Nash May Come Back.

Ken Nash, the old Brown shortstep, who is now making a noise like a politician in the Massachusetts legislature, is being besieged by offers from the Feds. Brother Reggie and recently that Miller Hugsins, manager of the Cardinals, by whom Ken was drafted last fall from Waterbury, is anxious to have the shortstop report to him. But Ken intimates that if he plays at all it will be with the Feds. Money talks with him.
