TRAINLOAD OF THRESHERS SHOWS BIG CROP EXPECTED

That Nebraska implement dealers as well as Nebraska farmers are anticipating and feeling pretty certain of a bumper crop of small grain is borne out by the fact that right now harvesting machinery is being rushed into the agricultural districts of the state.

The largest single consignment of threshing machines ever brought into Nebraska arrived over the Illinois Central Tuesday night and went to Lincoln over the Burlington. The machines came from Minneapolis and there were fifty-eight of them, brought in on fifty-eight flat cars, run as a special traim. At Lincoln the threshing machines will be distributed among the dealers in the wheat raising districts of the South Platte valley.
