DANIELS READS LIST OF HEROES

President Rides in Parade Which Escorts Bodies of Sailors Slain in Vera Cruz to New York Navy Yard.

NEW YORK, May 11.—To the men of the navy who died in the occupation of Vera Cruz, the city and the state and the nation paid tribute today in a demonstration chiefly remarkable for its silence and solemnity. For four miles through the city streets the funeral cortege passed, and behind it in an open carriage rode the president.

He sat for the most part with his head bare, though the May sun beat down on him and the mercury climbed above seventy.

Behind a million persons saw the seventeen coffins, each on a caisson, borne from Battery Plaza in lower Manhattan to the navy yard in Brooklyn. The procession was nearly two hours in passing.

Though there were but seventeen of the dead in the procession, Secretary of Navy Daniels made it plain that the ceremonies were for all who had died at Vera Cruz, not only the seventeen whose bodies were brought up by the cruiser Montana, but also for Clarence Harshbarger and Henry Pullan, who have since died.

MR. RUIZ FILES A PROTEST

Mexican Foreign Minister Says American Torpedo Boat Sailed Lighthouse on Island of Lobo.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Admiral Mayo has reported that twenty-three cannon shots were heard at Tampico last night. American Consul C. C. Miller and his vice consul, he reported, now are aboard the Connecticut. Ten or fifteen Americans refused to leave the city.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Associate Justice Joseph Rucker Lamar of the United States supreme court and Freu- stick W. Lehmann of St. Louis, Mo., former solicitor general, have been ap- pointed by the president to represent his views before the South American mediators in the Mexican mediation ne- gotiations at Niagara Falls, Canada. Sec- retary Bryan made this official announce- ment today.

Whether a third representative would be appointed, Mr. Bryan declined to in- dicate, stating that it could be assumed there would be no other appointed.

All Eyes are on Tampico.

The reported seizure of the island of Lobo as an incident in latest developments in the Mexican situation was not more eagerly discussed today than results of the renewed rebel attack on Tampico. Capture of that port by the constitutionalists, it was considered, might relieve the danger of destruction of foreign property there through prolonged fighting. Early reports today stated that one of the bitterest battles of the Carranza rebellion was in progress. The constitutionalists had been reinforced with men and artillery and were determined to bring the siege to an end.

Correspondents are Released.

Release of the American war correspondents who were arrested by federal soldiers relieved a tense situation. Pressing representations of Huerta from several diplomatic sources resulted in freedom for Walter Dyer, George S. Adams, Associated Press, Richard Harding Davis of the New York Tribune, Medill McCormick of the London Times and A. J. Sul-ton of the Washington Post. They were believed to be en route to Vera Cruz or Puerto, Mex., after their experiences in Huerta's capital.

Despite the absence of President Wil- son and Secretary Daniels, who were in New York today at the memorial ser- vices for the Americans killed in the oc- cupation of Vera Cruz, the War and Navy departments continued working out their precautionary plans.

Funston Arrests Correspondent.

First Lieutenant Charles M. Maigne, United States army, retired, who went through the Mexican lines at Vera Cruz, in the capacity of correspondent for a Washington newspaper, was arrested today on returning to Vera Cruz. Ad-vice of his arrest reached the War department from General Funston.

Maigne's arrest was ordered from Wash- ington on the ground that it would be difficult to satisfactorily explain the presence of an American officer within the lines of those who contest the right of the United States to Mexico.

Orders had previously gone out for Maigne to cease writing newspaper stories and when General Funston re- ported that the retired officer had passed through the Mexican federal lines, the order for his arrest followed.

Officials here took the view that as Lieutenant Maigne, although retired, still is subject to the jurisdiction of Sec- retary Garrison, it would be difficult if not impossible to satisfy the Mexican fed- eral commander that the officer's pres- ence within the enemy's lines was in his purely civil capacity as a newspaper cor- respondent and not as a United States military spy.

Complaint by Ruiz.

MEXICO CITY, May 10.—Foreign Minister Ruiz has telegraphed the South American mediators in Washington that several United States torpedo boats with a transport and tender appeared off the coast.

Business and Ideals

Success in business comes through the application of good ideas and the tenacious pursuit of high ideals.

The basic idea and the high est ideal of any truly success- ful business is service.

Newspaper advertising occu- pies the place it does today be- cause it has demonstrated its great capacity for service.

It is a convenient method by which business may express its ideas and its ideals to the public.

It is respected because it is respectable.

It is of profit to the advertis- ers to the extent that they make their offerings of profit to the public.
