WILSON IS ORATOR OF DAY

Speaks at Dedication of Monument to Memory of Confederate Dead.

CROWDS GATHER IN THE RAIN Flags of the Old South and the Stars and Stripes Are Draped Over Shaft and speakers'

WASHINGTON, June 5.-A terrific hunderstorm broke over Arlington National cemetery today while President Wilson was addressing a crowd gathered for the unveiling of the monument erected there to the Confederate dead. Mrs. Daley McLauren Stevens, prestent general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, made the address presenting the monument to the president on behalf of the women of the confederacy. Tumultous applause greeted her when she said: "Yours, Mr. President, was Jefferson's spirit when at Mobile you said the Inited States had no interest in Mexico, or any other foreign lands, except to see the purposes of happiness under a constitutional and just government." The president acknowledged the tribute that the citizens enjoyed the right to with smiling approval. General Washington Gardner, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and General Bennett Young, mmander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans were notable figures among the speakers and both were cheered with equal enthusiasm by veterans in gray and those in blue. President Wilson was introduced and was given an enthusiastic reception. He said: The President Talks. "I assure you that I am profoundly aware of the solemn significance of the thing that has now taken place. The daughters of the confederacy have presented a memorial of their dead to the government of the United States. I hope that you have noted the history of the conception of this idea. It was proposed by a president of the United States, who had himself been a distinguished officer in the union army. It was authorized by an act of congress of the United States. The cornerstone of the monument was laid by a president of the United States, elevated to his position by the votes of the party which had chiefly prided itself upon sustaining the war for the union. And, now it has fallen to my lot to accept in the name of the great government which I am privileged for the time to represent, this emblem of a reunited people. Easy Monthly am not so much happy as proud to ecasion; proud that I should represent suh a people. Am I mistaken, ladies and gentlemen, in supposing that nothing of this sort could have occurred in anything but a democracy? "The people of a democracy are not related to their rulers as subjects are related to a government. They are themselves the sovereign authority and as they are neighbors of each other, quickened by the same passions and moved by the same motives, they can understand each other. They are shot through with some of the despest and profoundest instincts of human sympathy. They choose their governments. They consult their rulers. They live their own life and they will not have that life disturbed and discol-ord by fraternal misunderstandings. Chapter in History Closed. This chapter in the history of the United States is now closed and I can bid you turn with me your faces to the uture, quickened by the the past, but with nothing to do with the centests of the past, knowing as we have shed our blood upon opposite sides, we

"The generosity of our judgment was made up soon after this great struggle was over, when men came and sat to-sether again in the congress and united in all the efforts of peace and of government; and our solemn duty is to see that each one of us is in his own consciousness and in his own conduct, a replica of this great reunited people. It is our duty and our privilege to be like the country we represent, and speaking no word of malice, no word of criticism no word of malice, no word of criticism even, standing shoulder to shoulder to lift the burdens of mankind in the future and show the paths of freedom to all the world." The dominant figure of the monument unveiled today is a woman of heroic size, typifying the south in policy, in surmounting a relief upon which there are thirty-two figures depicting the heroism of the south in war. It was dedicated to all heroes of the confederacy. Flags of the confederacy and the stars and stripes were draped together over the monument and decorated the speakers' stand. The Fifth cavalry band played 'The Star Spangled Banner" and "Dixie." Omaha Guardsman Is Wedded Shortly Before Midnight

To be married at midnight in Council Bluffs, after successfully pleading with Harry M. Brown, clerk of the district court, to go to the county court house and issue the license and then inducing Justice J. K. Cooper to get out of bed and go to his office in the court house and perform the wedding ceremony, was the rather novel experience of Captain Lon C. Kersterson of the recoraska National Guard, Omaha, Wednesday.

Captain Kesterson was united in marriage to Miss Cecile A. Gladfelter of Lincoln. The ceremony was planned for an earlier hour, but the bride was delayed in her arrival from Lincoln. Captain Kesterson is prominently connected with the Bell Telephone company, und when the bridal party arrived in Councii Bluffs about 10 o'clock they pressed into service the whole operating department of the telephone company there.
