

LIFTS THE SCHOOL BOARD LID

Dr. J. J. Foster Tells What Has Been Going On Inside.

PEOPLE TO JUDGE BY RECORD

Something of the Canvass-Made Plans of the Board that Miscarried and Some of the Reasons Why.

"I do not seek any personal controversy over school board matters, but neither do I want to rest silent under undeserved imputation," said Dr. J. J. Foster, referring to what has appeared in The Bee about "the high school fracas."
"Everything I have done since I have been on the board is of record, and I have tried to be consistent along lines deemed by me best for the schools. I have never denied anything I have done or tried to do. As to 'double-crossing,' all I want is for the public to have the facts and judge for themselves.
"In the first place, I went on the board at the same time with President Walker, and he and I and one or two others started out together with the same professed purposes. We were opposed to the controlling faction headed by Dr. Holovitchner, and opposed to his election to the presidency. I knew we were in the minority and were sure to be beaten, and when Dr. Holovitchner was elected president I was excluded from any desirable committee appointments, which was what was coming to me, and I made no complaint. Let it be noted, though, that Mr.
Walker was given a committee chairmanship, and from that time was found voting with Dr. Holovitchner to carry through all his plans. I want to say this for Dr. Holovitchner, that he never told me he would do one thing and then did the opposite.
"When it came to the last reorganization of the board a succession of secret caucuses were held by the former minority, which was soon to be the majority. What was done in these caucuses has become known to all the board, and I feel free now to speak about them publicly. James Richardson, as the member of longest service, wanted to be president, and I thought he should be, but Mr. Walker insisted on having the presidency for himself, and Mr. Richardson yielded rather than have our combination broken and the policies we had agreed upon miscarry. Practically our whole program was discussed in these caucuses and it was understood that we were to support what was decided upon.
Plan to Change Superintendent.
"Regardless of details, it may as well be known that the displacement of Superintendent Graff and the appointment of Miss McHugh in his place, was fully determined upon by our caucus. It had been reported to us that Mr. Graff had led the high school teachers to look for salary increases contrary to our policy of retrenchment, and President Walker was most active and outspoken for the change. Superintendent Graff was called in and told he could find another place and we ascertained that Miss McHugh was willing to accept, provided a vacancy actually existed and she was not to be a candidate against anyone. Mr. Walker kept Editor Watson and Editor Polzer of the two papers fully advised of these moves—in fact, of all the moves of our caucuses—and the publication in these papers of the coming change in superintendency was made. I am reliably informed with his knowledge and consent.
The Bee was not supposed to be in our confidence, and was thus left to get this news from its competitors.
"What was our surprise then to find in The Bee the next day a signed statement from President Walker, not only denying the whole thing, but pleading his support to Superintendent Graff for re-election and upsetting the whole program. I have nothing personal against Superintendent Graff, although I admit I was ready to make the change in the superintendency as a part of the general policy we were seeking to apply to the schools.
How Retrenchment Program Fell.
"The same thing is true with reference to the abolition of the summer school and the reduction of certain excessive salaries, except that discontinuance of the summer school alone has been put through as agreed upon. I am willing to have everyone know what salaries I wanted to cut, and my reasons, and to stand by them.
I never opposed the election of anyone to a position I thought he or she was not qualified for or entitled to and then turned around and voted an increase in salary after the appointment was made over my protest.
"Now, as to the high school vice principalship, I think I have been consistent here, for I have steadfastly favored a man for the position and Mr. McMillan being the only man candidate, with no one questioning his fitness, I was for Mr. McMillan. Member Richardson, it is true, felt bound to have the position go to a woman, supposedly by his enthusiasm for woman suffrage, and thought he had the unwavering support of President Walker. The two of them came to the teachers' committee meeting when that question was to be settled with the understanding that they were to tell us they would both resign unless a woman was named. Mr. Richardson has resigned, but his is the only resignation so far received.
"Let me repeat again that I am standing squarely on my record in the school board, and only want all the facts known, so the public may judge fairly."

TWO MEN TALK TOO MUCH TO JUDGE FOR OWN GOOD

The gift of speech turned the tide in police court and sent two men, Sam McKnight and Jim Kelly, to jail for 30 days after they had been given a suspended 90-day sentence for prowling about the Illinois Central yards.
"Will you promise to stay closer to your homes if I let you off with this suspended sentence?" asked Police Judge Foster.
"Sure we will, Your Honor," spoke up McKnight, "but let me tell you one thing, we ain't guilty of nothing and oughtn't to be in court here at all."
"Thirty days each for too much gab," said the judge, and the prisoners were at last jabbering when led back to the jailpen.
