Prince Charlie Bryan yesterday took a shot at Governor Morehead, in which he said he was "surprised" to learn that the reactionary element in the democratic party had forced the governor to get into the race for governor again. Last night Governor Morehead at the bankers' convention, while not talking politics, handed out a few mild criticisms of the campaign methods being used by Berge, who criticized the increase in the cost of running the state. Governo Morehead said that he had discovered that the cost of running the state had increased in the last twenty years just as the cost of living had inreased for every family in the state, and said it was only necessary to look into the matter to find where our money was

Pleasant Smoke in the World, Because -

First-No one but the makers of Tuxedo is willing to spend the money necessary to buy the mildest, choicest, most thoroughly aged, selected Burley tobacco.

Second-No one but the makers of Tuxedo knows how to treat this Burley tobacco so that every bit of pleasantness and goodness remains in the tobacco and every bit of unpleasantness and harshness is taken out.

Tuxedo was born in 1904. Its first imitator appeared two years later. Since then a host of imitations have been born, and are clamoring for your patronage.

No imitation is ever as good as the original. No amount of advertising, no amount of bluster and bluff, can ever make an imitation tobacco as good as Tuxedo.

If you are not a pipe smoker, you are denying yourself the greatest smoking pleasure known to man. One week of Tuxedo will give you more enjoyment than you have ever had—and at the end of the week your nerves will be better and your general health will have improved. Try Tuxedo this week!
