CORNHUSKERS FOR TENNIS

Will Send Team to St. Louis to Com pete in Missouri Valley Tennis Tourney-Slevers Suns-mann on Team.

By JAMES E. LAWRENCE. LINCOLN, May 16 .- (Special Telegram.) -At the election of student members for the athletic board this week, Victor Halliman, captain of the foot ball eleven topped the list of all candidates. Halligan polled a bigger vote than even his closet friends expected Herbert Reese, a track man, polled the second highest vote; Zumwinkel snother track man was third high; Mari Hawkins, a basket ball player, was fourth and O. C. Fouts, a foot ball man, was fifth. There were eight candidates. The new members will take their place on the board at the last meeting of the year in this year at the Missouri Valley Tennis ment held at St. Louis, May 23, It is the first time a Cornhusker team has been picked for the tournament-the rebult of the expansion to all branches of athleties at Nebraska. The tournament will be held under the auspices of Wash. ington university in ponnection with the Miresuri Valley track and field meet. Washington, Kansas. Miscourl. Ames. Diake, Nebrasha and the Kansas Aggles will have teams in the tournament. The Nobracka team includes Williams, Sussmann, an Omaha lad, and Mayes, the fifth two to represent the Cornhuskers in the doubles and Meyers playing in the Track Most with Wesleyan. Wosleyan is next on the program for the Cornhusker track squad-the Methodists and Cornfluskers holding a 'dual meet on the Nebraska cinder path next Saturday I Wesleyan has established its tupremacy over secondary colleges in Ne-braska and is reputed to have a strong peka at Des Atomes, Wichits at St. Jo-tism. The Cornbuskers indicentally have west, Stone City at Lincoin.

Following the Wesleyan meet, the Huskers have only the Missouri Valley meet at St. Louis on May 29 and 30, and tage, June 3 and 6, to look forward to. Track supremacy in the Missouri Valley is much muddled this year. Nebraska was defeated decisively by Kansas early in the season; Missouri beat Kansas the following week by an equally one-sided score; Ames took Missouri into camp and then Nebraska adds the finishing touch by easily defeating Ames last Sat-

All Depends on Big Meet. It is apparent that the championship will rest more than ever on the outcome of the Missouri Valley meet. The Cornhuskers are slowing rounding into form, according to Coach Reed and should be their strongest in the St. Louis meet. Against Kansas, the Corphuskers did not show one-third the strength of last Sattirday and Reed to beginning to hope for a favorable termination of the season.

Dlaker Throws Zimmer.

TABLE ROCK. Neb., May 16.—(Special.)—The wreatling match at the opera house here Thursday night attracted a large crowd. The contestants were Roy Zimmer of Montana, and Charles Blaker of Table Rock. Blaker won in two straight falls in twenty-three minutes. Blaker has certainly made an improvement since his sickness, two years since, and is now ready for the highest honors in the middle class. Zimmer came with a big reputation, but at no time had Blaker where he could put him down. Fred Bartell of Buffalo. N. X., challenged the winner and preparations are being made to stage the match, on May 22. Blaker Throws Zimmer.
