Most of State Gets Rain of an Immense Value.

CONTINUES ALL TUESDAY NIGHT

Heaviest Downpour is Over Counties Along the Missouri-Little Damage is Done to the Lines of the Railroads.

Morning reports to the railroads indicate that the rain of Tuesday night was general over the east half of Nebraska and that in numerous places it was one of the old-fashioned root soakers. Genand continued during a greater portion were. He said some people had a peop

There was a continuous downpour al the way east from a line drawn south from O'Neill in Holt county. The heaviest rainfall was in Clay county, where at Edgar and over a large portion of Clay county the precipitation was from three to three and one-half inches.

The Burlington reports from one to two inches of rain at Beatrice, Nebraska City, Nemaha, Hickman, Wilber, Strang, Plattsmouth, Schuyler, Grand Island, R. Paul, Randolph, Aurora, Crete, Ashland, and Clay Center, this precipitation covering a dozen or more countles.

Lincoln had three inches of rain, while up and down the Missouri river valley it was nearly as heavy, there being two inches at Blair, one and one-half inches all through Burt county and extending well up into Thurston.

Senator Kenyon to Talk at Republican Banquet on June 22

A state wide republican banquet is planned to be held in Omaha June 22. Amos Thomas, secretary of the republican state committee, wrote Senator George W. Norris at Washington about the possibility of getting some national figure to speak at a state republican banquet soon. Senator Norris has wired back that Senator Kenyon of Iowa is to be in Omaha June 22. It was this fact that determined the date upon which the banquet is to be held. Senator Kenyon is to be the principal speaker of the

JEANETTE JOHNSON WINS CHILD'S STORY CONTEST

Jeanette Johnson, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Johnson, 424 South Thirty-fifth street, has distinguished herself by being the first Omaha child to win a prize in the story writing contests conducted by "Every Child's" magazine. Her winning story is printed in the June number of the publication. just out. The magazine is edited and published by Miss Grace Sorenson in Omaha. "The Cave in the Woods" is the title of little Jeannette's story, which is a fairy tale showing great imagination on the part of the youthful authoress.

WEIGHING OF MAILS TO BE FINISHED TUESDAY

The quadrennial weighing of the mails will be completed in this division on Tuesday, according to instructions received from Washington. Owing to the fact that the tabulation of the weights made in 1910 was made in Chicago, it is impossible to compare the weights this year with the last general weighing in this division. However, it is known that a substantial increase is shown, much of which is attributed to the increased weight of the mails due to the inauguration of the parcel post.

JURY IN ICE CASE GIVES A VERDICT FOR $109

A Jury in Judge Troup's district court found that Margolin Bros., independent ice dealers, should pay $109 to James Whelan, who held an assignment from John Gunderson of a claim for cutting and storing ice.

The same deal was involved in this case as in the recent "ice trust case" in Judge Day's court. The defendants alleged that Gunderson was prevented from fulfilling a contract to fill two ice houses for him by the "ice trust.

MORE ACRES IN SMALL FRUIT AROUND FLORENCE

Growing of small fruit in the Florence district is on the increase, according to the returns brought in by Deputy Assessor S. B. Letovsky, who has been making a canvass of that locality. For the year 1912 he reports an acreage of 330, while for this year it totals 402% acres A comparison of four fruits in acreage
