Pa's Athletes Easy Pickings Gaskill, Although He Shows Nothing in Way of Curves, Speed or Control.

The Denver Grizzlies greeted Pa' demon athletes with giad rejoicing Saturday and proceeded to insult the Rourkes by sending into the box one Gaskill, who had been plowed all over Mizzou field by the Sloux the day be It was easily seen why Gaskil was bumped by the Sloux, If he has any curves he didn't show 'em yesterday His slow ball was plenty. Also th Rourkes were a little out of form in the field and Denver won, 5 to 2. The Rourkes are still in wonder as to how it was done. So are the fans.

pitching can win from Omaha is a fact that no base ball scientist can deduce. Perhaps the Rourkes suffered an attack of stage fright, as it was their first battle with the gents who have copped the emblem the last three years. Or perhaps Luck Against Omaha. The Omaha athletes, contrary to the usual custom, fell down woefully in the Five boots were registered and in addition to this both Closman and Luhrsen cut loose with wild pitches which allowed Denver runners to score and Sheetak allowed a passed ball. couple of hits got away from the infield which should have been easy pickings. but the Omaha lads were slow in covering.

Omaha started in tough luck. Thomas was safe on Coffey's error, but Chase flew out to Careldy. Thomason then sent a long drive to Cassidy. Thomas, who had previously swiped second watched the pill sail out and just as Cassidy got under it started for third. He was doubled at second with case. In the second inning Denver made Spahr opened the seventh with a hit to left. He was sacrificed to second by Gaskili, went to third when Faye flew out to Congalton and scored when

Thomas made a second error. Luhrsen Twirls for Omaha,

In the meantime Luhrsen was sent into pitch, as Closman retired to allow today's game for Wichita. Schipke to bat for him. Butcher opened on Luhrsen in the eighth with a double Mitchell secured an infield hit which should have been easily handled and Coffey's sacrifice fly sent Butcher home, Denver made another in the ninth.

Spahr's hit bounced off Thomas's leg and rolled into center field, allowing Spahr to make third. Luhrsen then uncorked a wild pitch and Spahr scored. Omaha scored in the fifth and seventh. In the fifth, with two down, Clancy walked. Shestak drove one against the left field fence and Clancy scored. Congalton doubled in the seventh and scored on Krug's hit to center. Clancy was easy pickings, but Shestak was walked purposely. Schipke was sent into ba for Closman, but filed weakly to Cas-
