TIPPLE WINS HIS OWN GAME

Twirler Knocks in Winning Run in Tenth with Single.

CLOUTS HOMER CONGALTON

Bunk Makes First Circuit Bust by Rourke Athlete This Senson, but Tipple's Timely lift Puts the Outfielder in Shade.

It was for a while the general belief of the gathering of fans at Bourke park yesterday afternoon that Bunk Congalton was holding some kind of a special day in his honor, for Bunk knocked a home run over the right field fence in the lirst inning, the first action of its kind promulgated by a Rourke athlete this season, but Dan Tipple, the pulchritudinous athlete, sneaked in and crabbed the doings. With the score a tie, 7 to 7, in the last of the tenth, two men out and Joe Ward on third base, Daniel smote one perfectly good single to left, winning his own battle, 8 to 7.

Maddox had two strikes on the handsome twirler and the bugs resigned themselves to the best, as Willie Lee Crosby under the same conditions had whifted on Nick Maddox's curves. On the subsequent pitch Joe Ward started for the plate. This put it up to Maddox to put it over the middle. The ball went ac cording to directions and sailed on a line for the plate. If Tipple had let it go Umps Jack Haskell would have been compelled to call it a strike and Tipple would have been out and Ward's dash would have been in vain. This put it up to Tipple to deliver. And Tipple delivered. He swung his heavy green but, the but met the ball on the nose and the game

Until that whirlwind finish the combat was exceedingly bum. Vaught started for the Wiches and blew sky high. Closman started for Omaha and he finally went up. Maddox relieved Vaught and Tipple relieved Closman and both pitched gilt-edge ball.

Wiches Score in First.

Wichita made three in the opener. Nicholson's single, steal of second and O'Rourke's double made one. Henry was Make it Four Straight Over Kaws then hit by a pitched ball and Graham's single scored O'Rourke. Bills' single

Wichita made no more until the sixth when Closman ascended Bills and Bosoloni singled and Fitzsimmons' double scored Bills. Schipke's error let the wop and Fitzsimmons score. Congalton cap tured the two remaining outs, althoug he juggled O'Rourke's high fly for minute, thus making the bugs stand on en for that length of time. Closman opens the seventh by hitting Henry for th second time. He then walked Graham and Tipple was called. Tipple walks Bills before he was warmed up, an then Bossoloni got a lucky single to left With three men on bases still, Tippl buckled down to work and no more score

Rourkes Get Enrly Lead. The Rourkes got a good lead in th first with five scores. Cancy singled an Krug was walked. Thomason rolled or to Vaught, who attempted to get Clanat third. He threw the ball into th grandstand and Clancy and Krug hike home. Congalton then lifted his hom run over the fence, scoring Thomason t fore him. Ward singled to center ar Chase drove one through Henry which

Two more were annexed in the second. Ekipper Bill Schipke, the famous aquatic athlete, walked and went to second on a bassed ball. Clancy attempted to sacrifice, but Maddox tried to catch Skip at third. useless attempt, as Skip beat the throw, which was bad anyway. Krug forced Clancy at second, but Thomason walked, and Ward hit the punch after Congalton died. Both Schipke and Krug came home on the hit.

From then on all was off with Nick Maddox's pitching until the fatal tenth. Congalton flew out in that inning, but Ward connected safely for the third time. Chase was safe on O'Rourke's error, but Crosby struck out. Here Dan Tipple appeared on the scene of action and now Dan is a hero in Omaha.

The Rourkes left last night for Sious City, where a series of four will be played From there they jump to Topeka, from Topeka to Denver and from Denver back to Wichita and Lincoln before returning | today

AUSTIN MAY BE MADE MANAGER OF THE BROWNS

Lawrence E. Pratt. a cousin of Second Baseman Pratt of the St. Louis Browns, has returned to Omaha after a short visit in St. Louis, and he brings the tidings that Jimmy Austin, the old Omaha third baseman, will probably be made manager of the Brown team before the season is over. According to Pratt, the popular belief among the members of the team is that Branch Ricky will be made president of the club and that Austin will be advanced to Ricky's present position.
