that basis. The receipts were around some 5,000 head, being a few more than last Monday, but short of two weeks ago and a year ago. Shorn offerings constituted the bulk of the supply and taking the quality as a whole it was very good, though nothing strictly toppy was at the disposal of buvers. Some Mexican lambs were good enough to reach $8.00 and a shipment of the shorn grades touched $6.85, these lambs being the same as some that brought $6.85 Wednesday of last week. Today shorn lambs ranged sill the way from $6.35 to 6.85, the quality finish and weight having a lot to do with the price. There were a few scattering loads of wooled fed westerns that sold largely at $7.0007.85 and aside from this little of anything else took place in the lamb division. Activity being an outstanding characteristic of the market, most everything was weighed at a comparatively early hour in the forencon. There was another light trade in aged sheep, as few mutton offerings were in evidence. A bunch of wooled wethers and yearling mixed went over the scales at $5.50 and a consignment of shorn ewes brought $50.00 it is thought that if anything like a normal supply of aged sheep were to arrive a reduction in prices would be a result.

Practically no feeding or shearing sheap or lambs were avialable.
