CRITICIZES COLOMBIA TREATY

He Calls Proposed Payment Twenty-Five Militons Binckmail -Opposes Repeal of Free Tolls Law.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., May 20,-Twelve hours after Theodore Roosevelt returned (ross South America he was back today in the thick of politics. He was up early and as soon as breakfast was over he was hard at work picking up the threads where he dropped them seven months

Colonel Roosevelt, it was learned today, looks forward to one of the hardest political campaigns of his career. Except for the time occupied by his trip to Spain for the wedding of his son, Kermit, he expects to devote to politics most of his time until November. Already a tentative plan of action has been mapped out. Colonel Roosevelt has in mind one of the longest campaign trips he ever has made, taking him from the Atlantic to the Pacific and several shorter trips in nearby states. By 2 o'clock today he was in his library. He paced the floor and dictated letters and telegrams at top speed to the stenographer whom he had summoned from Numerous Conferences Planned. For the ten days before he satis for Europe Colonel Roosevelt has mapped out a program which will keep him busy. His present desire is to get back in touch as soon as possible with the affairs of the progressive party in all parts of the country and help to start the machinery for the coming campaign. Hefore he left South America he planned party. The first of these was sent for chairman of the national executive committee, and O. K. Davis of Washington, secretary of the committee, were expected at Sagamore Hill to give Colonel Roosevelt a report on the situation:

Coionel Roosevelt will go to his editorial office in New York temorrow morning and will spend most of the day in meeting political associates.

When he goes to Washington next week, he said, he will be ready to refuse statements of Henry Savage Landor of England and others who have expressed doubt as to the correctness of his statement that he had discovered a great river

"The river is still there," said the colonel with a laugh. "It was not like climbing an unexplored mountain or gothere in deciding the better on how to ing to the North pole, for such expeditions leave no traces which are there a year Last week he made a survey of Eldon later. But nobody is going to roll 1; where plans are maturing for betterment that river and carry it off. Anybody can go down there and see it for himco-operating with local boards in all self. I will give him the address of the owner of a rubber plantation who will work in getting the public improvements furnish river men for the trip."

The colonel went on to explain why he made the trip to South America.

"I wanted to do something more," h "I was getting to the age where felt if I was to do anything requiring unusual physical exertion I must do it now. In fact, I was just a little over the age, but I put it through."

Monkeys for Food. Colonel Roosevelt said it was pretty hard going for a few weeks. Rations ran short and they got down to eating monkeys, which, the colonel declared, could hardly be considered a delicacy. However, he said, at about that time he was hardly well enough to eat anything. The colonel protested that he felt as well as ever. "That is," he said, "I'm going to b as well as I ever was." He said that the return to a northera cilmate had caused him to have chills.
